EDITOR’S NOTE

The school year is finally over. Many events that we would like to commit to memory have occurred in the past nine months—events that have given us moments of pleasure and happiness. This gives the Babsonian an opportunity to share in these fleeting moments of joy and satisfaction that have taken place throughout the year. We have tried to make the 1971 Babsonian as meaningful as possible to the whole Babson community. We are “telling it like it is;” in other words, this is our school, this is what happened, and this is the way we would like to remember it.

Special thanks are due to the Babsonian staff and those outside of the staff who have given us a lot of assistance. Only the close cooperation of all concerned has made this annual possible.

And last but not least, on behalf of everyone associated with the Babsonian, I would like to wish this year’s graduating class the very best of luck. Hopefully, in the future, this book will bring back the pleasant memories of your student days at Babson.
