Location: New England/Wellesley, Massachusetts, a small wealthy suburban community. Well-kept campus with state of the art facilities, occasional fire drills, and its very own police force. For 2004-2005, undergraduate tuition, fees, room, and board is on average $39,208 a year.
The People:
- 1,679 undergraduate students from 49 states and 62 countries

- Over 30 languages spoken on campus

The Vision:
- To develop successful, passionate, enthusiastic, thoughtful individuals
- To encourage the entrepreneurial spirit
- To emphasize teamwork and collaboration

The Reality:
- Team grades
- Love affairs with laptops, IM, and cell phones
- Forgetting how to present without a PowerPoint
- Fireworks, painted rooms, and getting charged for large tables
- Fighting for parking on the hill and for rooms in the library
The Audience
The Actors

The characters at Babson have multiple personalities. They can be impulsive and unpredictable, or they can be calm, sensible, and observant. Their wardrobe should consist of suits and flip-flops, Louis Vuitton purses, and free t-shirts. In their spare time, Babson students run forums, biased focus groups, business conferences, corporations, and keg parties.

Due to this split personality, they are simultaneously - the spectator and the athlete, the audience and the actor.
“If you’re not on the edge, you’re taking up too much room.”

Nike spokesman Scott Reames

Sometimes taking a leap of faith is mandatory.
As first-year students, we learn about high risk and high return. Some of the things we bet on are sports, jobs, GPAs, and relationships. We use resumes, interviews, poker chips, fantasy leagues, blind faith, and hard work.
Choosing a college, a career, a state or a country to live in takes nerve, because there is no right answer. Asking someone to dance, counting on snow days, driving all night to New York, to Foxwoods, or to Canada, signing a lease before you have a job are all leaps of faith.
Learning to enjoy fleeting moments, to take advantage of opportunities, to put yourself out there, and take risks... is all part of the education.
As complicated, involved, and varied as the storylines may get at Babson, there is one element you can always count on: intensity.

Competition

Students compete on the field, on the court, in classrooms, in offices, and auditoriums. They are continually setting higher standards for themselves and raising the bar for those around them.
Friendships
This is what makes Babson home for 9 months out of the year.
Regardless of how you spent your four years at Babson (with friends, colleagues, professors, or competitors) and no matter where you spent your time (in fields, at parties, or in classrooms), these are moments of your life that you will always look back on.
Life is full of different possibilities and challenges for the future, but if we keep faith in what we are capable of doing, we have the potential to drive excellence and to benefit others.

This year Babson students and faculty provided over 15,000 hours of community service!

Sigma Phi Epsilon put together a coat drive

Sigma Kappa organized a blood drive

Bernon hosted a pumpkin carving event for Camp Sunshine

FME businesses donated a record-breaking $62,500.00 in profits to various charities.

These charities included local chapters of the YMCA, the Boys & Girls Club, the Association for Retarded Citizens, March of Dimes, Special Olympics, as well as Cradles to Canyons, and the Dana Farber Institute.
In October Babson students used Reynolds to carve pumpkins for the Camp Sunshine/Life is Good Pumpkinfest. This charity event will take place in the Boston Commons and will try to break the world record for amount of lit jack-o-lanterns, which now stands at 28,952. The Pumpkinfest will also raise money for Camp Sunshine, a retreat in Maine for children with life-threatening illnesses and their families. The camp offers 24-hour medical assistance.
400+ freshman
- Played the name game
- Moved heavy boxes (or watched parents move heavy boxes)
- Sat in the circle of trust
- Saw the beaver fully suited

Some
- Will live without air conditioning
- Will live without private refrigerators... or bathrooms
- Will live without cars

All
- Will brave FME
Outside of sports and frat life there are organizations. Speaking from experience, they are not always the most attended or the most organized, but they are an essential outlet where Babson students can get involved without getting a car. Every year BDE hosts one of the hottest events on campus, while BOA hosts some of the hottest events off campus like this years' $30.00 ski trip.

You'd be surprised at how many people get freaked out by tall people.

Dustin Kim, using a lethal weapon on campus... again.

Above: From right to left Antonette Ho, Cindy Lo, Chai-maine Lee, Carlton Chu, and Samantha represent BAPSA.

On left: Jason Bedrick braces himself for an interactive demonstration by the martial arts club. You can tell he is a trusting individual because he leaves himself wide open.
Anushka Kakkar deciding between whether to join Amnesty for the human cause

One of the few organizations where people sign themselves up to be taken and conquered, usually by Mortiz.

The Latin Club leans back.

BSU hosted speakers on campus this year for black history month. As well as displaying photography of strong black leaders in the Reynolds Campus Center.

Signing up for Work in Progress. Aren't we all?

DJ Hageman stares out at the camera with little sympathy for the captive. Also implicated in the incident is former president Jennifer Sanchez.
October 20, 2004. First title since 1918. The first team to win a best-in-seven series after being down 0-3 in games in the 2004 World Series. They won 3-0 in the final game against the St. Louis Cardinals. Derek Lowe six innings, one hit. Three outs away from taking a sweeping from the Yankees and going against the cardinals who had won 105 games in 2004. The bloody sock of Curt Schilling as he pitched on one ankle and the jesus hair of Johnny Damon. Boston "lost" Alex Rodriguez and won a world series. This is what legends are made of.

Side note: Pedro Martinez is a traitor.

"We’re going to enjoy it a bit and give up a bunch of hugs and kisses right now, and do what champions do -- celebrate." -- Red Sox leadoff batter Johnny Damon
It's all about the Red Sox this year baby. Screensavers, hats, and bracelets, Merr caught the fever.

Here we go Red Sox, here we go.

On the 1, on the streets, in the stadium, on balconies, on rooftops, out windows, on the hill and outside of Pietz, this is what we were saying. “Believe it baby, believe it - it’s a miracle.”

Johnny Damon’s home run... need I say more?

Dress for Success

Is that Mark Walting or does Manny have a brother at Babson College?

I don’t know what felt better... winning the World Series or winning an iPod.

Can you feel the excitement?

Restivo’s shirt says it all!
Listen, if you can't spot the sucker at the table in your first half hour at the table... then you are the sucker.

"Rounders"

This year's family weekend came complete with trumpets, awards ceremonies, and underage gambling. In other words - quality time.
The human spirit is more powerful than any drug - and THAT is what needs to be nourished: with work, play, friendship, family. THESE are the things that matter. This is what we'd forgotten - the simplest things.

-Awakenings
But Why Bump off Barnaby?

(Rick Abbot)

In this farce, Barnaby Folcey is murdered at a family gathering. He had every reason to kill everybody at the gathering, but no one had any reason to kill him. This murder mystery was quite funny. The cast did well with characters well beyond their years and the tech crew put together an amazing set.

Unbelievable
Just a few study abroad photos from Lisa Chin, Laura Tramontozzi, and Marie Rivera - lifestyles of the well-travelled.
One of the biggest blizzards we had this year came down on the same night as the Winter Weekend comedy night at Sorenson. CAB gave away free beanies at the door and afterwards everybody moved down to the Pub for some good old-fashioned family feuds.
The talent portion of Miss Babson was the most entertaining and the most painful of the evening.

Look Ma, no hands.

The best smile of the evening.

Stealing the show from Mike, she whipped the audience right into shape.
What a riot. February 6, 2005 the New England Patriots won their third superbowl in four years. 24-21 against the Philadelphia Eagles in Jacksonville, FL. Deion Branch took MVP by tying a superbowl record of 11 catches for 133 yards. Next stop Detroit. There were so many turnovers in this game you could blink and the other team had the ball. McNabb threw so many crazy passes I hope for his sake that he was bought. Not to mention the excellent display of clock management by the Eagles in the final 4 minutes of the game. It was a good fight, but you got to bring your best if you're gonna take on the Dynasty.

"I'm proud that we won stressing team and not individual accomplishment.

-Bob Kraft

Side Note: What was up with the geriatric half-time show. I'm a big fan of Paul McCartney but do you really want your players listening to a lullaby at half-time? Janet Jackson has truly freaked out the establishment.

Dynasty
Bad food, good game.

Bidding prices for scalped tickets were as high as $5,000.00 a seat to attend the 2005 Superbowl. Betting prices are another story.

Most football teams are temperamental. That's 90% temper and 10% mental.

East Meets West
Be My Dumpling
Eating contests complete with chicken feet, pick up lines like, "I give her a calculator so she can calculate how much I like her," and Mirudo. This year's East Meets West played with some of the worst stereotypes surrounding Asian culture.

East Meets West also had a serious mission raising a lot of money for the Tsunami victims and educating Babson students about their situation.
Senior Athlete Awards Night
Walking through the snow in heels was worth it this year. The President’s Ball was absolutely lovely. Squeezing in front of the open bar and watching distinguished professors shake to old school melodies and funk was a lot of fun. Dodging out of the way of the conga line and watching everyone climb on stage for the finale made me forget the snow storm that had grounded me there in the first place.
Winning

The Management Guru himself.
“What does it take to win?”

This is the first and perhaps the only time that I have ever seen a live feed running from Sorenson to Reynolds. The auditorium was overflowing hours before Jack Welch’s scheduled appearance. There was debate afterward over whether asking for job searching advice during Q&A was shallow or gauche. But let’s face it, this question often haunts the business major.
Pub Parties
Family Feud nights, Karaoke, top notch local djs, and the best beer this side of the Wellesley golf course... Roger's Pub.

At Babson, the laptop is sometimes our closest friend, but always our least favored one.
It's the last of finals week, so they frame themselves in financial formulas and try to study A&H.

"I'm telling you. He claims he named it Napster because his hair is so nappy underneath that cap of his. But I know the real reason. It's because I was NAPPING when he stole the idea from me. I should've been on the cover of Wired magazine."

Babson Rugby’s 2004-2005 season started with a celebration unlike any other in the club’s history. It celebrated its 25th anniversary since the club’s establishment in 1979.

Alumni from around the country flocked to Babson College for the team’s first home game in September. The team led the season off with a bang by defeating Saint-Michael’s College after a seven point deficit, which occurred within the first ten minutes of the game.

The club’s members, both current and past, spent the evening celebrating the game’s success, and the history and future of the club.

The remainder of the season proved to be a developmental challenge for the team as they faced formidable adversaries. The team is hopeful for the future as more new members join every semester.
Fall of 2004 began with a good start as a seasoned team began what soon became an undefeated season, clinching Babson Women’s Rugby first ever playoff berth. On September 25, 2004, the team played arch rival Bentley College, the only team that stood in the way of a previous playoff appearance. Holding a grudge, the ruggers succeeded in their first victory of the season, which was soon followed by victories against Brandeis, Colby-Sawyer, Framingham State, and MIT, gaining the title of Division III East Champions. The girls saw a fright on Halloween as they played Western Connecticut College in the quarterfinals of the New England Championship. After playing a long and hard game, the girls lost in the end of the second half. The following day, Babson Women’s Rugby rallied their spirits and defeated Wheaton to gain 3rd place in New England.

A major event in this season was the victory against Bentley College on September 25th in which the girls wowed a stunning crowd of alumni participating in 25th anniversary. Following the anniversary ceremony, both the male and female teams joined the alumni in celebratory banquet honoring the first ever Rugby Hall of Fame honorees.

With all but two players returning this fall, the girls look forward to what will once again be an undefeated season.

This fall, the team heavily recruited ten optimistic and eager freshmen and two sophomores wanting to learn one of the best sports Babson has to offer. Joining two seniors, fifteen juniors, and two sophomores, the girls succeeded in learning rugby traditions on and off the field, and became part of the most united organization on campus. President and Forwards Captain, senior Lauren Zopatti, led the team repeated along with Backs Captain Meaghan Lally McGurl. Jacque Decocq led the team with most tries and was awarded Most Valuable Player for the Backs, while Myra Singleton was the named Most Valuable Player for the forwards, never backing away from a tackle.
Babson Cheerleading kicked off their 2004-05 season with much success! This year, the all-girl squad of 16 members cheered at men's basketball games, special events, and local competitions.

The purpose of the Babson College Cheerleading Program is to create school spirit, pride, and loyalty. We also prepare for and engage in competition against similar teams, promote interest in school activities, and perform at school games. It is the goal of the program to develop responsibility, teach self-respect, encourage honest effort, strive for perfection, and develop character.
Mission Statement- A transformational community, based on God’s Word, committed to knowing Christ, growing in Christ, and making Him known at Babson and throughout the world.

The Babson Christian Fellowship, informally known in Babsonian acronyms as BCF, drew closer to God and each other this year through various activities hosted on and off-campus. We met weekly for life-changing Bible Studies, where we read the Bible together and prayed for each other’s needs. These evenings were times that we all looked forward to because of the sincere community to which we could bring our trials and joys of our lives. The supportive friends which we found in each other enabled us to see more of God’s character and consequently share the love of Christ with the campus.

This year, a new outreach called Alpha was introduced to our campus by Campus Crusade for Christ, the evangelical organization. A group of leaders trained and held a dinner/movie/discussion night for everyone on campus who had unanswered questions about Christianity, our Lord Jesus, or life application of the Christian faith. Our evening was filled with laughter, joy, and sincere conversation about our Christian walks. We are hoping to continue this outreach for many years to come.

Our fun events included a Thanksgiving meal for Babson campus in November and a spring dinner in April. We reached out to our friends by bringing them good food and good company. We also met on Friday evenings in Harvard Square with college students from across the city to worship God through songs and hear quality teachings about the Bible. Several of us attended the Fall Retreat on Lake Winnipesaukee, New Hampshire. Too many Frisbee games, hours hiking, and many laughs later, we drove back to campus refreshed and grateful for the lessons God had shown us that weekend.

Above all, BCF exists to share God’s love with this campus. We want you to know that God cares about you as his individual creation more than we can ever fathom. Know that you are constantly in our prayers and if you have any questions as your navigate your spiritual journey in life, we are here for you.
The Luxury and Fashion Association is a group of students who are interested in the industry, and are eager to learn more about it and build a network. This year we had meetings where we discussed major topics and issues involved in this industry, and had a speaker come talk to the members about her experience as an entrepreneur in this business. The LFA also went to New York City for our annual DKNY trip. We look forward to having more great events next year and meeting more members of the Babson community that are willing to join this fun and exciting organization!
Alpha Epsilon Pi's mission is to foster and promote brotherly love, to develop the next generation of Jewish leaders, to inaugurate a spirit of cooperation and helpfulness, to create a better understanding among our brothers, to seek academic excellence, and to encourage vigorous participation in college and general activities in our community to the mutual advantage of all concerned.

Alpha Epsilon Pi is the newest fraternity at Babson College. We were founded in April of 2003, and officially recognized by Babson College in the winter of 2004. Alpha Epsilon Pi International bestowed our charter upon us on April 9th, 2005.

In their first year competing in Greek Week, the brothers of Alpha Epsilon Pi won first place. This year, brothers have logged hundreds of hours of community service and raised over $500 for the Ethiopian Jewish community in Israel. We have also achieved academic excellence by obtaining the highest average GPA of all the fraternities and sororities at Babson.

Alpha Epsilon Pi's list of famous alumni includes many famous businessmen such as Arthur Blank and Bernard Marcus, co-founders of Home Depot; Jack Stahl, former president of Coca-Cola; Jerry Reinsdorf, owner of the Chicago Bulls and Chicago White Sox; Sanford Weil, co-chairman of Citigroup; Irving Azoff, former president of MCA Records; Chet Simmons, founder of ESPN; and Richard Frank, former president of Walt Disney Studios. Other notable alumni include musicians Paul Simon and Art Garfunkle; comedian Jerry Lewis; actor/comedian Richard Lewis; actor Gene Wilder; actor Scott Wolf; CNN correspondent, Wolf Blitzer; Ken Chertow of the U.S. Olympic Wrestling team; Congressman Jerrald Nadler of New York; and James Brooks, producer of "The Simpsons."

The Brothers of Alpha Epsilon Pi look forward to many more successful years at Babson College.
The Pan-Hellenic Council of Babson College has been extremely busy over the past year uniting the two sororities on campus, Sigma Kappa and Kappa Kappa Gamma. Last spring, we held two inter-sorority events, which involved playing board games that required the use of teamwork and leadership. The key motive in these events was to get all of the women working together. Carol Hacker also hosted an etiquette dinner and a lunch for all of the Greek Women of Babson College, where we learned the importance of being Greek.

This past fall, The Pan-Hellenic Council worked tremendously hard to promote Greek life on campus in order to have a successful formal recruitment. We designed shirts and pencils for recruitment and held events such as a Night for Philanthropies. We also had a barbeque for all of the Greek women and the new girls interested in Greek Life. Before Rachel Wilson, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, left for Iraq to serve the US Army Reserves, we gave her a present to remember the Greek women at Babson. The women of both Sigma Kappa and Kappa Kappa Gamma have worked hard over the past year, becoming very close. We are already planning events for the next semester, which will promote Greek life and bring together the sororities of Babson College.
The ladies of Sigma Kappa have had yet another eventful year. As usual, philanthropy has been a big part of our effort and as an organization we did very well. We sponsored a Blood Drive and also did our annual walk for Alzheimer’s in the fall. Besides the effort as a group, many sisters have individually gone above and beyond volunteering their time for some sort of a good cause.

Sigma Kappa has also been voted as the chapter of the year, and one of the seniors as Greek Woman of the Year. As an organization, Sigma Kappa was able to accomplish a lot this year not only in the Greek community but also the Babson community as a whole and even beyond the scope of Babson. Besides keeping busy with everything, Sigma Kappa has also enjoyed its two big social events, the formal in the fall and the semi-formal in the spring. Both events were well organized and turned out to be a great time. Overall, the year has had a lot of successes, memories, and great times that the sisters of Sigma Kappa shared together.
Our club was formed in order to unite people with a similar interest in promoting and learning about the Russian culture. Though the majority of our club members were born in different countries of the former USSR, we drew in several non-natives who share similar goals and interests. Our club is open to Babson undergraduates as well as MBAs and students from Olin College of Engineering.

Some of our events from last year included attending a prestigious performance of a Russian Ballet Group and hosting Oleg Jerebtsov, a leading Russian entrepreneur as a speaker, thereby servicing the appetite for entrepreneurship here at Babson. This year, we continued bringing the Russian culture to the community through popular Russian dishes at Trim. As a club, we focus on group-building activities through Russian restaurant outings as well as cultural nights on campus. We will continue to grow in the future and provide attractive opportunities to interested students.
The Babson Francophone Society was founded at the beginning of spring semester 2005. The purpose of this organization is to unite all French speakers of Babson College, as well as those with an interest in the French language and francophone cultures. We are trying to promote learning and a social environment to enrich each other's French speaking ability and raise French cultural awareness on campus. Being an organizational member of The French Center of Boston, we provide our members with updated information on the different French resource centers and events around Boston area.

We started the semester with our first event, The Mardi Gras Celebration, to celebrate one of the most popular holidays in French culture. During midterm week, we offered a Sunset BreakFEST to provide our members with a variety of French breakfast food. Some of our future events include French movie night, club dinner, Francophone Trim Night, and an exchange program with L'ecole Bilangue de Boston.

For the year 2004-2005, Aman hosted some spectacular events for the Babson community. Aman is Babson's South Asian Student Association which is made up of over 100 members of the Babson community who are interested in South Asian culture.

Aman is committed to facilitating the interests and needs of the South Asian community, and was able to do that through various endeavors. The year began with a membership drive at the Organization Festival, along with invitations to first year students to attend the Annual Freshman reception. The South Asian Student Association also developed the South Asian Dance Troup and Cricket Club to facilitate the interests of Aman members.

Aman also hosted many events in the fall semester, such as Ramadan Breaking of Fast, Diwali Dinner in Boston, and Masti – South Asian Cultural Show and Dinner. In the spring, Aman jumped into the multicultural month and hosted a South Asian Trim Night, free henna tattoos, Bangle and Slipper Fundraising, and a Multicultural comedy night with Russell Peters. Aman will be topping off the year with an outdoor Holi party, Boston SASA Presidents' Reception, and a graduation dinner for South Asian families.

Aman continues to bring more South Asian culture, diversity, values, awareness, and current issues to the Babson community, while keeping in mind the needs of South Asian students.
BAPSA - The Babson Asian Pacific Student Association is based upon these four principles: diversity, self-awareness, friend and experience.

What a year for BAPSA! We have succeeded in bringing more members into the club to participate in our activities. It started with our first general meeting, followed by our annual canoe trip. Later, we attended Boston Asian Student Intercollegiate Conference to represent Babson. Other events for the semester include a midnight snack, Wrentham shopping trip, Asian Network dinner with other schools including Wellesley and MIT, basketball and volleyball tournaments. This year, BAPSA has been a success, thanks to the great teamwork of the e-board members, and the support of all of our members.
Our Mission

A chartered student organization since 1971, the BSU is primarily concerned with the continual improvement of life for black students at Babson. The BSU:

- Strives to further the intellectual, cultural, political and social development of members by seeking to form a strong and supportive community within the current membership as well as with alumni.

- Promotes positive self-identification with black history and culture, a higher level of black consciousness, activism and mutual understanding among all cultures and people.

Hillel is The Foundation for Jewish Campus Life, which provides opportunities for Jewish students to explore and celebrate their Jewish identity through Babson and other schools in the Boston area. Hillel engages students in all sorts of activities including services, a dance night at a club in Boston (Faffel Ball) and traditional meals of bagel brunches and Friday night dinners.
The 2004-2005 school year has been one of the most exciting in the history of the Babson Entrepreneurial Exchange. The BEE held about 20 events, bringing in renowned speakers, such as Paul Fireman (CEO of Reebok), Ted English (CEO of the TJX Companies, including TJ Maxx, Marshalls, Home Goods, Bobs), Barry & Eliot Tatelman (president and CEO of Jordan's Furniture), Pete Nicholas (CEO of Boston Scientific), Richard Gelfond (CEO of IMAX), Roger Berkowitz (president and CEO of Legal Sea Foods), and many others.

The year was capped off with the annual Conference on Entrepreneurship, which brought in record numbers of attendees and dozens of fantastic entrepreneur panelists. This year also marked the founding of the Entrepreneurial Alliance, an alliance of student-run entrepreneurship organizations including schools such as Harvard, MIT, Yale, Dartmouth, Olin, NYU, Brown, and Tufts, to name a few. The inaugural event for the Entrepreneurial Alliance was hosted by the BEE, and held at Babson. This event, based on The Apprentice Television show, gave students from many schools an opportunity to work together to solve a business problem. This year marked the 21st anniversary of the Babson Entrepreneurial Exchange, and surely will be one to be remembered.
The iTower (Investment Tower) is a special interest housing community for students interested in finance and investments. Created in the fall of 2003, iTower has just completed its second year. The iTower creates “The Week Ahead”, a weekly newsletter brief of upcoming events on Wall Street that is e-mailed out to over 150 undergrad and graduate students. Additionally, the iTower has been working on creating its own virtual stock exchange (www.babsonitower.com), and hopes to have the program running up by next year. The iTower is located on the 3rd floor of Van Winkle B Tower, and is open to all members of the College.

The Babson Dance Ensemble is completely student-run and choreographed. Each semester, our shows draw a larger crowd than many of the sporting events. We pride ourselves on continually trying to find ways to make our shows more enjoyable and exciting for our audience, and this year was no exception.

This year, BDE accepted 18 new members, and several of them have already begun choreographing. We have 22 graduating seniors, and are sad to see them leave, but thankful that they could share their talents and love of dance. Many of those in the organization have formed friendships with our seniors, and they will be truly missed. Good luck.
The Babson Players is the only completely student-run drama organization at Babson. At any given time, we have 25-35 active members who participate both on and off the stage. We organize, produce, and perform one show per semester, (a comedy in the fall and a musical in the spring), for the Babson community. Whether you want to be on stage, make costumes, design lighting, build set pieces, stage manage, or just help out, there are opportunities for everyone to get involved in every show.

This season was exceptional. Everyone involved in our two productions had fun, and it showed in the quality of our performances. In October, we performed the murder mystery comedy, “But Why Bump Off Barnaby”. This spring, we performed the musical comedy “Guys and Dolls”. We would like to thank the seniors for all of their hard work and dedication to the Players!

Habitat for Humanity is an international organization that strives to provide reasonable housing to all people. Habitat works through affiliate bases all over the world to relieve homelessness or impoverished housing. Each affiliate organizes volunteers working on several construction sites to work alongside community members and the future Habitat homeowners. The goal is to produce not only shelter, but also a strong sense of community and achievement.

Not only does the Babson Chapter of Habitat for Humanity volunteer at various sites in Boston, but every year, a group of its member students and faculty go to an out of state location to volunteer. For the past two years and even next year, we will be going to Mexico, as their community has become a part of us. Their genuine warmth and generosity, in addition to the exposure to this culture and underprivileged community has inspired the volunteers to make social entrepreneurship an integral part of their careers.
The Student Government Association consists of six Executive Board Members, 60 Senators, and 30 House Representatives. SGA has the vision to increase Babson pride and community involvement by giving all students the tools, knowledge, and resources to raise school spirit, create leaders, become proactive, and improve their own lives at Babson. Our community not only realize we are “the voice of the student body,” but we are also its ears - we listen to issues, ideas, questions, and concerns, and act on them. This year, SGA educated students on what impact they could make on this campus. With support from SGA, we saw students and student groups collaborate and host great events, speakers, leadership retreats, and outings. In addition to activities, we continue to educate members of our community and help them become better leaders by hosting leadership seminars, retreats, info sessions, and luncheons. The Student Government Association has worked very hard to give more than what was expected of us with the hope that others will do the same.

BCR can be heard across campus in Reynolds, Trim, Channel 9, and on student laptops everywhere. Are you tuned in? http://radio.babson.edu
Are you enjoying the 2005 yearbook so far? The 2005 Babsonian Yearbook has captured all the hard work and efforts of the Babsonian crew: Paul Burgess, Sarah Healey, Amanda Hellen, and Vivian Wong. We strive to compile an excellent and comprehensive yearbook, which document a year’s worth of fun, hardwork, success, and recognition printed on each Babson student’s face. This year’s talented crew continued to ignore deadlines for publishing, hunt down student leaders for organization pages, and harass seniors to sign up for senior portraits in order to compile the best possible yearbook. Without the little bits of help from everyone in the Babson community, the 2005 yearbook would not be printed and delivered on time. We hereby thank everyone who has cooperated with us, submitted pages, bought an Ad, and contributed pictures, text, and other random “stuff” that was included in this year’s book. We hope that you will keep on reading the rest of the book, and ENJOY!

Dear Members of the Class of 2005:

Congratulations! As you prepare to graduate from Babson, you should be very proud as individuals and as a class for all that you have accomplished during your undergraduate years. You have worked hard to earn your degree and, at the same time, you have contributed a great deal to the Babson community—in academics, athletics, artistic pursuits, and many other aspects of campus life. Babson is a better place because of your commitment and enthusiasm.

As you read through the pages of The Babsonian, I am certain it will bring back many memories of your years at the College. I know that you will hold on to these memories for many years to come. From my own experience as a Babson alumnus, I am sure you will find that many of the friends you have made here will remain friends throughout your lives. You also will find that your experiences at Babson, in and out of the classroom, have helped prepare you for the next chapter in your lives and for success in your careers.

Fortunately, I have had the opportunity over the past four years to meet nearly all of you, and I have enjoyed working with many of you on campus activities. I want to wish all of you the very best in your future pursuits. Stay in touch—our faculty and staff will enjoy hearing from you—and come back often as active and supportive alumni. I look forward to seeing you again on campus soon.

Best regards,

Brian M. Barefoot

Knowledge enables its possessor to distinguish what is forbidden from what is not; lights the way to Heaven; it is our friend in the desert, our companion in solitude, our companion, when bereft of friends; it guides us to happiness; it sustains us in misery; it is our ornament in the company of friends.

It's strange that our turn has come to graduate. Sometimes it felt like graduation was centuries away, like being in college would last forever, and now it's all over! Goodbye student life, hello real world. It's been a wonderful 4 years, thanks to the friends I've made, the professors that taught me along the way, and my family who supported me throughout. To my parents, not only the people that I admire most, but also my best friends. My only hope is to be as wonderful as you: je vous aime! My Tonton, it's your turn to enjoy college, and baby you will have a blast!!! My Babson friends, we've made friendships of a lifetime! Thank you everyone and good luck to all.

You can do anything you want to do. What is rare is this actually wanting it so much that you are practically blind to all other things and that nothing else will satisfy you. I know I have said a lot when I say you can do anything you want to do. But I mean it. Blunder ahead with your personal view. The real work of art is the result of a magnificent struggle.

Imagine life as a game in which you are juggling five balls in the air. You name them - work, family, health, friends, and spirit - and you’re keeping all of these in the air. You will soon understand that work is a rubber ball. If you drop it, it will bounce back. But the other four balls - family, health, friends, and spirit are made of glass. If you drop one of these, they will be irrevocably scuffed, marked, nicked, damaged, or even shattered. They will never be the same. You must understand that and strive for balance in your life.

BABSONIAN YEARBOOK

We will miss our graduating seniors:

Paul Burgess, Amanda Hellen
and
Vivian Wong

Best of luck in all of your future endeavors.

The staff of the Babsonian Yearbook.
Shlee's head, and singing in the shower, to drinking till we're dead, and getting paid by the hour. Go Sox. Gmail or Die. Green 17. Hammerfaced 4 life. Glass Rod or Father?
Friendship is not something easy to forget or severe.

It'll stay with us for the rest of our lives, the good times and even the bad times.
Darling Tonia, you are the star of my life,
You are the talent that has surprised me,
You are the light that always guides me.

From Plovdiv / Sofia to Addis Abeba,
From Palo Alto to Boston, Salamanca, London and Madrid,
From Egypt, Greece and Turkey to Beijing...

Be blessed in your road ahead,
Which, I am sure, will be paved with glory.
Climb all the peaks that you would like to conquer,

And give the world
the warmth of your love,
The never ending energy
of your creativity,
The reason and the vision of your leadership.

Mommiest
Trisha,

We are very proud of your achievement.

Good luck with your career. God Bless you and be with you always Mom, Dad and Asha.

Lost and confused on I-84,
Trim, Webster, Forrest and a whole lot more.
Hosea said rehab, rehab, rehab,
Horn and Blank Center but never the lab.
The T, taxis, bike, got Boston to see,
Tripper, Ken, Jeff and all of C-3.
Newmac and Newmac adds to the mix,
Snow football and midnight golf, bring your sticks.
Costa Rica, Nassau, Columbia and Jamaica,
Now fame and fortune surely will take ya.

Love, your parents, Mark, Meg and your Aunts and Uncles

YOUR MANY ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND VICTORIES OVER THE PAST FOUR YEARS AT BABSON ARE QUITE REMARKABLE.

WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU, MICHAEL.

PHELAN

Joseph

CONGRATULATIONS!
We are all very proud of you. You know I can’t leave it at that, so of course I have found a wonderful quote which I think says it all.

“To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure
the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded.” Ralph Waldo Emerson.

We know you will always do well in this world. You’re motivated and enthusiastic when meeting new challenges.

We love you Joseph.
Lots of love and best wishes
Love,
Mom, Dad, Kerry and the kids, Garrett and Martie

Dear Katie,

We are so proud of you! You have grown into a magnificent young woman!
You have experienced so much while at Babson; September 11th, London,
Spain, Paris, Salem, MA on Halloween, Dublin on St. Patrick’s Day, Boston
Pops on the 4th, throwing tea in the bay, not to mention all of the good friends you have made, the great professors and wonderful learning experiences. This has been a truly magical time in your life, a time that you will never forget.

But now, you are off into the “real” world. Know that wherever you go – whatever decisions you make in life, we are always behind you.

ALAN MEDVIN

If leadership is winning the respect of those you meet, then you’re already a Captain.

If success is working hard to achieve challenging goals, then you’re already an Achiever.

If wisdom is treating others as you would like them to treat you, then you’re already a Sage.

Graduation is a milestone, but it’s just another day you make us proud.

May your dreams come true.

May you never know failure.

And if you do – we’ll love you anyway!!!

Onward and upward!!!

¡Cuanto te he extrañado!... al fin a pasado el tiempo y tú terminas la "U"... este ingrato tiempo y distancia ya me hizo crecer... al fin regresas a mi lado... mirame... ¡ya soy Grande!... no tan grande como tú, pero si quiero serlo así para ser tu orgullo.

Yo se que tú me quieres... mas.... ¡Tú no sabes cuánto yo te quiero!... ¡Y cuánto te he extrañado! Noches y días esperando tu regreso y ahora que al fin el sueño se ha cumplido disfrutémoslo al máximo para recuperar los abrazos y caricias guardadas para ti.

Abrázame... abrázame muy fuerte... y escucha cómo late mi corazón de contento... ¡Gracias DIOS... mi ñaña EFY ha vuelto!
