Table of Contents

Threshold of a Dream ............ 2
Dedication ........................ 14
Graduates .......................... 17
Faculty ............................. 49
Administration ..................... 65
Sports ............................. 77
Organizations ....................... 115
Fraternities ......................... 139
Advertising ........................ 161
Strike ............................... 177
Closing ............................. 188

Yearbook of Babson College
Fifty-first Anniversary Edition
When the white eagle of the North is flying overhead,
And the browns,
reds, and golds of Autumn lie in gutter, dead.
Remember then that Summer birds with wings of fire flaying
Came to witness Spring's new hope,
born of leaves decaying.

BABSON ON STRIKE!
END THE WAR
REMEMBER KENT
Just as new life will come from death,
love will come at leisure.
Love of love, love of life,
and giving without measure
Gives in return a wondrous yearn of a promise almost seen.

In a time when professors and students, and fathers and sons, are in such philosophical discord over what is right and wrong with America, there exists a need for increased mutual understanding, fostered by objective teachers and learners.

We have no finer example to follow than a man who has earned the respect and admiration of the Babson community, most significantly the Babson students, for no man here has strived to communicate with his "sons" at the academic, professional, and social levels as has this man.

To Richard A. Bruno, then, we would like to extend this thought, on behalf of all who seek to learn, "Have one on us, Dad, and drive on!"
Live hand in hand, and together we'll stand on a threshold of a dream.

Now you know how nice it feels,
Scatter good seed in the fields.
Life’s ours for the making,
Eternity’s waiting, waiting,
For you and me.