Phoenician Ball This Saturday

"It's the set salts, not the galls that tell us what to go by." This fall, Alpha Kappa Psi again sponsored its annual Phoenician Ball. Certain students might wonder why the dance is so-named. Being the ultimate national professional and business fraternity in the country, Alpha Kappa Psi has for many years represented the Phoeni-

GUY STEVENS AT PARKER HOUSE Root, Saturday evening.

Physical Education Program

Part Of BabsonJ.C.’s Program Termed Successful

This year the administration added a physical education to the list of required freshman courses. The program begins on October 6th. Two younger instructors will instruct the gym classes, as

Concert At Wellesley

This Sunday Evening

The Wellesley College Depart- ment of Music will inaugurate the first of a number of concerts to be held in the auditorium of the Junior Arts Center. The concert, which will be open to the public without charge.

Miss Poinsett and Mr. Burkett will introduce several well known artists, such as Béatrice de Beethoven and by Gabriel Fauré. Miss Poinsett is a scholar of music and is a member of the faculty. Mr. Burkett is a student of music, and works with the Wellesley College composers, Mr. Bartlett and Barber.

Miss Poinsett and Mr. Burkett will be represented realms program consisting of the AAMPER-NEA program, Kraus- werber Test, and the U.S.N.I.C.O.L. and A.A.O. physical fitness programs. At the beginning of the second semester, each student will be given a physical fitness test. At the end of the spring semester, the same test will be taken again to aid the instructors in evaluating the results of the new program. The spring program will also be based upon the interest of each student. The course will offer softball, field hockey, tennis, various intramural and other seasonal sports.

Mr. Smuth explained that this new program will also help the participants academically as well as physically. Mr. Smith commented: “I am hopeful that the freshmen will enthusiastically use the gym facilities after their freshman year and also look back upon the program as being worthwhile and useful.”

The J.C. program is now a significant part of Freshman orientation. The music consists of an opening dance followed by three pieces, “Rhapody,” “Al” and “Conquista,” written in 1924 and performed throughout the country and in Europe by the Robert Rint - Allen Barker duo. This will be their first presentation at Wellesley.

By these three pieces, “Rhapody,” “Al” and “Conquista,” written in 1924 and performed throughout the country and in Europe by the Robert Rint - Allen Barker duo. This will be their first presentation at Wellesley.

The J.C. program is now a significant part of Freshman orientation. The music consists of an opening dance followed by three pieces, “Rhapody,” “Al” and “Conquista,” written in 1924 and performed throughout the country and in Europe by the Robert Rint - Allen Barker duo. This will be their first presentation at Wellesley.

The J.C. program is now a significant part of Freshman orientation. The music consists of an opening dance followed by three pieces, “Rhapody,” “Al” and “Conquista,” written in 1924 and performed throughout the country and in Europe by the Robert Rint - Allen Barker duo. This will be their first presentation at Wellesley.

The J.C. program is now a significant part of Freshman orientation. The music consists of an opening dance followed by three pieces, “Rhapody,” “Al” and “Conquista,” written in 1924 and performed throughout the country and in Europe by the Robert Rint - Allen Barker duo. This will be their first presentation at Wellesley.

The J.C. program is now a significant part of Freshman orientation. The music consists of an opening dance followed by three pieces, “Rhapody,” “Al” and “Conquista,” written in 1924 and performed throughout the country and in Europe by the Robert Rint - Allen Barker duo. This will be their first presentation at Wellesley.

The J.C. program is now a significant part of Freshman orientation. The music consists of an opening dance followed by three pieces, “Rhapody,” “Al” and “Conquista,” written in 1924 and performed throughout the country and in Europe by the Robert Rint - Allen Barker duo. This will be their first presentation at Wellesley.

The J.C. program is now a significant part of Freshman orientation. The music consists of an opening dance followed by three pieces, “Rhapody,” “Al” and “Conquista,” written in 1924 and performed throughout the country and in Europe by the Robert Rint - Allen Barker duo. This will be their first presentation at Wellesley.
EDITORIAL

Railroad Solvency Vs. Welfare State

A venture unique in the history of American railroad labor relations...this was the manner in which the Presidential Railroad Commission described its intensive examination of established work rules and pay structure for employees on the railroads.

The history-making report of this commission, released in February 1902, urged an end to workaday practices that the railroad problem which had confronted the railroads for many years. Early in its report, the commission declared in very promising terms: "The composition of the commission, the scope of its work, the participation in one proceeding by all the operating employee organizations, the flexibility and variety of the commission's procedures, are all evidence of labor's and management's determined willingness to find solutions."

When the railroads announced plans to put into effect modernization of work rules based partly on findings of the Presidential commission, the unions obtained a temporary injunction. A delay of up to three months may now result until the United States Court of Appeals in Chicago makes its decision.

Of the $121 million estimated for the 1912 railroad labor management settlement, $54 million will be made available by the Chairmen of the railroad companies and by the Board of Trustees.

The United States Court of Appeals will act for the President. (In cases where the jurisdiction is not adequately defined, the decision on the continuing jurisdiction will be made by the voting members of the Board.)

The commission will appoint a time for the hearing of the case. The decision of the Board, if the case is before it, will be final and binding.

The proposed settlement, the commission said, will provide for an additional million dollars for the railroads, which will be used to pay for the terms of the settlement.

If the plaintiff or defendant appeals to the United States Court of Appeals, the court will consider whether to sustain, modify, or set aside its decision. The court may request postponement of the hearing, in which case the suit will be removed.

If the court of appeals sustains the decision, the ruling will be made on the record of the proceedings.

The title of the plaintiff or defendant will be the witness, in the case of the deciding party in the appeal.

The Chairman may recall witnesses and call witnesses at any time in the appeal.

The examiner of the railroad, however, may be able to secure a rehearing and a second hearing of the case.

The commission will render the decision of the court of appeals on the date specified in the order of the court.

The decision of the court of appeals will be binding on the plaintiff and the defendant.

Thus, the question of the viewpoint and procedures of the Student Judiciary:

The Student Judiciary: Its Procedure and Purpose

It shall be the duty of the Court to determine the facts based on the information which is presented before it in a manner consistent with the decision-making procedures of this organization.

The Court shall not at any stage of the proceeding provide for the provision of services to the defendant other than the information before it. This information will be available only to the members of the Court.

All proceedings and decisions shall be privileged and shall not be made public. This shall not apply to the dissemination of information from publically disseminating information at all costs.

Members of the court may seek the advice or assistance of a particular case. This temporary freedom from duties shall be granted at the discretion of the Chairperson.

The following proceedings will take place:

1. The procedure will be taken to handle individual cases.

2. A complaint shall be filed with the Chairperson of the student's case and shall be placed in a public hearing. The hearing will be made available by the Chairperson and the Dean of Students.

3. The hearing committee will rule on the case for the student. (In cases where the jurisdiction is not adequately defined, the decision on the hearing will be made by the voting members of the Board.)

4. The Chairman will appoint a time for the hearing of the case. The decision of the Board, if the case is before it, will be final and binding.

5. If the plaintiff or defendant appeals to the United States Court of Appeals, the court will consider whether to sustain, modify, or set aside its decision. The court may require postponement of the hearing, in which case the suit will be removed.

6. The court of appeals will be the court of last resort. The decision of the court of appeals will be made on the record of the proceedings.

7. The final decision of the court of appeals will be binding on the plaintiff and the defendant.

Critical Evaluation of Government Representatives Asked by President Campbell

In the week of October 8th, elections will be held in each class section to choose section representatives. Members of the Key Student organization will conduct the election as prescribed by the constitution.

I ask you to think seriously about your selection this year and to send us representatives who are well qualified and who want the job. Representatives must be willing to do extra work and they should be interested in student government in order for our system to work. Groups of people who have been plagued with poor attendance, apathy and general disinterest by representatives. This serves no one. The representatives are not only that of the student body. Students.

There is no limit to the number of representatives that can be elected. If you do not have enough quorum the election can be held again.

Last year in and previous years, there were many times when representatives were not elected to represent you. You can do this only by electing capable men who are willing to work for you and for a better school.
Section 1: Finances
A. The purpose of having license require all businesses and
The present system limits the amount of solicitations to which a Shaboom student is subject. In
B. Any student or students re-
A. The purpose of making a profit as a direct result of this association is covered by Article VI.
C. Businesses which are run by Shaboom students and sold to the relatives of Shaboom students are covered by this article.
D. Persons requesting char-
This article shall be printed in the Shaboom and persons requesting the license will not be required to require the license.
E. On campus organizations which are running businesses of any nature for the benefit of the student body are not required to file for a license under Article VI.
F. Student Relations Committee will investigate any questionable license requests. A request may be made by filling out an application blank and paying an entry fee (to become the license fee) of $1.00 per year, or $2.00 per school year: if it is a renewal of the license by the previous license holder(s) beginning with the school year, September 1940-41.
G. Commodities which are sold by the Book Store may not be sold by Student Businesses without permission of the Government.
H. The Student Government Re-
I. The laundry-drycleaning ser-
J. The above services may be sold at the discretion of the license

The Student Judiciary: Continued from Page 1.
cepted that we are right, but we must instead be aware of the danger of accepting and dealing with this responsibility hastily. It is not so much the acceptance that worries us, but rather the fullness of that responsibility. We are confident that we can handle it, as long as we do not allow it to become our chief factor behind the court. For all the license holder(s) at which time an application for a new license must be made. If these services are not sold by the license holder(s) within three weeks from the first day of classes of the fall term, and if we continued by the present operators, they will be put up for auction by the Student Government at the next meeting of the executive committee. If the license is revoked by the Government, the executive committee will hold an auction open to all students who are not licensed license holders. A renewal of the license must be made for each school year, three weeks from the first day of classes of the fall term.

There are many rumors drifting around concerning the student businesses. I hope that the following article from the Student Government Constitution will clear the air. In the past there have been errors by both the government and the students. I hope that you will not allow us to say that we created this situation.

The last sentence in the article states that all school businesses that wish to renew a license must apply for renewal by the end of the third week of school after the Student Government Executive Council has given notice. In this case, any business which runs for a short period would lose its license and be forced or in some cases, be put up for auction by the Executive Council on October 15, 1942. This applies primarily to the laundry and dry-cleaning service and to the snack service. If a license is not applied for, then an open auction will be held shortly after the 15th of October by the Student Government. Those businesses which run for a short period will lose their license.

If you are interested in the business of running a business at this college, you should be aware of the information contained in this article. If you are interested in being a member of the Student Government, it is necessary to know what is required of you and what is expected of you.

Robert S. Selden
Chairman of the Student Judiciary

Now - Ride To Class
SALE on 1962 WESPA scooters (K,S,C,C.)
Falmouth Rental sells its machines
now $200.00 WE NEED CASH

Now on campus...

Avon Grooming Products for Men
For the very first time here at college, you can buy Avon for Man. Complete good grooming. Professional products! First-rate performers! Only your Avon Campus Representative brings them to you. He'll be pleased to show you the wide Avon selection...as well as glamorous gifts for gifts...gifts for every occasion. See him soon.

Avon Campus Representative at Babson is Roger Rosser - Park Manor

Wednesday, October 3, 1962 - The Exec - Page 3
BABSON SPORTS

Soccer Team Defeated

The 1962 edition of the Babson Soccer Team opened its season on Saturday, September 28th, in a rain, wind and mud. The Babson blowouts got off to an early headwind when Tom Morris kicked one home in the first period, shortly there after Pete Cook scored again for Babson. The home team played very well the rest of the first half and held Colby scoreless. Babson goals, Don Fagerl, was standing whopping numerous hard shots. The second half began with Colby outshooting a tired Babson. But fine play by Ballackwaye, Fagler, center half Bob Coleman, and freshman right half Skip Longson helped back the inches. Colby could get one goal and then another in the third period. They had many chances for goals throughout the fourth period but Babson's stubborn defense kept them out of the goal. Finally with only two minutes to go Colby forced through the defending goal.

The game showed Babson to be a hard-fighting spirited team that will win more games this year than last. The team is large in numbers with depth at several key positions. In future games there will be even more depth since some of the less experienced players are learning the game fast. The next home game is on Saturday against New England College at 2 p.m. Babson should be able to win this game if the team comes out of the student body. Let's get out and support the team on Saturday.

World Series Preview

BY JOHN WHELAN

The World Series picture at present is a foggy one. The tie in the National League has mixed up my predictions a bit. The prospect of a four-game sweep of the Giants with my copy from Sports Illustrated, I will not analyze the Yankees and their National League opponents as we did in the last issue of SI. I think had the Dodger won in the regulation season, I would have picked them in six games, but a playoff that could last three games will take away any edge the Dodgers might have had.

The Yankees have the edge in power over Los Angeles but it is not power that wins in spacious Chavis Ravine. Pitching and speed are the most important factors and that is exactly what the Dodgers have. Walter O'Malley fashioned his present team with his beauties. The trend in baseball is toward the Yankees have not faced pitching this year that can come close to the Dodgers. More than once this year the supposedly potent Yankee hitters were also left in the dust by pitchers with half the ability of Drysdale or Sandy Koufax.

In addition, the Dodgers have Stan Williams, Johnny Podres, Elroid, Drysdale, Ron Perranos, and Larry Sherry. Podres and Sherry have run on exception to season but both are good money pitchers much like New York's Whitley Ford. After Ford, the Yankees lack a real stopper. Ralph Terry is a big disappointment this year but he is not the pitcher his record might indicate.

The rest of the staff has been mediocre all season and cannot be expected to do much better in the Series. Pressure has been less of a factor about the Dodgers; how and why the Yankees will handle it. Ford with his wonderful moves to first shouldn't have much trouble, even with Maury Wills. Terry, Stafford, Sheldon and the other stoppers make the key story. Elston Howard is a fine catcher and he should not be counted out if the Dodgers run wild on the basepath. It has been said many times that the base is stolen on the pitcher and not the catcher.

So far I have been thinking only in terms of the Dodgers winning the playoff and there is no certainty that this will happen. The Giants have fought all season and they have the pitching and power to win it is a short series. They will have momentum with them and their pitching rotation is set in top shape. Their top three hurlers pitched last weekend in their series with the Houston Colts, Juan Marichal, Billy O'Dell, Jack Sanford, and Bill Lee can more than match the run-producing ability of the Dodgers.

The Giants defense is passable, but the team speed can not compare with that of Los Angeles. I predict the Dodgers will win the playoff in three games. The Series will open in Los Angeles with Ford pitching for the Yankees. If the Dodgers can beat Ford in the first game they can win, my final prediction that the Dodgers will beat New York in seven games. If San Francisco wins over Los Angeles in the playoff, I predict the Yankees will win it in six games.

This is the year for the National League winner to beat the Yankees for the first time ever going in. Let's hope they do.

Sports In Short

At long last the Liston-Patterson fight is over and the feeling of having an out-of-the-circuit belfast at Boston's SRO Memorial Theatre was that they had been taken in by a giant box. It was a night full of excitement and the theatre crowd was noisy in anticipation of a fight everyone had hoped for, but never expected to actually happen. Dan D'Amato, Floyd Patterson's manager must have realized all along what was to happen in trying to keep Floyd as far from Liston as possible. D'Amato fore-saw what his prestige in shining armor was up against, and used every excuse in the book to keep Floyd safe from the evil that is Sonny Liston. Sonny, on the other hand must also have known how the fight was going to come about because there could be no other explanation for the contract he signed. The purse for the fight was enormous and yet Sonny is not getting enough to live on in the world championship should. The only explanation is that Sonny would win this time and again in the return bout, and then go on to championship fights where he gets decent purses. Unfortunately for Sonny, in his effusive way may have scared every title contender out of any aspirations he may have had. The question arises, after Patterson, who? Sonny has knocked out six of the top contenders on his way to the crown. The only men left are Archie Moore, Cassius Clay and Ingemar Johansson. Moore is over the hill, Clay is not half as good as he says he is, and even Floyd best Johansson. This leaves us with Charles "Sonny" Liston, express and gangland masher, as champion for quite a while to come. Only time will tell if Sonny is as claims rehabilitation, if he can live up to the name of champion.

Ace Picks

We are fortunate to have at the season this year a brilliant and talented prognosticator. After a bit of persuasion, he agreed to put his reputation on the line and make several selections in the EASE each week. We will only handle the games, that could go either way because "anyone can pick games that are one-sided".

THE CLEAN WHITE SOCK

He not only wears the clean white sock; he is "clean white sock." It's a kind of confidence that comes from knowing the right thing to do even if he decides not to do it. His clean white socks are by Adler. His girl is by his side, every bit as "clean white sock" as he is. Naturally they don't always wear white socks, they just act like they do. People who really are wearing the Adler SC shrink controlled wool sock $1.00.

THE NILER COMPANY, CINCINNATI, OHIO

ADLER

ADLER'S swinging S.C.'s available at

ARA'S, JOHN DOUGLAS, FILENE'S, OKEN'S BABSON BOOKSTORE

Continued on Page 5
Ace Picks

Continued from Page 4

win since last week they tied powerful L.S.U. Penn State, on the other hand, played poorly last week against the Air Force. Severer-ly, Penn State will win on the running of Roger Kochman and the fine end play of Dave Robinson. LOUISIANA STATE OVER GEORGIA TECH: L.S.U., will de-initely miss coach Paul Dietz this season. They also will miss Wendell Harris and other graduated stars. However, L.S.U. has the winning habit and will pull out this hard-fought defensive battle.

OTHER GAMES: Ohio Stateover
UCLA; Minnesota over Navy; Harvard over Cornell; Yale over Brown
Boston College over Virginia Military; Holy Cross over Colgate;
Princeton over Columbia; Dartmouth over Pennsylvania.

And Upset of the Week: BOSTON UNIVERSITY OVER WEST VIRI-GINA.

HOW ABOUT A QUICKY HOT POT — COFFEE IN 21 MINUTES

Yes, this AS Electric Aluminum Hot Pot will boil 4 cups of water in 21 minutes. Hot water in minutes for instant coffee or tea, or hot soups, canned foods, baby bottle. Greatest thing to have around the house, for coffee, espresso, or hot water. Easy to clean, unbreakable enameled surfaces with drip proof spout. Comes equipped with lid.

Retail $2.95

Our price only $1.95

For Business College or Social Occasion
we have your every need —
Assorted colors and sizes.

MILLIARD

$1.95

Our prices too will please you.

O'NEILL MOTORS INC.
NEW AND USED CARS

463 Washington St.
Across from Star Market

CE 5-6000

Bermorrs
Own Wellesley National Bank
Management Terminology
-Short Course

With a new group of freshmen now attending classes, we can soon expect to have a rash of reports with the administration of professors as they tell their classes to learn the language of business. As a service to those students and to the upperclassmen who can give freshmen classes, we offer a short glossary of management terms and meanings. It is hoped that these lists will be studied diligently by all who read it so that the campus can be filled with more completely educated individuals.

WRITTEN
Means
A searching analysis reveals...A spot check of incomplete reports.
A survey is being made...We need more time to think up an answer.
Act at your discretion...Go ahead, stick your neck out.
All phases of the former administration will remain in effect...I haven’t read them yet but I will change them them at the earliest opportunity.
Authority is delegated...If this thing works, I’ll take the credit.
Expediting...In shot-handed conditions with commotion.
For planning purposes, the following assumption is made...You are required to prepare firm and intelligent plans on the basis of assumed conditions which will all be changed prior to the execution of your plan.
Functional control...I’ve told him what to do and he tells you where to go.
Growing body of opinion...My secretary and I agree.
In due course...Never.
It is the policy of the company...There is no reason for it.
It is suggested...You’re lucky I don’t have the power to demand.
Let’s get together on this...I assume you’re as confused as I am.
None and final...Let’s spread responsibility for this.
Opinion widely held...My secretary, the janitor and I agree.
Pending results of a survey are now in progress...We are trying to hire a man to make the survey.
Present indications are...One wild guess is as good as another.
Program...Any assignment that can’t be completed by one phone call by the office boy.
Project...Any assignment that can’t be completed by the office boy’s assistant.
Remake...Drabging out of an inaccessible place, labeling it and filling it in an equally inaccessible place.
Returned for reconsideration...Did you think you could pull this off with us?
See me and let’s discuss...Come down to my office, I’m loose on.
Under active consideration...I will have a shot at the files and see if we can find it.

"Be Thou Swell"!

By Larry Frohman

Be a dreamer, all and well.
Be a dreamer, be thou swell.

For life’s like that, give and take dream right now, but when you wake
You’ll find you’re right from whence you start
Without any but the dream at heart.

So, if you’re stung and criticized
All and so, be victimized
But were not all great done so.
They did not heed this, don’t you know
And if they say, they know not where
You get your thoughts and do not care
If one that cares, perhaps then two.
And more will care, as years go through.

But must you work and struggle some
This you must, but when the sun
Comes out each day, there’s chance anew.
For you, your dreams, perception, too.

For all men once, were not but boys
And chance all equal should they toyed
And those who tried, they told the tale
Those who tried, yes, they did well
But some who cared for trouble not
And they who sat to watch the shop.
Those they failed.

So the moral it’s hoped to leave with you
It is just to try, and try your whole life through
And when the day has come to end
You will have won, and deep within Satisfaction you’ll have and reign you will
For in your heart, you’ll know challenge still
And all will be as very well
Happiness, for be thou swell.

These are the people
Though they live like ragged bumblebees
Their souls not hidden by the general cloak of worth
Their curious know not of properness.
Theirs partake of many moods.
Their stances speak of an unpardonable lore.
Their thresholds have no doors.

Alan Rodas

"GEE SHWARTZ is fat!"

"FROM MOUNTAINS to Inland Sea..."

Civil Service Exams

Men interested in positions under the jurisdiction of the U. S. Civil Service Commission should know that the following examination schedule has been set up:

Nov. 1 application deadline for Nov. 17 examination; Dec. 20 application deadline for Jan. 13 examination; Jan. 24 application deadline for Feb. 18 examination; Feb. 26 application deadline for Mar. 15 examination; Apr. 4 application deadline for May 11 examination; Apr. 26 application deadline for May 11 examination.

FRANKLIN N. WOOD

Optician

27 CENTRAL STREET

WELLESLEY

OPPOSITE FILENE’S

WE 5-5264

MARTINO’S

Barber Shop

5 Barbers

540 Washington St., CE 5-1371

Student Discounts

WELLESLEY NEWS

AGENCY

Wellesley Square

A Full Line of

Paperback Books

Magazines

Boston and New York

Newspapers

Tobacco

Cigarettes — Cigars
MOVIES, THEATRES, DINING

THRASHING ABOUT
C. B. THRASHER

The coming fall and winter season will afford the movie goer a chance to see the usual whale of spectacle pictures that have been in the news this past year. Among the new shows that are coming are Cleopatra, with Brian and Dorothy, and Star of the West, with the Reverend and the第十. It has been the object of this writer to point in the pest to give the handsome student some ideas about just what is the best film to be seen at the movies this fall. Because the film is dull, and the director is the most important person in the film world, the writer may get the most for his dollar.

The idea of this write, however, is to mention the restaurant situation near school so that the students desiring a good meal will find it easy to locate the better places. There is just a few of the very good restaurants in the nearby areas.

1) (Romani's Italian Food) This quality and very popular restaurant located in nearly 7 Roomsmith offers a wide selection of good Italian food and a fine array of choice steaks. The prices are definitely high, but the food is good and varied as are the prices, but the food is probably the best of the week. The main menu of this restaurant is very extensive. This restaurant is open every Friday, Sunday, and Monday. The restaurant is located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street.

2) The Stove - This is another excellent restaurant located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street. The restaurant is a good place to eat. The food is good and varied and the prices are very reasonable. The restaurant is open every day of the week, including Saturday and Sunday.

3) The Stove - This is also another excellent restaurant located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street. The restaurant is a good place to eat. The food is good and varied and the prices are very reasonable. The restaurant is open every day of the week, including Saturday and Sunday.

4) The Stove - This is also another excellent restaurant located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street. The restaurant is a good place to eat. The food is good and varied and the prices are very reasonable. The restaurant is open every day of the week, including Saturday and Sunday.

5) The Stove - This is also another excellent restaurant located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street. The restaurant is a good place to eat. The food is good and varied and the prices are very reasonable. The restaurant is open every day of the week, including Saturday and Sunday.

6) The Stove - This is also another excellent restaurant located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street. The restaurant is a good place to eat. The food is good and varied and the prices are very reasonable. The restaurant is open every day of the week, including Saturday and Sunday.

7) The Stove - This is also another excellent restaurant located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street. The restaurant is a good place to eat. The food is good and varied and the prices are very reasonable. The restaurant is open every day of the week, including Saturday and Sunday.

8) The Stove - This is also another excellent restaurant located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street. The restaurant is a good place to eat. The food is good and varied and the prices are very reasonable. The restaurant is open every day of the week, including Saturday and Sunday.

9) The Stove - This is also another excellent restaurant located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street. The restaurant is a good place to eat. The food is good and varied and the prices are very reasonable. The restaurant is open every day of the week, including Saturday and Sunday.

10) The Stove - This is also another excellent restaurant located on the corner of 7th and 8th Street. The restaurant is a good place to eat. The food is good and varied and the prices are very reasonable. The restaurant is open every day of the week, including Saturday and Sunday.

UHURU, the East African word for 'freedom' and the title of Prof. Barnabas Kee's novel (Mo-Graw-Hill) is biography of Kenya, with Brian and Dorothy, who are white settlers, as one of the chief characters. At sixteen, Dermott's youth and love of animals kept him out of the war and cut him in a post with the game department. His disillusionment begins here when he is ordered to shoot game animals for prison camp food. When old enough he quit to join the army, preferring to shoot men. After the war he started a safari business. He married the girl next door and moved to his Aunt Charlotte's farm, where he planned to work in between safaris. The Mau Mau 'emergency' explained his plans, killing his uncle, burning his sister, and sending his bride, terror stricken, to England. Out of the Mau Mau prison camps rose the future heads of the African free government. These were men who had tortured, terrorized and murdered. In prison their bitterness grew to hatred of the white settlers and the black Home Guard. When released they formed several different political groups, each with its own idea of Uhuru. To some it meant retaliation; to others it meant a new government. Among the most prominent of these groups were the Kenya National Union, the Kenya African Union, and the Kenya African Democratic Union. The first is the most important. The Kenya African Union is the second most important. The Kenya African Democratic Union is the third most important.

Stephen Ndegwa, originally cynical, and finally ruined by a sincere effort to help his people, now has time to reflect on his hopes for a multiracial African. Ironically, his first step toward this goal is in helping a white settler, Brian Dermott.

Everything that happens in Uhuru has happened, is happening, or will happen. The book does not moralize or seek a solution, and he spares the reader nothing.

FEARLESS A. Flue of hanging Peter Poole to show the world they are improving the plight of the African Poole.

This week's film viewing choices

 Bird Man of Alcatraz starring Burt Lancaster, Carl Malden, and Edmond O'Brien. This is the story of a real man, a young man, the Board of Trade player by Burt Lancaster. Strong's life of imprisonment in Alcatraz has lasted 53 years and is still going strong, as the topic of the film. How the one man became the greatest authority on birds in the world with little more than just the barest of toasts to work with and a prison cell to work in. The film is brilliantly brought into view by Lancaster. A warm and true story. The movie leaves one asking questions about right and wrong and then system.

* Pressure Point, starring Sidney Poitier and Bobby Darin. This is the story of a German-American friend, and a jailer. His imprisonment during the war. It is a psychotic thriller starring Sidney Poitier and his deep and probing study of a psychopath, Bobby Darin. The film is well acted by both the leads. The movie is a realistic tick-tack-toe game played on the bed of a woman, a nurse.

Looking

The proper story of the phony book. — Henry Winkelmans

This week's film viewing choices

* Bird Man of Alcatraz starring Burt Lancaster, Carl Malden, and Edmond O'Brien. This is the story of a real man, a young man, the Board of Trade player by Burt Lancaster. Strong's life of imprisonment in Alcatraz has lasted 53 years and is still going strong, as the topic of the film. How the one man became the greatest authority on birds in the world with little more than just the barest of tools to work with and a prison cell to work in. The film is brilliantly brought into view by Lancaster. A warm and true story. The movie leaves one asking questions about right and then system.

* Pressure Point, starring Sidney Poitier and Bobby Darin. This is the story of a German-American friend, and a jailer. His imprisonment during the war. It is a psychotic thriller starring Sidney Poitier and his deep and probing study of a psychopath, Bobby Darin. The film is well acted by both the leads. The movie is a realistic tick-tack-toe game played on the bed of a woman, a nurse.

Does that sound like a come-on? It is.

It's an invitation to come on and join the many who are already richer because they read The New York Times regularly. You'll be richer, too, because The New York Times is richer in the news and information it supplies you about government, politics, science, economics, business, industry. As well as sports, fashion, music, the theater, all the arts. You'll find your conversation richer, your understanding deeper, your chances brighter to achieve the goals you set for yourself. Delivery of The New York Times — at special college rates. See your campus representative today.

SUNSHINE DAIRY
For Everything Good

SANDWICHES
COFFEE
FRAPPES
ICE-CREAM

Why You Meet Your Friends
Open 7 A.M. to 11:30 P.M.
Scholarships Under Fulbright-Hays Act

U.S. Government scholarships for graduate study or research abroad are available for the 1963-64 academic year, under the Fulbright-Hays Act. The grants, administered by the Institute of International Education, provide round-trip transportation, tuition and maintenance for one academic year in any one of 45 countries throughout the world. In addition, Travel-Only grants, which supplement a scholarship awarded by a foreign university, government or private donor, are available to any one of seven participating countries. General eligibility requirements are: U.S. citizenship, a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in professional training, language ability commensurate with the demands of the proposed study project, and good health. Preference is given to applicants under 35 years of age. See office of dean of students for details.

The Hook Talks

The king of the forest brushed back his curly mane and let forth a mighty roar. At the other end of the forest the industrious beavers and squirrels huddled together full of terror. Their leader, Roger Rat, addressed the frightened group. "Confronted!" he said in a snarly voice, "we must face the facts. The king of the forest is definitely anti-animal." All the animals nodded in silent agreement. Then one of them, Hunny Punny, got up to speak. "Roger," he said, "I was walking through this great forest of ours this morning when I saw a little girl wearing a red hood and carrying a basket under her arm. She was strolling by the edge of the path crying, 'What's wrong, little girl with the red hood?'" I said, she looked up at me and said, "Roger, I just raised the price of chickens' eggs and my basket isn't full as it normally is. Grandma won't think she got the other chickens because I've been on a medical diet." So I told her to blow her nose and get to talk to any strange wolves and that I would talk to Roger about it.

Henry Penny sat down and once again Roger Rat addressed the group, this time in a hushed voice. "Gentlemen, the King of the Forest is becoming too popular and powerful and we must teach him a lesson." All wisely agreed and the meeting was adjourned.

The next day the King of the Forest announced that the rise in the price of chickens' eggs had been canceled, that he was not in the animal interest. After hearing this Chicken Little ran around in circles screaming that the sky would fall down. Granville Goose, an amate sky watcher, laughed off Chicken Little's warning saying that the sky had been high for a long time now and should it show signs of falling sky supports would be set up to keep all the animals a high sky sitting.

Eric and Charlie, the two bumbling bears who lived up on the Hill (and were so often right) were criticized by the King for their attacks upon the forest policy. They argued that they should stop using borrowed logs to build stronger and safer huts. That uncles we used our own logs we would become lazy and lose all our self reliance and initiative. They further warned that if we kept using logs at the rate we were losing them we would soon become builders and the big bad wolf would huff and puff and blow us all to hell and then bury our forest.

The King answered this by pointing out that the big bad wolf would not risk an assault attack from such nervous huffing and puffing if he knew our houses were strong. He inquired more seriously of any necessary un borrowers logs. After hearing the King say this, all the animals that lived in the birch tree called the King a communist.

ED NOTE: Life really isn't too bad in a birch tree. However, those darn woodsmen who place so much faith in conservation, aroothing our foundations.

The Brothers
Of
Alpha Kappa Psi
Fraternity
Cordially Invite
The Student Body
To The Annual
PHOENICIAN BALL
on
OCTOBER 6,
1962
At The
Parker House
Roof
$3 Per Couple
DANCING
8-12
To GUY STEVENS

haskell
the Schaefar bear

Scholarships Under Fulbright-Hays Act

U.S. Government scholarships for graduate study or research abroad are available for the 1963-64 academic year, under the Fulbright-Hays Act. The grants, administered by the Institute of International Education, provide round-trip transportation, tuition and maintenance for one academic year in any one of 45 countries throughout the world. In addition, Travel-Only grants, which supplement a scholarship awarded by a foreign university, government or private donor, are available to any one of seven participating countries. General eligibility requirements are: U.S. citizenship, a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in professional training, language ability commensurate with the demands of the proposed study project, and good health. Preference is given to applicants under 35 years of age. See office of dean of students for details.

The Hook Talks

The king of the forest brushed back his curly mane and let forth a mighty roar. At the other end of the forest the industrious beavers and squirrels huddled together full of terror. Their leader, Roger Rat, addressed the frightened group. "Confronted!" he said in a snarly voice, "we must face the facts. The king of the forest is definitely anti-animal." All the animals nodded in silent agreement. Then one of them, Hunny Punny, got up to speak. "Roger," he said, "I was walking through this great forest of ours this morning when I saw a little girl wearing a red hood and carrying a basket under her arm. She was strolling by the edge of the path crying, 'What's wrong, little girl with the red hood?'" I said, she looked up at me and said, "Roger, I just raised the price of chickens' eggs and my basket isn't full as it normally is. Grandma won't think she got the other chickens because I've been on a medical diet." So I told her to blow her nose and get to talk to any strange wolves and that I would talk to Roger about it.

Henry Penny sat down and once again Roger Rat addressed the group, this time in a hushed voice. "Gentlemen, the King of the Forest is becoming too popular and powerful and we must teach him a lesson." All wisely agreed and the meeting was adjourned.

The next day the King of the Forest announced that the rise in the price of chickens' eggs had been canceled, that he was not in the animal interest. After hearing this Chicken Little ran around in circles screaming that the sky would fall down. Granville Goose, an amate sky watcher, laughed off Chicken Little's warning saying that the sky had been high for a long time now and should it show signs of falling sky supports would be set up to keep all the animals a high sky sitting.

Eric and Charlie, the two bumbling bears who lived up on the Hill (and were so often right) were criticized by the King for their attacks upon the forest policy. They argued that they should stop using borrowed logs to build stronger and safer huts. That uncles we used our own logs we would become lazy and lose all our self reliance and initiative. They further warned that if we kept using logs at the rate we were losing them we would soon become builders and the big bad wolf would huff and puff and blow us all to hell and then bury our forest.

The King answered this by pointing out that the big bad wolf would not risk an assault attack from such nervous huffing and puffing if he knew our houses were strong. He inquired more seriously of any necessary un borrowers logs. After hearing the King say this, all the animals that lived in the birch tree called the King a communist.

ED NOTE: Life really isn't too bad in a birch tree. However, those darn woodsmen who place so much faith in conservation, aroothing our foundations.

The Brothers
Of
Alpha Kappa Psi
Fraternity
Cordially Invite
The Student Body
To The Annual
PHOENICIAN BALL
on
OCTOBER 6,
1962
At The
Parker House
Roof
$3 Per Couple
DANCING
8-12
To GUY STEVENS

haskell
the Schaefar bear

Scholarships Under Fulbright-Hays Act

U.S. Government scholarships for graduate study or research abroad are available for the 1963-64 academic year, under the Fulbright-Hays Act. The grants, administered by the Institute of International Education, provide round-trip transportation, tuition and maintenance for one academic year in any one of 45 countries throughout the world. In addition, Travel-Only grants, which supplement a scholarship awarded by a foreign university, government or private donor, are available to any one of seven participating countries. General eligibility requirements are: U.S. citizenship, a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in professional training, language ability commensurate with the demands of the proposed study project, and good health. Preference is given to applicants under 35 years of age. See office of dean of students for details.

The Hook Talks

The king of the forest brushed back his curly mane and let forth a mighty roar. At the other end of the forest the industrious beavers and squirrels huddled together full of terror. Their leader, Roger Rat, addressed the frightened group. "Confronted!" he said in a snarly voice, "we must face the facts. The king of the forest is definitely anti-animal." All the animals nodded in silent agreement. Then one of them, Hunny Punny, got up to speak. "Roger," he said, "I was walking through this great forest of ours this morning when I saw a little girl wearing a red hood and carrying a basket under her arm. She was strolling by the edge of the path crying, 'What's wrong, little girl with the red hood?'" I said, she looked up at me and said, "Roger, I just raised the price of chickens' eggs and my basket isn't full as it normally is. Grandma won't think she got the other chickens because I've been on a medical diet." So I told her to blow her nose and get to talk to any strange wolves and that I would talk to Roger about it.

Henry Penny sat down and once again Roger Rat addressed the group, this time in a hushed voice. "Gentlemen, the King of the Forest is becoming too popular and powerful and we must teach him a lesson." All wisely agreed and the meeting was adjourned.

The next day the King of the Forest announced that the rise in the price of chickens' eggs had been canceled, that he was not in the animal interest. After hearing this Chicken Little ran around in circles screaming that the sky would fall down. Granville Goose, an amate sky watcher, laughed off Chicken Little's warning saying that the sky had been high for a long time now and should it show signs of falling sky supports would be set up to keep all the animals a high sky sitting.

Eric and Charlie, the two bumbling bears who lived up on the Hill (and were so often right) were criticized by the King for their attacks upon the forest policy. They argued that they should stop using borrowed logs to build stronger and safer huts. That uncles we used our own logs we would become lazy and lose all our self reliance and initiative. They further warned that if we kept using logs at the rate we were losing them we would soon become builders and the big bad wolf would huff and puff and blow us all to hell and then bury our forest.

The King answered this by pointing out that the big bad wolf would not risk an assault attack from such nervous huffing and puffing if he knew our houses were strong. He inquired more seriously of any necessary un borrowers logs. After hearing the King say this, all the animals that lived in the birch tree called the King a communist.

ED NOTE: Life really isn't too bad in a birch tree. However, those darn woodsmen who place so much faith in conservation, aroothing our foundations.

The Brothers
Of
Alpha Kappa Psi
Fraternity
Cordially Invite
The Student Body
To The Annual
PHOENICIAN BALL
on
OCTOBER 6,
1962
At The
Parker House
Roof
$3 Per Couple
DANCING
8-12
To GUY STEVENS

haskell
the Schaefar bear

Scholarships Under Fulbright-Hays Act

U.S. Government scholarships for graduate study or research abroad are available for the 1963-64 academic year, under the Fulbright-Hays Act. The grants, administered by the Institute of International Education, provide round-trip transportation, tuition and maintenance for one academic year in any one of 45 countries throughout the world. In addition, Travel-Only grants, which supplement a scholarship awarded by a foreign university, government or private donor, are available to any one of seven participating countries. General eligibility requirements are: U.S. citizenship, a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in professional training, language ability commensurate with the demands of the proposed study project, and good health. Preference is given to applicants under 35 years of age. See office of dean of students for details.