THE BABSON PLAYERS and Student Government proudly present:

LOVE SEX & THE I.R.S.

Directed by Beata Isaacs

Assistant to the Director Lynn Bohlin

Produced by: Brenda Campanella Jim Johnson

Produced in cooperation with:

Bakers Plays - Boston

Boston, MA 02111
The Babson Players would like to dedicate our production to Mr. James F. Higgins, who retired earlier this semester. His 25 years of service to the Babson Community, his dynamic personality, and his dedication will be missed by all. Enjoy yourself Mr. Higgins, for you have earned it indeed!
NO CURTAIN. A small budget. A great lecture hall but not a great theatrical stage. No wings for prop storage. The list goes on.... These are but a few of the obstacles that the Babson Players face performance after performance, semester after semester, year after year. Why, you then ask, should we bother with the hours of rehearsal, the bruises from missing the nail and hitting the thumb while constructing sets, the unrecognized work that goes on behind the scenes? Each member of the cast and crew has their own reason; a laugh from the crowd, applause, seeing their name in the program; and yes, the cast party. However, interwoven in all these reasons is one common bond--belonging to a hard-working, extremely dedicated group that strives to achieve a single purpose. A sense of unity is created, and from this unity excellence is bred.
