PRESIDENT: John Skelly
VICE-PRESIDENT FINANCE: Richard Bernstein
VICE-PRESIDENT LICENSING: Pete Hemingway
VICE-PRESIDENT COMMUNICATION: Lynn Cooper
VICE-PRESIDENT SOCIAL: Joel Saslaw

Candidates running for positions for 1985 Government met stiff competition with five candidates for President, three for Vice-President Finance, and two for Vice-President Social. Due to heavy campaigning voter turnout was the highest seen in recent years. After the votes were counted, Scott Root had won the Presidency over Jim Sia by a narrow margin, but not as narrow as Mark Rosen captured the Vice-President Finance (by only nine votes). Also winning were Chris Oates, Vice-President Communication; Mark Wineck, Vice-President Licensing; and Bill Quigley, Vice-President Social.
The Free Press struggled through the 1983-84 school year facing many battles. In the end, it still survived, but much weaker than when it started. In the fall problems with student apathy led to a delayed issue and an another issue never made it to the printer. After this war was about over and new editors came into power another tragedy began. Their first issue, a parody issue, caused a campus-wide controversy that was soon escalated to the national level. After an appearance before the Student Judicial Court, the co-editors were fired leaving the paper leaderless when the semester ended.
OUR TOP STORIES TONIGHT: THE WASHINGTON POST IS CALLING THE PARODY ISSUE "POWDER" AND TASS. THE SOVIET PRESS HAS DUBBED IT "FREEP-GATE".

THIS HAS ALL GONE A LITTLE BIT FAR, EH?

Media coverage of the Parody Issue has reached the national level. Besides coverage from the major television, radio and newspaper media in Boston, the story was picked up by the AP and UPI wires. It was printed in major publications such as the Washington Post and the Miami Herald, as well as many small town papers.

On Thursday, April 12, the Boston Globe reported the story on the front page of the Metro/Region section and a follow-up story the next day. The Globe has a circulation of over 500,000 readers. During the morning commuter drive time, a combined listening audience of over 1 million people heard the story on WHTT and WXKS. Approximately 650,000 people viewed the controversy on Channel 4's evening news broadcast.

The parody issue was brought to the attention of over two million people in the Boston area alone. With nationwide coverage, the issue was introduced to over seven million people. Reactions from the Babson community follow on page 3.

Babson Hosts

Seen daily, giving campus tours to unsuspecting high school students and their parents, the Babson Hosts know more trivia about Babson College and financial aid requirements than any other student would possibly want to know. Their services are invaluable in assisting administrative offices, hosting admission candidates, conducting campus tours, assisting in freshman orientation and the annual awards banquet.
