The Show Goes On

Dear Fellow Students,

Yes, the 1986 Spring Concert WILL take place this Sunday on the South Lawn from 12:30 - 2:30 p.m. The two bands that will be featured are Macreek and The Ratters. The outdoor drinking policy will be temporarily suspended on Sunday in the concert area only. Keep it in moderation because if we take advantage of the situation it will never be offered again. The movie The Empire Strikes Back will be shown inside in the Park Manor Central lounge from 9:00 - 11:30 p.m. on Sunday night.

This gesture shows that the administration is willing to concern itself with the welfare of the student body! We did not follow the proper guidelines for putting on this spring concert and the administration did have the right to cancel the event. However, they were interested enough to re-evaluate the situation and decided in favor of the students' wishes. This looks like a very positive step in the right direction for administration - student relations and I'm optimistic it will continue into next year.

Sincerely,

Scott Hoyt

Special thanks to:
Dean Caruso
Chief Breaux
John Skelly
Gary Harmer
John Arnold
and the rest of the campus for helping make this event possible.

Parents' Spring Weekend

MARDI GRAS! MARDI GRAS! MARDI GRAS!

Parents' Weekend arrived... ironically just shortly after the 9% tuition hike... the "Thanks Mom & Dad" Party opened with a Happy Hour at our infamous Pub... then progressed to a sparkling performance of "Hello Dolly" by our theatrical "Players"... closing the first night was WOW's Mardi "I'm not sure I can dance to this, Mom" Gras festival... On Saturday, SAM's Living Classroom gave the parents a crash course in case analysis... Brunch at Brennan's tantalized our taste-buds and Sigma's Fashions lured us into the world of the future executive... The Babson Jazz Band's Patio Bar was held inside to keep their horns dry... and the "Players" caught those last minute butterflies of their closing night... SoCo's Bourbon Street all, with French Quarter Dixieland Jazz, jugglers, caricatures and potations closed the night with a sensational flare... KKG determinedly held the annual Car Wash in the Sunday morning rain... and to close the weekend, Tom Sullivan induced a spirit of the impossible dream upon us... As the hugs by the cars became more frequent, the weekend came to an end... As the parents drove their respective routes, the students trudged to their rooms for catnaps to prepare for the week ahead...
