TOMASSO HALL
DEDICATION
"A person has an obligation to help the institution which helped him" according to Victor Tomasso '51. It was with this in mind that he contributed to the $2.5 million renovation of the building formerly known as the Sir Isaac Newton Library.

Tomasso Hall includes five regular classrooms, four amphitheatre type rooms, two seminar rooms, and 30 faculty offices. A main entrance was constructed at the rear of the building, and the area where the circulation desk was located is now a spacious lounge and reception area.
