DEPARTMENT OF STATE TO CONDUCT EXAMS

The United States Department of State will hold its next Foreign Service Officer Examination on December 10, 1960, in approximately 60 cities throughout the United States and at Foreign Service posts abroad. In announcing the examination the Department is seeking to interest under­graduate and graduate students who wish to offer them a career in the diplomatic service, public and business ad­ ministration, language research, history, and political sci­ ence.

To be eligible to take this examination, candidates must be at least 21 and under 31 years of age as of October 24, 1960. Persons 20 years of age may also apply if a college graduate and 29 years of age may be American citizens of at least 9 years' standing. Although a can­ didate's spouse need not be a citi­ zen on the date of the examination, citizenship must have been obtained prior to the date of ap­ pointment.

Candidates who are successful in the one-day written examination, which is scheduled for Oct. 24, will be placed on a waiting list. Preference, mental ability and background, will be given equal consideration. The candidates must have met the minimum requirements of the examination scores. The candidates will be notified by the Department of State by January 24, 1961, of their eligibility for appointment. They must then submit an application for appointment.

Fullbright Scholarships Available to Students

Only two months remain to ap­ ply for some 800 Fullbright scholar­ ships for graduate study or re­ search in 30 countries, the In­ ternational Education Board announced. Applications are being ac­ cepted until November 15. American National Origin Con­ vention awards for study in 17 foreign countries have the same filing deadline.

Recipients of Fullbright awards for study in Europe, Latin America, and the Asia-Pacific area will receive tuition, maintenance and round-trip travel. JACC scholarships cover transportation, tuition, and partial maintenance costs. The following are the study programs for the U. S. State Department of State.

General eligibility requirements for both categories of awards are:
1. U.S. citizenship; age 21, unless application; 2. a bachelor's degree or an equivalent by 1961; 3. knowledge of the language of the host country; and 4. good health. A demerit record is not a disqualification. A doctor's endorsement of independence study and a good aca­ demic record are also expected. Preference is given to students under 35 years of age who have not previously lived or studied in the U. S. or abroad.

Applications will be required to submit a plan of proposed study which can be carried out, as well as a statement of their future plans, within the year abroad. Successful Fullbrights are required to return to the United States immediately after their year of study. Award dates are required to be returned on page 4.

PIONEER ECONOMIST HERE THIS WEEK

Babson Institute, Harvard, and M.I.T. played host to a group of prominent Japanese economists on October 5th and 7th. The men are members of the Research Board of the United States educational institutions and industrial firms. These representatives of indus­ try, government, and banking will be in the U. S. under the auspices of the International Cooperation Administration for five weeks. They will study long-range indus­ trial planning in the fields of pro­ duction, sales, profits and financing, as well as management's use of highly trained economists in decision-making.

The group has been moving across the country since Sept. 15th, visiting such places as the Bank of America, University of California, Swift & Co., and U. S. Steel. After being welcomed by Paul Trin, the men were given a brief tour of the Babson campus. Full­ bright exchange, Frank C. Gare­ croze, Chairman of the Economics department, spoke on the group's "Economic Training of Industrial Ecomonomists." From Boston the group went by New York and then wound up the tour in Washington, D. C. on October 5th. At the Boston conference this year's course will feature a complete new set of fifteen lectures which will be given bi­ weekly.

Following an introductory lec­ ture entitled "The Scope of U. S. Foreign Policy" the course will divide into five major categories consisting of two or three lecture on each subject.

To My Students...

The following letter to the student body was published, with the hope that the sincere expression of faith which Dr. Kerekes expressed in the American News will cause at least a Jew moments of faith which Dr. Kerekes expresses in us and the American world. To my students at the Babson Institute:

We will, indeed, miss you when the new term starts as well as in the future. Our five years together were perhaps the most important and the most inspiring ones of my life. In the long time spent here teaching, its many accomplishments and its new loyalities will surely prove more enduring than even the pay for its survival. The free world needs efficient, competitive men, and it will demand, and rightfully expect, a different atmosphere and a different "college life" than the veterans with the circumstances which brought about their dismissal. We are not, however, concerned with their individual cases, but rather with the circumstances which brought about their dismissal.

The orientation program was aimed at unifying the freshman class, and judging from the number of students who made the trip to Newton, the Junior Committee deserves a pat on the back. But unity, or group strength can only be evidenced through group activity, and problems arise then, because of a lack of an immediate means of outlet here on campus. Therefore, I shall delin­...
COBY — TOO MUCH TOO SOON FOR US

By ALAN GLICK

COBY'S SOCCER season got underway with a defeat at the hands of Colby's "White Mules." The final score of 6-3 was not indicative of the type of showing turned in by both sides.

Colby has gone undefeated for the past four years and is one of the top teams in the Greater New England soccer circuit. The Beavers showed plenty of spirit and turned in a good clean game. The forward line was well coordinated and showed destiny in both passing and shooting.

FRITZ ANCONA turned in an eye-popping performance in Babson's goal until he was relieved of duty by Litchfield.

Scoring for Colby was Barr, Merril, Chase and Weeks.

Lineup:

- Ancona — Goal
- Litchfield — Goal
- Prata — Inside left
- Polhemus — Left Fullback
- Priest — Left Fullback
- Pedersen — Right half
- Navarro — Center half
- Richards — Center forward
- Flores — Right Fullback

In recent years he has served as a consultant for international relations and social sciences at the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island. In 1958-59 he held the Chestor W. Nimza Chair of Social and Political Philosophy at the War College.

Last year Gyorgy appeared on Dr. John S. Gibson’s foreign policy television course and also addressed the student body on international politics.

Dr. Frank A. Durgin will take the position left vacant by Gabriel Krekes in the economics department. Durgin received his bachelor’s degree from Tufts in 1949 and was awarded a Ph.D. in economics for the University of Toulouse in France in 1956.

Durgin taught for the University of Maryland overseas program in France, Germany and England in 1956 and 1957. He taught basic Social and Political Philosophy at Wellesley College and served as a Russian language officer for five years and has traveled extensively in the Soviet Union.

Fluent in both French and Russian, Durgin lived in France for over five years and has traveled extensively throughout Europe. During the summer of 1959 he served as a Russian language guide at the American exhibition in Moscow.
