MENS' LACROSSE

The Mens' Lacrosse team struggled through the 1988 season. After coming off an impressive 11-3 year in 1987, the Beavers ran into every obstacle imaginable. Yet Babson still managed to win six games against eight defeats. The Beavers enjoyed solid efforts vs. Connecticut College, a 6-5 Babson victory, and against Bentley College, 9-6 in Babo's favor. Leading the attack were seniors Kristian Strom and Paul Abbate. Strom led the squad in scoring for the second straight year with 42 goals and 15 assists. Strom also scored game-winning goals vs. Bentley College, Nichols College, and Connecticut College. Strom was honored by being selected to be a member of a first team, Pilgrim League All-Star. Abbate, despite being injured for most of the season, rifled home 12 goals and chipped in ten assists. Freshman Bob Studley was a pleasant surprise, scoring 22 goals and adding 22 assists.

Babson graduates four players but returns 18 letter-winners next spring.

This isn’t the time to be sitting!

Nothing’s gonna stop this BABO player.

Tri-captains Suzie Thibodeau, Katie Thibodeau (or is it Katie and Suzie?) and Jackie Ward.

BABO’s got this opponent trapped.
WOMENS’ LACROSSE

The Womens' Lacrosse team continued to make strides in building a solid foundation for the future. One of the highlights of their season was hosting Oxford University. Though Babson lost the contest, it was a great learning experience for both schools. With the continuation of the womens’ lacrosse team growing stronger, the 1989 season should be a successful one.
1988 softball team
(1st row) Paula Farina, Elissa Goodman, Shay Blanchette, Amy Siebert.
(2nd row) Captain Laurie Hornik, Jenn Gottberg, Denise Paratore, Carolyn Hunter.
A successful 7-5 regular season was great news for the second year varsity softball team. Returning all but one player from last year's squad — the outlook was bright for Coach Jon Anderson. Two quick victories began the season and after dropping two, the team won a game against Division II Bryant. Two losses ensued before emerging victories against Lesley and Framingham colleges. The team dropped another game before rounding up the season with two convincing wins over Connecticut College and Wentworth. A post season game against Smith in the first round of New 8 tournament was a great disappointment. After getting up 2-0 in the top of the first, Smith managed to score two runs in the 5th and then again in the 6th with some clutch timely hitting and the result was a 3-2 loss despite a great all around game by Babson.

Babson was led by MVP and ace pitcher Denise Paratore. Denise boasted an ERA of 3.24 in 54 innings pitched. Highlights were 2 hitters against MIT and Connecticut College as well as striking out 8 against Connecticut College.

Shay Blanchette led the team in hitting at .415 and 13 RBI's. Jenn Gottberg came in at .371 with a .571 slugging percent. Elissa Goodman followed at .367 and Amy Siebert at .357. Laurie Hornik chipped in at .341 with 14 stolen bases. Joanne Choate and Laurie Hornik pounded home runs during the season, while Jenn Gottberg hammered 3 triples. Shay Blanchette also contributed 2.13 ERA in 23 innings pitched.

We thank Coach Anderson and Coach Recck for a job well done.
