Cast and Crew

Note: All bios with a "*" had to be written in by someone else

Haya Alzaid (Roz)-Haya Alzaid is extremely excited to be a part of the production of Moon Over Buffalo. She has an unusual tie to Buffalo, NY just like Roz, so the part came perfect for her! She's a junior at Babson and loves taking part in Babson Players and FWOP Productions. She enjoys participating in both on stage roles as well as helping out behind the scenes. In past productions, Haya has played a child and an overweight mother of three, so she's looking forward to the challenge of playing a "normal" character for a change! The cast and crew have worked hard to develop a remarkable performance for your enjoyment, so we hope you enjoy the show!

Mike Bergeron (Tech)- Mike B. is starring in the Babson Player's Black Box production of "The Shape of Things" and has graced our stage before as the mean guy in "The Wedding Singer." Mike's favorite activities include fishing in storms, the Tango, Etching and Sketching, and mentoring infomercial actors.*

Frank Capra (Guest Star) - is the Oscar winning director of such legendary movies as It Happened One Night, It's a Wonderful Life, Mr. Smith Goes to Washington, Meet John Doe, Lost Horizon (with Ronald Colman), Mr. Deeds Goes to Town and You Can't Take it With You. He did not direct The Twilight of the Scarlet Pimpernel (nor did anyone else).

Adam Camiel (Sound)- Adam has been heavily involved in the Players Tech scene, and starred as young man at his bar mitzvah in "The Wedding Singer." Adam would like to thank his fraternity of pies, Julia Heart, and Steve Jobs. His facebook status is currently "Adam Camiel loves the fall" and it was posted last Friday.*

Erin Du Vair (Tech Director) - A skilled erector of sets and erector sets, Erin has brought the breathtaking atmosphere of Buffalo, NY to this theater. If you Google her, the fifth image result is Ben Small. Hobbies include astronomy (she has discovered 5 stars and named them all after numbers), beekeeping, and taking pictures of the paparazzi*

Amanda Greenslet (Charlotte)- Amanda Greenslet (Charlotte) is so excited to be performing "Moon Over Buffalo" again! As one of her first theatre experiences in high school, MOB holds a special place in her heart. MOB is a hysterical show, and Amanda is so happy to have such a wonderful cast and tech crew to work with! Everybody knows that the Babson Players ROCK! Amanda would like to thank her family and friends for their love and support, and as Mistrs Foley and Peterson always said, "Have fun, and tell the story!" Past shows include Essie, You Can't Take It With You; Ensemble, The Vagina Monologues 2009; Julia, Lend Me A Tenor; Ruthie Taylor, Bat Boy; Hippolyta/Titania, A Midsummer Night's Dream; Bernice Roth, The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940; Natalie Evans, The Pen and The Sword; Ensemble, The Vagina Monologues 2010; and Rosie, The Wedding Singer.

Harold Jaffe (Richard) can't stop the rock. Harold Jaffe will not be televised. Harold Jaffe dreams of electric sheep. Harold Jaffe stores water cactily, iterates fractally, and shrieks pterodactylly. Harold Jaffe can neither confirm nor deny the truth of these allegations. Harold Jaffe is a madman who thinks he's Harold Jaffe.

Kahaan Khaitan (Paul) - Hi my name is Kahaan Khaitan. I'm a sophomore in Babson. I'm from New Delhi, India. I'm a fun loving guy and I love making new friends. I love acting and have done many plays in my high school. Acting in Babson Players has been a great experience for me, it has been lot of fun. While acting I always feel its very rewarding to forget yourself and get into the character, only then can we get our emotions right. I guess I'm an interesting person and you'll love knowing me. This is Kahaan Khaitan signing off.

Christy Laubach (Eileen): Known to some as "High Fives", Christy is always excited to be a part of a show as fun as this one. The cast and crew made this experience an absolute blast, so thank you! Shout-outs to the Class of 2013 and Bangin' Burgers (The best restaurant in San Diego). Thanks to everyone for coming to the show and special thanks to Mom and Dad for coming all the way out here to see me!

Kerry Liszka (President)- Kerry is the fantastic President of the Babson Players. Her favorite commercial is the AT&T one where the whole world is covered in orange, her favorite color. She is the world expert on the Jillian Montane (Assistant Stage Manager) - Jillian is currently a senior at Babson and this is her seventh show with The Players, but her first time with a bio! Progress! She was so excited when Drea gave her the role of "girl who pulls the curtain back so that one set piece can come out for that one scene in Act Two." Obviously a very important job. At least she gets a headset. She would like to thank 217, A-6, all honorary suite members, and everyone else who came to the show to support the best organization on campus, which you can follow on Twitter @babsonplayers. #shameless plug.

Thomas Pandolfo (George) - What people have said about Tom Pandolfo: "He has all the virtues I dislike and none of the vices I admire." – Mark Twain; "He is more machine than man, now." – Obi-Wan Kenobi; "[Wasn't he] in Wedding Singer last year?" – A Babson Student; "A foul and pestilent congregation of vapors. What a piece of work is [Tom Pandolfo]!" – Hamlet, Prince of Denmark; "Who are you and what are you doing in my house?" – James Cameron; "A Long Island native and sophomore at Olin College; he is a magnificent engineer, a phenomenal actor, and a paragon of humility and professionalism." – Anonymous (presumably Tom Pandolfo).

Un- face- bookab le

Alina Rodriguez (Tech)- Alina doubles as a fantastic techie and a guy eyelash makeup stuff applier in the show. Her second favorite chord is G7add9sus4. Alina is the 6th person in Babson history to start her email address with "arodriguez."*

Andrea Stadler (Stage Manager) - Drea loves puzzles so instead of writing a bio she has provided you with a puzzle. Now you can be entertained while you wait for the show to start. Find Drea for the solution if you'd like. Find Drea for the solution if you'd like. S a n d w i c h P u z z l e : Can you put this sandwich in the right order? 1. The ham goes above the potato salad. 2. The only ingredient between the ham and the tomato is the lettuce. 3. The cheese touches the bun. 4. Neither the ham nor the lettuce is the very middle layer.

Ross Simons (Tech) - Ross's initials spell Rass, which is how his name is pronounced down South. He's from the state of Texas. He's currently working on an ending for the song that never ends and refining his fine taste in silly

Ilana Walder-Biesanz (Ethel) - The daughter of two actors, Ilana turned out as normally as can reasonably be expected. She wanders through life quoting novels by long-dead authors, singing arias by long-dead composers, and yearning for the fashions of long-dead eras. Unhealthy obsessions include Antigone, Les Miserables, and the suicidal protagonists of nineteenth-century literature. Favorite roles include: Hermia in A Midsommer Nights Dreame, Balthasar in Much Adoe About Nothing, Mercutio in Romeo and Juliet, Willow in The Pen and the Sword, Linda in Blood Brothers, Abigail in The Crucible, July in Annie, and Tabitha in Whippoorwill. Ilana studies engineering at Olin College. As of the time of this writing, she is frantically trying to decide on a major.

Jacob Brady (Howard)- Jacob is from Buffalo, home of the Buffalo Wing and the Hamburger. Enough said. Thanks to my parents, family, Vanessa, my friends, and Ramen Noodles. Enjoy the Show!
