Wilson Payne to Retire This Year

Professor Wilson F. Payne will retire at the end of this academic year, it was announced by Dr. Kriebel this week. Prof. Payne is currently the senior member of the faculty in point of service. His present association with the college began in 1952, but he had been a member of the faculty from 1937 to 1943. In addition to teaching in the fields of investments and finance, he served as the first dean of the graduate programs until 1969.

"It is with a great deal of regret that I announce Wilson Payne's retirement," said Dr. Kriebel. "The college will indeed miss him; he has been a loyal and well-liked member of our faculty for many years."
