DEDICATION

I dedicate the 1977 Babsonian to all those people who make it possible for us to attend Babson. They have made the sacrifices that give us four years of college life.

This book is especially dedicated to my Uncle Don.

Uncle Don,

Your encouragement, understanding, and generosity mean the world to me. I probably will never fully appreciate what you have done for me these past years. There are no words that can thank you enough for your concern.

Thank You,
K.C.

The graduating class of 1977 have dedicated this Babsonian to Dean Debra Amidon and to Dick Metzger. In her role of Associate Dean of Student Activities and Residential Life, Dean Amidon brought Babson back to life with the implementation of a plethora of student-run organizations and activities. Dick, Director of Saga Food Service at Babson, satisfied us with his food preparation and his "easy to get along with" personality. They will be sorely missed by the Babson community.

Good luck Debbie and Dick,
"The Class of 77"

Another year has come to an end at Babson. Another Babsonian has been finished. Most of you will not appreciate the work that goes into a publication such as this. Let me tell you that the job is immense. The staff of the '77 Babsonian did a great job. I thank you more greatly than that job is immense.

As charged by my predecessor, Mr. Glazer, I have tried to produce a book that will contain the pages of discussion and reflection he talked of in "The Last Word". If this be the case then I too will have been successful.

My advise to future Babsonians is to continue to produce a book with style, class, and meaning. Never loose sight of the fact that you are creating a professional publication.

Good luck to you all.

Lauren,

Having you with us I knew we'd stay above water, waves and all.

Pedro,

I may be down sooner than you think. For a long time. Good luck with Orlando. Don't break anything but one-nine.

Rahul,

You taught me alot. I'll never forget your friendship and concern, for some one who Hopes to remain a good friend for ever.

Bong Bros.,

It was real, I think! Keep in touch. Watch out for Big G's. There dangerous sometimes.

Wheel,

When you get that feeling of impending disaster, don't sweat it. Someone like yourself will come along.

All of you take care,

Later,

GETUS

You guys were great. I can't thank you enough for your help. Keep clicking your cameras, flooding the darkroom, and go easy on the dustoff.
