Natalie Vlahovic: the incredible individual who created everything artistic in this yearbook.

Jon McGowan the one man Greek Organization show.

Thanks to Heather Beljean for volunteering for the tireless job of typing in Senior Names and Majors!

Sheila Fleck and Jen Carter are the patient Layout Editors that were responsible for laying out the yearbook on the slowest computer in the world. Okay maybe not the whole world, but the slowest at Babson.

Kacie Wick, if it wasn’t for Kacie we would still be sitting around trying to come up with the theme!

Layout Editors
Ashish Punjabi & Gautam Gajra were so busy being Organization Editors that they didn’t even have time to get their picture taken! Thanks Fellas!

Nicole Jensen, the Queen Bee, average everyday Editor-in-Chief.
There have been a countless number of lessons which I have learned from being an Editor of the Babsonian. I have learned to spell Entrepreneurial. I have typed this word so many times that I can now spell it backward and in my sleep.

I have learned that the thinkers are just as important as the doers.

I have learned that being at the right place at the right time is all you need to take a terrific picture.

Deadlines are flexible. Most importantly I have found that throwing a yearbook together is a lot harder than it seems.

My three years at Babson have also taught me many lessons.

I have learned that Scorpion Bowling does not require funny looking shoes, an alley, or a ball.

I have learned that OB groups aren’t all that bad. And I guess I really did learn something from that class after all.

I have learned that team work is inevitable, just ask the Babsonian staff.

Communication is everything and it is always the hardest thing.

I would like to thank everyone that was involved with the “throwing together” of the 1996 Babsonian. Whether you: created a layout, took a picture, posed for a picture, looked through a copy of the yearbook, or even know that the Babsonian exists, you are what makes being the Editor-in-Chief of this publication worthwhile.

Thank you to all.

Nicole L. Jensen

On behalf of the staff of the Babsonian and the Babson community we would like to dedicate the 1996 Babsonian to Robert Pimentel. More affectionately known as Babo Bob, Officer Pimentel goes out of his way not only to help keep the campus safe but more importantly to get to know everyone whom he protects. His many years of service on the Babson Police Force have made this honor well earned.
