The Babson Players proudly present

Night of January 16th

Written by Ayn Rand

November 15, 16, 17
8 p.m.
Knight Auditorium

Presented in conjunction with Student Government.

The jurors for this case will be randomly selected from the audience. The outcome of the play is based on their decision.
In the past, the Babson Players have dedicated a show to a person or group of individuals who have helped to enrich (the quality of) the organization.

This year, instead of dedicating this performance to one person, we would like to take the opportunity to wish someone farewell and welcome two new people to the Players’ family.

Professor Richard Bruno has been our advisor for the past five years. But, he has been more than just an advisor, he has been our dear friend and confidant. His support and enthusiasm has encouraged the Players to constantly reach higher. Now it is time for us to say good-bye and give him our warmest thank you. Good luck in the future, Prof. Bruno.

While we are saying good-bye to our friend, we are also welcoming two new people to Babson Players. George Covino and Jodi Raybuck have agreed to become our new advisors. George and Jodi have already displayed a great deal of enthusiasm and energy to take over the role of advisor. They are rapidly becoming more than just advisors, they are becoming our friends. Welcome to the Babson Players, George and Jodi.

The Babson Players are proud to dedicate this show to our advisors; old and new.

Dandridge Henderson (Judge Heath): is a new transfer student from Philadelphia. Although more accustomed to backstage work than being where people can see him, he recently went so far as to grow facial hair for his part in Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing - which he has yet to get rid of (the beard, not the part). He like good (pre-1980) music and enjoys playing the flute and trombone.

Frank Sabaj (John Graham Whitfield): is a freshman, with plans to major in management. In his senior year of high school he help the lead in the play Finders Creepers.

Marjorie Peters (Asst. Director): Jorie, a December 1989 Babson graduate proves you can’t get away from Babson. Active as a student both on and off stage, she is remembered for her portrayal of anyone with crazy hair. Her past credits include roles in Arsenic and Old Lace, Love, Sex, and the IRS and Table Settings. Off stage she served on the Players Executive Board for 3 years and produced 3 shows. Jorie’s alter ego is Marjorie, Assistant Manager of the Needham Cooperative Bank’s Wellesley branch

Eric Wells (Dr. Kirkland): Eric is a senior majoring in Communications and Management Information Systems. Dr. Kirkland is Eric’s first acting role, since he usually spends his time on stage singing with the Reagle Players of Waltham, Mass.

Dana Gouveia (Miss Stevens): is a freshman making her debut with the Players. She plans to major in management and hopes to one day own and manage her own business. Past experiences include singing and solo performances in her high school chorus and select choir, as well as acting in several one act plays. She hopes to continue acting and form a singing group here on campus.

Dave Stanton (Assistant Producer): is a freshman making his producing debut with the Players. He is planning on majoring in Entrepreneurial Studies. In addition to the Players he also enjoys hockey and golf. He is a member of BISO and Circle K

Dawn Gagliardi (Nancy Lee Faulkner): has returned to the Players’ family after leaving last year to serve as President of Circle K. A senior and Secretary for the Players this year, Night of January 16th is her third play at Babson. Dawn is a Management Information Systems major, and considers being a player, "good stress therapy."

Joseph B. Powell (Producer): is a freshman, and has finally found his niche in theatre production. His past roles have been in Special Effects, Lighting Design, and Directing. Joe is also a brother of Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity. He looks forward to a long and rewarding future with the Players.
Stephanie Baker (Mrs. John Hutchins): Presently serves as President to the Babson Players. Her past stage credits include the role of Mrs Antrobus in The Skin of our Teeth, and appearances in The Good Doctor and A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum. Stephanie's producer credits include The Skin of our Teeth, Forum and Little Shop of Horrors.

Chas Dennis (Larry Regan): is a sophomore studying nothing in particular. Torn between ambitions of being a writer and making money he finds acting a nice release. Chas played in the Fall 1989 production of The Skin of Our Teeth.

Mollie Lax (Bailiff): is a freshman and has been acting ever since the 5th grade. Her first role was Peter Pan in Peter Pan and her latest as Gwendolyn Pigeon in The Odd Couple. She hopes to continue with the Players as she goes through college.

Teresa Kiritsy (Magda Swenson): is a freshman. She began acting in the 4th grade. She has played parts ranging from Peter Pan in Peter Pan to Mr. Mushnik in Little Shop of Horrors. She enjoys making people happy.

Haesun Yun (Jane Chandler): is from Manchester, New Hampshire, and is currently a freshman at Babson. She enjoys everything and is enthusiastic about being in the Babson Players.

Kat McAfee (Karen Andre): is a junior. Although she has performed in numerous high school productions, this is her debut with the Babson Players. Kat is also a sister of Kappa Kappa Gamma and a member of the swim team.

Toni Clayton (Director): After starring in the Player's fall 1989 production of The Skin of our Teeth and assisting the director on last semester's Little Shop of Horrors. Toni makes her Babson directorial debut with Night of January 16th. Her previous directorial credits include The Odd Couple and Ten Little Indians. She is majoring in Marketing/Entrepreneurial studies and communications.

Iasson G. Tsakonas (Sigurd Jungquist): is a freshman international student from Greece. He has performed in several high school productions. He is looking forward to a long career with the Players.

Brian Shultz (Clerk): is a freshman who is making his debut with the players. He plans on majoring in economics or management and likes soccer and lacrosse.

Lon Ross (D.A. Flint): Lon has not quite decided whether he is a junior or a senior (It depends how the play goes). He returns to the Players after playing Mushnik in Little Shop of Horrors. This time around he makes his Comedy/Drama debut (some might even say tragedy). Lon's involvement with the Players goes beyond the stage; this semester he has helped produce.

Break a Leg!

Join us at ROGER'S
after the show!
Frank: "Candy's no good for you. But, hey, it tastes great."

Sebastian: "Today a new sunrises, look in the mirror. There's no surprises; things ain't what they used to be, CAREY GRANT's on LSD."

Brian: "I raise a toast to all of us, who are breaking our backs everyday. 'Cause if wanting such a good life is such a crime, then the law can put me away."

Dana: "The race does not always go to the swiftest, but to the one who keeps on running."

Dawn: "In small portions we just beauties see, and in small measures life may perfect be."

Chas: "Whether it G-d or The Bomb, it's just the same, and it's only fear under another name." - Max Q.

Dan: "Jump up, look around, find yourself some fun, no sense in sitting there hating everyone." - Jethro Tull
Jorie: "The trick is not to rid your stomach of butterflies, but to make them fly in formation."

Mollie: "Of all the things I've lost I miss my mind the most."

Kat: "Regrets, I've had a few. But then again too few too mention...I did it my way."

Teresa: "Life is like a bowl of Granola- If it's not fruits and nut, it's flakes."

John: "It was about that long and... Lon cut me off anytime now."

Stephanie: "I have come to the conclusion that I can't survive without stress in my life."

Toni: "There in the patient must minister to himself" - McBeth
"What? You don't even know you're *&%$#@! occupation!!"

Lon: "In the future, man will be able to go around the world in three hours, one hour for the flying and the other two to get to the airport."
