Babson Literary Society

The Babson Literary Society was co-founded by Hillary Hunter and Joanne Saunders, two members of the class of 1992.

The purpose of this organization is to provide an outlet for all the creative minds at Babson. The Society has held poetry readings, a program for Multicultural Week, and is publishing Babson's first literary magazine called Options.

The Society has also received the Shoptunbeirig Pris 1992 Award for its creative contribution to the Babson community.

Black Student Association
The Student Undergraduate Residential Forum (S.U.R.F.) was formed to develop, review and implement the policies of Residential Life.

The representatives also help to build community spirit within residence halls and serve as a communications link between the students and the Office of Residential Life. These eighteen students represent 1,250 on-campus students. They deal with issues that can make our school a "better Babson".
