Parting Shots
Letter from the Editor

Taking on the job of Editor-in-Chief for this year’s yearbook was a lot harder than I thought it would be. Having a staff of “little old me” made it even harder to put together a 250-page book. Sure, I did have the help of a few people once or twice throughout the year, but the majority of the time it was me and John Carrier, the “yearbook god” of Herff Jones.

I have learned a lot this year enabling me to change the way I handle next year’s yearbook. As for this year’s book, I hope you all take into consideration that this was mostly a one-person effort. Caption, write-ups and pictures were hard to come by, so I did the best I could with what I had. Many thanks to Chris Merlow, for without her help there would not have been a sports section. Also, a special thanks to Jan Volk and Steve Lipofsky for all of those awesome sports shots. Finally, thanks to the people who did help. . . you know who you are.

To the graduating Class of 1992, I wish you the sincerest congratulations and the best of luck in the future.
