Senior Athlete Awards Night
Spring Weekend

Mr. Babson
Walking through the snow in heels was worth it this year. The President's Ball was absolutely lovely. Squeezing in front of the open bar and watching distinguished professors shake to old school melodies and funk was a lot of fun. Dodging out of the way of the conga line and watching everyone climb on stage for the finale made me forget the snow storm that had grounded me there in the first place.

The Management Guru himself.
This is the first and perhaps the only time that I have ever seen a live feed running from Sorenson to Reynolds. The auditorium was overflowing hours before Jack Welch’s scheduled appearance. There was debate afterward over whether asking for job searching advice during Q&A was shallow or gauche. But let’s face it, this question often haunts the business major.
