Life on the Babson campus is concentrated in the vibrating nucleus of undergraduates. Taking a tour of Babson Park we find these people running to and from classes, expressing their thoughts about the food being served in the dining hall, a new stock which will make you rich overnight, or more probably, last night's date. These opinions are respected, for they are based on experience second only to the 1957 seniors. Continuing our tour by crossing the avenue, we find the snack bar echoing the opinions of next year's seniors, as to their place in future business.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

With the start of a new year, the junior class elected Len Smith, president; Craig Clucker, vice-president; Jack Garrity, treasurer; and Steve Raches, secretary; as our officers for the ensuing year. They were assisted in guiding the class functions by the class council, which met with the officers once a week.

Our class council was comprised of the following men who represented their sections: John Barry, J-1; Chuck Goldsmith, J-2; Fred Kuck, J-3; Bob Nichols, J-4; Ray St. George, J-5; and Sterling Thomas, J-6. Our class was also ably represented on the Student Council by Bob Schofield who served as Treasurer.

The junior class commenced their social activities with an extremely successful party at Green Acres on the ninth of November. The party was well attended and the rustic setting lent itself to the occasion.

On two more occasions during the year our class proved themselves to be socially minded. A semi-formal dance was held during the winter term followed by a clambake in the spring.

With the memory of those unforgettable junior courses lingering in our minds, we are now preparing to take the final step toward our goal, graduation.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

The class of 1959 enjoyed the distinction of being the largest freshman class in the history of Babson Institute. Representatives of many states and foreign countries showed their desire to prepare themselves for the world of business.

The first year introduced the case study method and several field trips were also taken throughout the year. Star Market Co., First National Stores, and Montgomery Ward were a few of the local concerns that were visited.

In social circles, the class of '59 took its place among the best. The mixers, held at numerous girl's colleges in the area, provided many an acquaintance and escort to the school's social functions. Dances, masquerade parties, and Winter Carnival were but a few of the entertaining social gatherings.

Judging by first year records and performances, the class of '59 will add to the excellent Babson reputation.
