

STEPHENS SPEAKS AT MIT FORUM

Everett W. Stephens, Dean of Students and Director of Placement at Babson Institute, spoke yesterday (January 13) at a forum of government recruiters at the M.I.T. faculty club.

The all day conference featured discussions and panels on ways of making government service more attractive to qualified college graduates.

Stephens subject was "You the Recruiter". He discussed the philosophy of recruiting and the role of the recruit as an enticer, counselor, and salesman.

Placement directors from Harvard and M.I.T. also addressed the gathering on the various aspects of recruiting.

NET BADMINTON TOURNAMENT HERE

Babson Institute will play host to the New England Intercollegiate Badminton Tournament at Peavey Gymnasium, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, February 26, 27, 28. Tournament events will consist of Ladies' singles, Mens' doubles, and mixed doubles.

The tournament, sanctioned by the Massachusetts Badminton Association, and the American Badminton Association, will be open to all full-time students attending colleges and universities in New England. Prizes will be awarded to winners and runner-ups in all events, and a team trophy will be awarded the winning team.

If enough interest is shown and there is ample time, a clinic and exhibition by nationally ranked players will be held. The tournament is being directed by Dave Sime, Babson Graduate student.

SMITH IMPROVING FROM INJURIES

Athletic Director Tom Smith is reported to be improving from injuries received in an accident on Saturday evening, December 26, in the city of Brockton. Smith suffered a fractured jaw, loss of teeth, a crushed chest, a chipped pelvic bone, and multiple bruises.

TOM SMITH

While specific details of the accident are unknown, Brockton City Police theorize that Mr. Smith skidded on the icy pavement while driving through the city and slid into an obstruction at the side of the road. Police further theorize that Smith then left his car to examine the damage and was struck down by a hit and run driver.

Smith is recuperating in the Brockton Hospital. Visitors are not yet allowed. As Mr. Smith will be unable to return to his job for quite some time, it is suggested that remembrances and visits be delayed until he has more fully recovered.

"SOUND OF MUSIC" WINTER CARNIVAL THEME

Winter Carnival Chairman Billy T. Jenkins has announced the theme for the 1960 Winter Carnival Weekend. This year's festivities will center around "The Sound of Music."

The carnival will be held on February 19, 20, 21. Friday afternoon the varsity basketball team will play Jim Tedesco's Boston State Teacher's College quintet at Peavey Gymnasium. Friday night the Sheraton Plaza Hotel will be the scene of the formal dance. The music will be offered by the Harry Marshard aggregation.

As a special attraction arrangements have been made for the "Storm of Colors", a system of multicolored lights which Jenkins describes as "even more complex and beautiful than ever before." This dance will be preceded by various parties arranged by individuals and organizations.

PLAY AND PARTY

The annual float judging contest will be held at noon Saturday, with the various fraternities building monuments depicting the theme of the weekend. The float by the judges, a group of Wellesley businessmen, as the best piece of workmanship will win for its builders the coveted "Bean Pot" trophy. This event will be followed by a brief coffee hour in the Fo'c'sle.

Wellesley High School Auditorium will be the scene of the Theatre Guild's annual dramatic presentation during the afternoon. This year's offering will be the musical comedy "Guys and Dolls". Rehearsals are already in progress for the play and Theatre Guild President Frank Winch has stated that this year's show will top the guild's previous year's presentation, "The Boyfriend," which was acclaimed by many students as the best play ever presented at Winter Carnival.

The evening's entertainment consist of a show put on by the "Accidentals", a singing group of three men and a girl. Chairman Jenkins calls the group, "better than the Four Freshmen but not as well known yet. They should be top stars in only a short while." Also entertaining at the party, to be held in the State Armory in Concord, will be Clay Brooker and his band from Washington, D. C.

SUNDAY'S JAZZ

Sunday morning, Dave Hunt will cater a "Bromo Brunch" in the Fo'c'sle for the late risers. The afternoon will be devoted to the traditional Sunday jazz concert. This year the Monticello Restaurant has been hired for this Dixieland festival. Tickets for the weekend and reservations for tables at the formal will be on sale during the weeks prior to the Carnival.

PALAZZI NAMED VARSITY COACH

Togo Palazzi, member of the champion Boston Celtics, has been named varsity basketball coach of Babson Institute. He replaces Athletic Director Tom Smith who was seriously injured in an automobile accident during the holidays.

Palazzi started his climb to fame in the basketball world at Holy Cross, where he was All American in 1953 and 1954. During the Sugar Bowl Basketball Tourney of 1953, he was named Most Valuable Player and played a large part in the Holy Cross victory.

In March of 1954 Togo won the MVP award at the National Invitation Tourney which Holy Cross also won. His senior year he served as co-captain of the team with Ron Perry, and it was this same year that he racked up 670 points, breaking Bob Cousy's record for most points scored at the Cross.

Following graduation from Holy Cross, Palazzi came to the Celtics as their number one draft choice and played in Boston for two and a half years.

In 1957, Togo was sold to Syracuse where he played until last November when he returned to the Celtics. He is currently carried by the Celts as a spare player in case of serious injury to one of the regulars, and is expected to resume full-time duties with the team next season.

Togo, his wife Ginnie, and their three boys currently reside at 11 Birmingham Road in Worcester.

INCOME TAX SAMPLE RETURNS IN

Mr. John P. McMahon has received copies of "Individual Federal Income Tax Specimen Returns." These booklets will be distributed to students who took Federal Taxes I during the Fall Term. Students desiring the returns should call at Mr. McMahon's office in Lyon Hall before or after the first two classes each day, or between 1:00 and 3:00 P.M. on Mondays.

COL. L. J. MEYNS DIES SUDDENLY

The entire Babon Institute community was saddened to learn of the death of Colonel Lawrence J. Meyns on January 1. Col. Meyns, Chairman of the Division of Management and Production, was respected and admired by all who knew him.

COL. L. T. MEYNS

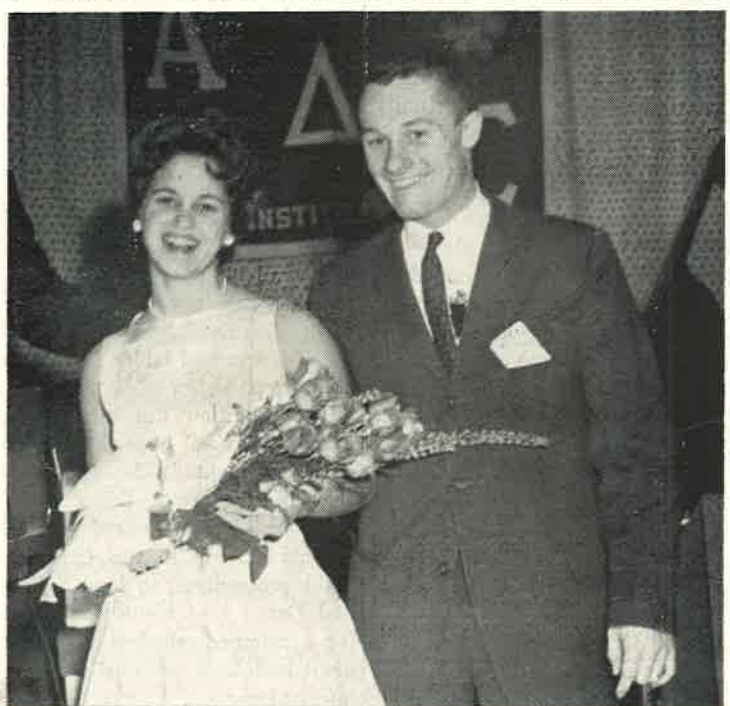

Born in Denver, Colorado, Col. Meyns was graduated from the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration. A thirty year veteran of the U.S. Army, the colonel was attached to the Watertown Arsenal for several years; Chief of Supply, Stock Control, and Storage, Office Chief of Ordnance, in Washington; and Chief, Boston Ordnance Procurement District.

He was a Director of the Smaller Business Association of New England; President and Director, Yankee Post, American Ordnance Association; and Honorary Life Member of the American Ordnance Association.

Col. Meyns had served on the faculty at Babson since 1947. Services were held at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Wellesley. Burial was in Arlington National Cemetery.

AUTO TAGS

Students are reminded that all car parked on campus must bear the metal BI tag. Any student who has changed registration plates or has a different car than that on campus last year must register these facts with Miss Tracy. These matters must be taken care of before the close of office hours on Friday, June 15, or fines will be levied against offenders.

Join AMERICA'S GREAT VOLUNTEER TASK FORCE

— EDITORIALS —

A recent issue of the SIMMONS NEWS, student newspaper of Simmons College, told of the proposal of that school's Student Government to condemn the loyalty oath and non-communist oath of the National Defense Education Act. By so doing, Simmons joined sixteen other prominent American colleges and universities who have refused to accept these pledges of faith. Numbered among these institutions of learning are the Harvard and Yale Universities. These schools find no reason to refuse the money involved under the act, in fact they are most anxious to receive such loans.

The National Defense Education Act is the measure passed by the Congress of the United States to grant financial aid to deserving American students. Before receiving funds the student being aided must sign an oath swearing allegiance to the United States and an oath stating he is not affiliated with the Communist Party or any of its "front" organizations.

Apparently many of America's young people — tomorrow's leaders — are of the opinion that either their loyalty is above question or that the financial resources of this country should be disbursed to all people, friend or foe of the American way of life. If a person is not willing to pledge his allegiance to his country he has no right to expect that country to support his education. Members of admitted anti-American groups also should not be allowed the use of American money. These people are not against using the money, they are against the "principle" involved in the oath swearing. Do they forget that the great nation which sired them also has certain principles?

Is it too much to expect a native American to stand up for his land's doctrines and freedoms? It is ironic to know that those persons who are unwilling to defend their own country or who belong to organizations devoted to the overthrow of the government would also be the very people who would have no qualms about signing both of these oaths knowing full well that they had every intention of violating their word. There is no doubt that practically everyone who signed the resolutions at the colleges involved are one hundred per cent Americans, but in supposedly striking a blow for what they consider their "inalienable rights" they are in fact acting to destroy those very rights.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

The class of '57 wishes to express its sympathy at the loss of Colonel Meyns to his family and the faculty of Babson Institute.

"DROP OF A HAT" OFF BROADWAY HIT

The critics of such miles-apart weeklies as Time and the New Yorker concur in the judgement that "AT THE DROP OF A HAT", two-man revue by and with Michael Flanders and Donald Swann, resident at the Golden Theatre since October 8th, is the best musical of the new theatrical season. In a rare burst of enthusiasm, Time's Louis Kronberger saluted the invaders thus: "The two of them are notably British but notably themselves, casual and informal, yet with the timing of the solar system and the teamwork of the Lunts. Altogether, they are as engagingly funny a pair as any nation need ask for or any theatre season expect, and have given Broadway its gayest evening since 'La Plume de ma Tante'."

The New Yorker's acidulous and omniscient Kenneth Tynan sheathed his dirk on seeing "AT THE DROP OF A HAT" and called it "two hours of wit, charm, heartease and immaculate timing... Mr. Swann is innocence, Mr. Flanders experience, and their coalition is irresistible. There is nothing on Broadway I would rather see twice."

The reviewers on New York's daily newspapers echoed the hosannas of Kronberger and Tynan, showering Flanders and Swann with such exquisite adjectives as "faultless", "impeccable", "satirical", "witty", "sophisticated". One adjective was common to all the reviews, an adjective rarely employed to describe Broadway musicals; "civilized". The Saturday Review's Henry Hewes voiced the consensus of his peers when he closed his tribute to Flanders and Swann and their "AT THE DROP OF A HAT" with these words: "The ultimate in civilized entertainment."

STRICTLY AD LIB

DOWN BEAT POLL

Of all the surprising results in this year's Down Beat Readers Poll, the most startling was the gain chalked up by the Maynard Ferguson band, favorite of the eastern colleges and universities.

Ferguson, whose band had proved strong in last year's poll, moved up to second place in the jazz band category, right behind Count Basie, and ahead of Duke Ellington. Ferguson proved strong in the dance band category, too; he came fourth, following Les Brown, Les Elgart and Count Basie.

L-H-R UPSET

Another upset was staged by Lambert-Hendricks-Ross. The vocal trio, which two years ago didn't even show in the voting for vocal groups, had moved so far into popularity that this year they took first place, with double the number of votes of their nearest competitor, the Four Freshmen.

BRUBECK BACK

The Dave Brubeck quartet, which had won several years in a row the first place among combos and then lost it to the Modern Jazz Quartet, did what Dave himself thought was impossible: regained the lead.

Needless to say, Frank Sinatra and Ella Fitzgerald had won in a walk over all other singers by the time the poll results were tabulated and announced (in the December 24 Down Beat).

PAYOLA

The biggest music news of recent weeks — if not of recent years — has been the probe into "payola", with the New York District Attorney's office, the House Subcommittee on Legislative Oversight, the Federal Communications Commission, and the Federal Trade Commission all looking into the practice of some disc jockeys taking bribes to push records and artificially create hits.

In an exclusive story in the December 24 Down Beat, the magazine outlines how payola works: "The record company executive decide which jockeys are to be paid off in which cities. Then they notify the distributor in a chosen city and specify which jock is to get the money... The distributor arranges the payoff, delivers the sum agreed upon... and then is compensated by the record company in the form of a shipment of free records equal in value to the cash.

"In the label's books," the magazine says, "the shipment of free discs is written off under the heading 'promotional records', which will make it exceedingly difficult for the congressional probers to find anything incriminating in the ledgers..."

DISC DIGEST

The Down Beat record reviewers are particularly recommending these LP's.

The score to the film "Odds Against Tomorrow," which was composed and conducted by John Lewis and released on disc by United Artists. Given five stars in the review, the score stands up alone as music... The group headed by Shelly Manne does a better than usual job on some of the TV detective soundtrack music in the four-star Contemporary album, "Son of Gunn"... Bob

ON THE STREET

By C. R. SHEPPARD

The settling of the steel strike, largely discounted by investors, has greatly clarified problems in stock market forecasting. I look for the market to mark time for several months before continuing its advance.

In keeping with the above prediction investors should still keep a reasonable proportion of their capital in equity securities. However a healthy percentage, 40% to 50%, should be kept in bonds or cash in case of a substantial decline in the market.

In the supervised portfolio in this column I am selling Songomo Electric at the market open Monday, January 11th and buying Collins Radio at the same time. Songomo has performed quite well since it was recommended, up 19% in two months and I believe it has outlived its usefulness. Collins is a very dynamic situation with seemingly limitless potential. I estimate earnings for the year ending September 30, 1960 to be between $5.00 to $5.50 per share. Selling at 63, it is priced about 12½ times estimated earnings. I believe it will be a $100 stock before too terribly long..

— Open Letter To Students —

This year, more so than in previous years, rumors have been flying throughout the campus concerning the events and the entertainment that will take place on our Winter Carnival Weekend. In this letter I will attempt to clarify the situation as it now stands.

ABOUT BIG NAMES

The survey which your council representatives took concerning the sale of tickets for the entire weekend showed a clear majority in favor of it provided that "big name" entertainment could be obtained. At the time of the survey, the Kingston Trio, Louis Armstrong and the All Stars, the Four Freshmen, and others were under consideration.

In each instance either the entertainers were unavailable or their price was too high. The student body must remember that when an entertainer is hired for a Saturday night it normally means that he will not work for the week except for the one engagement. Friday and Saturday nights are known as the "hot" nights of the week. This means an entertainer will ask much more for these evenings than other nights of the week. Another factor which we encountered is that during the Winter months many of the big names are appearing at southern resort areas, if they are making personal appearances at all. Many entertainers take this opportunity to engage in movie or TV work and are therefore unavailable.

At many of the large universities and colleges as much as $10,000 is spent on music alone for one weekend. This figure is nearly the total budget your Student Council has for a whole year. At many schools, carnival tickets are sold for $25 per couple.

LESSER NAMES

After investigating the "big names" we found it necessary to look into lesser known but equally as capable talent whose name did not demand the price.

It is our thought to present two such groups on Saturday night.

Prince's "Saxes, Inc." is also very much worth while... But the biggest package of recent times is the Ella Fitzgerald-Nelson Riddle "George and Ira Gershwin Songbook, a five-LP series that you purchase separately or as a package. Ella and Riddle really do justice to the 53 Gershwin tunes.

In doing this it is still necessary to sell tickets to cover the added cost. At the moment we are waiting for confirmation from Clay Brooker and another group, the Accidentals. Clay Brooker leads a primarily rhythm and blues band which plays the southern circuit and has made several records under another stage name. This group will certainly keep the Saturday night party moving. The second attraction, the Accidentals, have made several TV and radio appearances and also have a popular record album. This relatively new group sings much in the style of the Four Freshmen and are just starting their climb up the "big name" ladder. As soon as the contracts are signed you will have more information on these entertainers.

FORMAL DANCE

Friday night, as usual, the Formal Dance will be held at the ballroom of the Sheraton Plaza in Boston. Music will be provided by Marshard's Music. We are fortunate in obtaining his "first group." Harry Marshard is quite well known throughout New England as well as in Jamaica and Bermuda.

RESERVED TABLES

This year we are attempting to eliminate the problem of tables. Upperclassmen will remember leaving their table to dance only to return and find their seats being used by fellow students. To remedy this, reserved tables will be sold during the weeks preceding the dance. The price has not yet been set but it will be a nominal fee. There will only be thirty tables available so get your friends together and reserve your table early. There will be a larger number of unreserved tables also available.

The question has often been asked, "Why not have the Formal Saturday night?" The reason is that Massachusetts "Blue Laws" require all entertainment to stop at midnight. With the Saturday night proceedings, to hold a Formal Dance that night would call for a cramped schedule. Saturday night has been designed to be an informal party.

I hope that this letter will clear up many of the questions you may have had. I feel it is a weekend to look forward to and one that will be enjoyed by all.

BEAVER SPORTS

BADMINTON TEAM ORGANIZED HERE

A new Varsity sport has been initiated at Babson. A Varsity Badminton team was started after Thanksgiving, and with its promised schedule, and players should prove to be a new and exciting entry for Babson in another field of Varsity competition.

GRAD TO COACH

The team is coached by Dave Sime, a graduate student. He is the Director of the State Badminton Program, he has also coached First Army's Badminton Championship team, besides playing in many state championships himself.

INTERESTING SCHEDULE

Besides playing in many tournaments, proposed opponents are M.I.T., Maugus Club of Wellesley, University Club of Boston, and the Framingham Badminton Club. Tournaments with other schools are in prospect. The schedule also includes many "mixed" tournaments and also exhibitions at various girl's schools.

The season will end February 28th with the three day New England Inter-Collegiate Tournament to be played at Babson. A tentative squad has been made up comprised of the following men: Yod-jin Uahwatanasakul, Dick Kates, Eliot Conviser, Sukum Raiva and Steve Ross.

Persons interested in playing or trying out for the squad should come up to the gym at three o'clock on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday, when the team practices.

The first basketball game of 1960 pitted Windam College against the Beavers at Peavy Gymnasium. Numerous fouls on the part of the Babson five seemed to be the deciding factor in the outcome which saw Windam the victors by seven points 71-64.

NO EDGE FROM FLOOR

The Beavers were constantly on Windam's tail as they managed to stay within two points in the field goal category. The free throw situation is another story though; Babson held its average at a high .750, scoring on 18 of their 24 attempts, while Windam, with a slightly lower average of .640, scraped up 36 chances on the free throw line. The mere weight of numbers was too much for the Beavers to handle as they took their first loss under the leadership of their new coach, the former Holy Cross and Boston Celtic star, Togo Palazzi.

BRIGGS SCORES 21

High scorer was Anderson of Windam with 22 points with our own Staan Briggs holding on to the number two position with 21 points.

Beavers Snap Back 70-68

Saturday afternoon at the gymnasium of Gordon College the Babson squad of victory-hungry Beavers edged out a well-trained team from Gordon, 70-68.

Babson's amazingly high .750 average on the free throw line dropped to .594 against .633 for Gordon. Many hours will probably be spent on the line during practice before our tilt with Nichols on Saturday. As in the Windam game the weight of numbers played an important role in deciding the final outcome. This time though, Babson had the edge with 27 tries on the line as opposed to only 19 for Gordon.

High man in the game was Hoaglander from Gordon with 19 points. Second place honors went to Duffy, Briggs, and Lunnie with 16 points each.

By PETE BUCHANAN

Football fans watching the post season bowl games or the rival matches between the North and South or the East and the West were for the most part greeted with rather poor showings this season. The one exception was the game played for Crippled Children in San Francisco's Kezar Stadium. The elements of professional ball sparkled in this very exciting game. The touchdown in the last minutes of play, the fanatical scrambles for an opportunity to complete the last play brought the fans from their seats in wild enthusiasm. Hard tackling, powerful running, and magnificent passing tell of the play in this classic battle.

GUTS FOOTBALL

Dick Bass of C.O.P. personified the efforts and drive of a guts football player. Scoring on a pass from Don Meredith, Bass dragged, pushed, and shoved his way to the end-zone. Bass is small in stature as halfbacks go but long on power and tenacity.

GOLDMINE

Don Meredith turned the East-West game into a gold mine. A Boston paper reported last Monday that he would receive a $100,000 contract plus liberal and sundry benefits. There are two potential football teams in Dallas. One has a franchise in Dallas and is a part of a not yet fully established American Football League. The other represents the growing of the National Football League but as yet has no definite franchise in Dallas. Don Meredith starred at S.M.U., a school located in Dallas. In bidding for the talents of Meredith the potential NFL team went the highest with its bid of $100,000.

THE POISE OF MEREDITH

In the inspiring East-West game Meredith had the poise of Charley Connerly, the accuracy of Johnny Unitas, and the running ability of a Texas jack-rabbit (no doubt one born in Dallas. Waiting until the stalwarts of the East line were clawing at him in desperate attempts to bring him down, Meredith launched accurate and powerful passes for significant gains. Meredith wasn't passing against an easily beaten East line. All-Americans like Andreotti and Gossage from Northwestern delight in trapping quarterbacks. Meredith showed considerable poise weathering formidable rushes and finally leading his team to victory and himself to a sizeable contract. The spectators were delighted and the crippled children were helped.

As a sidelight to the post season games the promoters of New York are now laying plans for a post season game to be held in this largest of metropolises. Calling it the "Gotham Bowl," this promotion may prove as farcical as the name "Gotham." Even when N.Y.U. and Fordham were football behemoths New York was too sophisticated to be called a football town.
