

SPLASH PARTY TO FOLLOW BATES GAME

The Bates College basketball team will play the Beavers of Babson Institute in a game scheduled for eight P.M. Saturday. This game is considered by many sports fans as "the big one" for Babson.

Bates has previously beaten such teams as the University of Massachusetts five, generally considered a good New England College team.

Immediately following the game, a "Splash Party" will be held in Millea Pool. The Pool will be open for two hours after the contest for the use of all Babson students and their dates. The splash party is being run under the auspices of the B Club.

ADS Adopts Orphan

The brothers of Alpha Delta Sigma Fraternity have adopted the Korean orphan pictured above. His name is Hyang Nam, son of a North Korean farmer killed during the Korean conflict. Hyang's mother was killed by a fever which overran the refugee camp in Kunsan where the fatherless family was staying.

The fraternity men learned of Hyang's situation through the Foster Parents Plan, a service designed to help foreign orphans find benefactors in the United States.

The little fourth grader writes to the brothers frequently and they in turn send gift packages and letters to him.

TO HOLD COLLEGE PHOTO CONTEST

The State University College of Education at New Paltz, New York, is sponsoring the third Intercollegiate Photographic Competition, it was announced this week by Mr. A. E. Woolley, Associate Professor of Photography, director of the competition.

By winning last year's contest, the College at New Paltz also won the honor of being host for the 1960 competition.

According to Mr. Woolley, plans for the event are complete and the panel of judges is one of the "finest ever assembled for collegiate competition." The judges include: W. Eugene Smith, who is regarded by many as the world's greatest photographer; Bruce Downes, editor-in-chief of Popular Photography magazine; and Grace Mayer, Assistant to Edward Steichen of the Museum of Modern Art.

Additional information may be obtained by writing to Mr. A. E. Woolley, Associate Professor of Photography, State University College of Education, New Paltz, New York. The closing date for entries is March 15.

NEW SUMMER JOB GUIDE AVAILABLE

The 1960 annual SUMMER PLACEMENT DIRECTORY, a listing of actual summer jobs, projects, and awards is now available.

This unique DIRECTORY, completely revised each year, is particularly prepared for teachers, professors, librarians, and college students.

This year's DIRECTORY offers many special student training programs and openings of a permanent nature in hundreds of firms such as Chemstrand Corporation, Addressograph-Multigraph Corporation, Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co., and the Ingersoll-Rand Co.

Study projects, camp positions, jobs and apprenticeships with summer and music theatres, and work at resorts and dude ranches are some of the other offers made to students and educators. Many branches of the U.S. Government throughout the country have also requested their openings to be included.

— EDITORIALS —

There seems to have been a rebirth of athletic activity on this campus. Within the past few weeks the pages of this newspaper and the bulletins of the Athletic Department have announced the formation of several new sports clubs or teams. Babson Institute now has a Badminton Team, coached by one of the area's finest badminton players, Dave Sime. Gary Parks has formed a Swimming Team which has already met the Harvard University Freshmen in competition. A Lacrosse Club is now being formed with the hope that enough enthusiasm will be shown to warrant its acceptance as a team sport at this institution.

There has been considerable discussion of establishing a Wrestling Club, a Weightlifting Club, and a Squash Club. Use of the gymnasium and Millen Pool facilities have increased considerably over past years and spectators at intramural and inter-collegiate contests are much more numerous than ever in the past.

The tremendous change in the spirit, ability, and desire of the Babson Institute Basketball Team over teams of past years is making this basketball season the most exciting in the history of Babson Institute.

What caused this awakening of the sporting spirit in Babson Men? The answer lies in a combination of planning, faith, and hard work on the part of many people. Director of Athletics Tom Smith brought to this campus a refreshing spirit and an awesome capacity for work and for getting things done. His assistant, Harvey Feldman, has been most active in the operation of the gymnasium and the athletic program. While Tom Smith has been hospitalized, Harvey has been carrying on the operation of the athletic plant and program by himself in a most commendable manner. Intramural athletics under the direction of Sam Telerico are getting more participation active and spectator, than in past years.

The knowledge that this awakening is taking place has made members of the administration most happy. Every person in the administrative offices is most anxious to see active sports participation on the campus. At every turn, backers of sports teams or clubs have met with the cooperation and approval of school officials. The lack of athletic activity has long been a sore point on this campus. It was with an eye to changing the former apathetic attitude of students that Millea Pool was built and more recently, renovated and enlarged. The building of our new gymnasium, one of New England's best, was done with the same intent. A full time Athletic Director was appointed this year for the first time to implement a more comprehensive sports program.

At the present time it appears that the administration, the Athletic Department, and the students are all impressed and most happy with the results to date. There is no one on the campus however, who does not look for increased interest and continued participation in the future.

As long as the students maintain their interest, the administration has promised to lend every aid possible to further increase student extracurricular activities.

It is this newspaper's urgent hope that the student body justify the faith placed in them and continue to utilize every convenience placed at their disposal.

LACROSSE CLUB FORMED ON CAMPUS

The ever expanding athletic program at Babson has another sport to offer to the students of this school. Plan are being devised for the formulation of a Babson Institute Lacrosse Club, or a varsity team if the spirit and number of students participating warrants such a team.

It is hoped by students that enough interest will be shown so that we can have a lacrosse team, for it is definitely a sport which will lead to enthusiastic crowds and present the school with "Saturday Afternoon" spirit.

There is the possibility that after lacrosse can be completely established, a Babson Institute football team will be nearer conception.

FOREIGN SCHOOLS

SUMMER COURSES

Four British and two Austrian summer schools are offering American students the opportunity to combine 1960 vacation travel abroad with six weeks of liberal arts study this July and August. Application for study at all six summer schools are now being accepted by the Institute of International Education.

BRITISH SCHOOLS

Under the British University Summer Schools program, students can apply for study at one of four schools, each concentrating on a particular subject and period. At Stratford-upon-Avon the subject will be Elizabethan drama; at the University of London the course will be the study of English literature, art and music of the 17th and 18th centuries using materials preserved in London's buildings, galleries and records; at Oxford the subject will be English history, literature and the arts from 1870 to the present. The theme of the Edinburgh School will be the political and economic history, philosophy and literature of Britain from 1559 to 1789. Although the courses are designed for graduate students, undergraduates in their last two years at a university will be considered.

The Summer School fees, including full room, board and tuition, range between £87-£90 (approximately $245-254). A few scholarships which partially cover university fees of well-qualified undergraduate students and a few full scholarships to graduate students are available.

AUSTRIAN SCHOOLS

Both Austrian summer schools include in their programs the opportunity to attend performances at Salzburg's famed music festival. The Salzburg Summer School, sponsored by the Austro-American Society, emphasizes German language study, but courses in art and music and on foreign policy

ON THE STREET

By C. R. SHEPPARD

As reported last week, Sangamo Electric was sold in the supervised account last week and it was replaced by Collins Radio. This might lead one to think that too much of the portfolio's emphasis is on electronic issues. After all, this group is represented in the portfolio by the Philco convertibles, Burroughs, Collins Radio and Sperry Rand. This emphasis is deliberate I can assure you.

Earning's forecasts of companies in the electronics field are very optimistic. General David Sarnoff, chairman of RCA, recently forecast a 15% gain in sales for the industry for 1960. A more than 15% gain in earnings is likely if General Sarnoff's forecast has any validity. Thus, what I have tried to do is to pick the companies most likely to benefit from increased sales plus superior technology.

One important industry which has reported solid earnings improvement in 1959 and which is likely to continue this favorable trend, the fire and casualty insurance companies, are not represented in the portfolio. Something will be done about their lack of representation in the near future. Continental Insurance, Maryland Casualty and United States Fidelity and Guaranty are all under this writer's scrutiny.

Banks too are slated for substantial increases in net in 1960 because of their lending of money at high rates while only paying their depositors slightly more than they were getting previous to high money rates. Also on the credit side of the ledger; many banks have automated their bookkeeping, thus keeping costs in abeyance. My favorites in this field are the County Trust of White Plains and the Franklin National of Long Island, both dynamic, growing banks. Franklin, incidently, is coming out with some excellent rights.

Forecasts for the economy as a whole are quite bullish and I for one am quite content to row with the tide. However the gravy train may slow down after June or July when inventories have been restored to normal proportions. Until then smooth sailing is expected.

The supervised account now looks like this:

The fee for the entire program is $190, with an optional three-day trip to Vienna costing $25. Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 40 and must have completed at least one year of college work. A few full scholarships are available.

VIENNA

The University of Vienna, offering summer courses at its St. Wolfgang Campus near Salzburg, combines study with outdoor life at a mountain lake. Its aim is to enable English-speaking students to become acquainted with Austrian educational and social values. Courses being offered include German language, law and political science, education, arts and history. Students who have competed at least two years of college are eligible to apply for either a three or six-week program. The fee for the full six-week program, including tuition, maintenance, tours and excursions, and attendance at the Salzburg Festival is, $250 with an optional four-day trip to Vienna costing $30. A few scholarships covering partial or full fees are available to six-week students.

Applications for both the British and Austrian programs may be obtained from the Information and Counseling Division, the Institute of International Education, British Summer School scholarship applications must be received before March 1, 1960, and admission applications before March 31. Scholarship applications for Austrian schools must be returned by March 1, and admission applications by May 1.

MERMEEN MEET HARVARD FROSH

By M. RUBIN

On Saturday, January 16, the newly formed Babson swimming team met the Harvard freshmen at Harvard. This was the first meet for the Babson team, and although they lacked experience and personnel, they fought gamely.

The meet started with a 50 yard freestyle in which Klotsche took second place. In the 100 yard butterfly Fernandez placed second. The next event was the 200 yard freestyle in which Jones came in third. In the 100 yard backstroke Lighthill took second place. Then came the 100 yard freestyle in which Heap grabbed second place. In the 100 yard breast stroke, Neavaro took third place. In the diving competition we gained only one point. This was due to the lack of divers available. In the final race of the day Fernandez took first place in the 200 yard individual medley.

At the present time the team consists of Speed, Rosen, Lighthill, Fernandez, Neavaro, Jones, Carr, Heap, Gorden and Klotsche. The coach of the team is Gary Parks.

The high scorer of the meet for Babson was Fernandez who had 8 points. The final score of the meet was 46-18.

MORE MEN NEEDED

Parks feels that with more practice and an enlarged staff the squad can turn into a well rounded team. At the present time there is a lack of personnel. There is still time to get out and join the team, with openings for divers and all major strokes.

Even if you do not have any swimming ability you are encouraged to come to the meets and watch. So let's get out and support the team!!!

INTRAMURALS WARS BEGIN AGAIN

The 1959-60 intramural contests started again with the action moving to basketball courts. Park Manor athletics slipped deeper into its dismal pit when it was forced to forfeit its first game to Bryant due to lack of men.

PMN WINS

Park Manor North beat a determined Off-Campus team 42 to 31. It was a seesaw game which saw H. Benjamin score 19 points followed by B. Bernstein with 10 to lead the "Northerners" to their victory.

The Off-Campus team was speared ahead through the efforts of N. Driscoll and T. Tiberii who had 13 and 10 points respectively.

J.V.'S TAKE ONE OF THREE

By NEIL B. LANDE

Babson's J. V. hoopsters faced The Cambridge School of Business Jan. 11 and after a hard fought contest ended up on top 49-47. John Paine and Tom Smith starred on the backboards for Babson and Dave Hunnewell and Dave Lerner lead the scoring for the home team with 21 and 10 points respectfully. Maxwell and Bovitz were Cambridge's big guns but this wasn't enough to turn back the locals.

With the Boston Celtics announcer Johnny Most coaching them, the visitors led most of the game and were ahead with three minutes to play. Babson put on a last minute surge, and a display of spirit and hustle that should help them to have a good season this year.

BABSON EDGED

Two day later Emerson College played host and set back Babson 59-58.

After trailing Babson all game Emerson tied it up with 9 seconds to play. A foul shot gave the home team the one point they needed to come out winning. Babson's Dave Lerner led the scoring with 17 while Dave Hunnewell was right behind with 14.

NICHOLS VICTOR

Last Saturday a tired, worn out crew faced Nichols and put on a poor exhibition. Only half the team showed up for the game and it certainly put a black mark on Babson's record. To add to the confusion, our coach didn't arrive either. We certainly hope a better interest is taken in the future by both players and coach.

Judging from the games thus far this season, the JV hoopsters should turn in some good performances.

A breakdown of the scoring reads as follows:

Hunnewell	13	9	35
Lerner	12	7	31
Payne	9	1	19
Smith	6	6	18
Boyce	4	5	13
Biggestone	3	5	11

BISONS BEAT

BEAVERS 69-54

Saturday afternoon saw the Babson five go down to defeat at the hands of the Bisons from Nichols College, 69-54.

At halftime the visiting fans from Babson Park had hopes for an upset victory as the Babson quintet held Nichols to 30 points while netting 28 themselves. The hustle and drive of the Beavers during this half caught the Bisons by surprise and undoubtedly threw off their shooting.

The spark and drive of the first half fell off though, as the second half progressed. Babson's defense weakened, a few disputed fouls upset the team, and slowness getting down court seemed to be the deciding factors in netting 39 points for Nichols as opposed to only 26 for Babson.

POLHEMUS HIGH MAN

Ken Polheums took the scoring honors with 18 points; 10 to these from the free throw line. The Babson squad again kept its high free throw average, hitting for an impressive .714.

Stan Briggs takes a foul shot against Nichols

— From The Sidelines —

By PETE BUCHANAN

Up in the Mt. Sunapee area the visitor observed with much delight the black specks far up the mountain side. Twisting this way and that, making their way from the top, the most enthusiastic patrons of winter sports enjoyed the snow covered trails. Skiers tore down the slope spraying fine powder into the cold air. The sun shone from a cold clear sky making the snow like so many millions of tiny diamonds. The lodges bulged with coffee-gulping skiers, while the fires crackled and roared, toasting frozen feet and hands.

There is a lot of fun to be had in this colorful and thrilling form of winter recreation. Even the most timid spectator finds pleasure in skiing if only by watching from far below. It is hard to find the magical sphere which enchants those involved in racing down steep hills only to return to the top to start again. And why spectators like to watch is just a mystery. Nevertheless everyone has fun.

There is a lot to be gained from skiing — colds, broken bones, pulled muscles, and sprained ankles. The equipment is not cheap, and the lessons reflect the inflationary trend. Even when proficient on the two waxed boards, tow costs and the prices paid for lodging make one think that the money market has lost its customers. But most of all, everyone has fun.

A seven year old flew down a moderate but impressive trail, executed a fine snow-plowing stop, and came to rest inches away from an interested by-stander. "You seem to have been skiing quite some time, son," the by-stander said.

"Bout all my life," quipped the seven year old.

"How long is that?," questioned the by-stander.

"Three winters," the seven year old replied as he grabbed the "T" bar and moved up the slope. Another two or three runs and spills later the by-stander once again questioned the very young man.

"Do you fall often?," he asked in a gentle manner.

"Well, sometimes," the skier said, hesitating somewhat.

"Doesn't it hurt?," inquired the by-stander.

"Naw," he replied, latched on to the tow and up he went.

And so it goes for those delighting in skiing. Up and down the mountain all day long and just plain up and down. Some, or possibly most, become so fanatical that threats of frost-bite or pneumonia become needless worries of the timid. They have fun.

The by-stander stood meditating. The Boston Hospitals have plenty of plaster of paris and excellent ambulance service, he thought. He entered a ski shop, signed up for lessons, and bought equipment.

SEMINARS — from P. 1 with records supplied by the Seminar. He goes through intensive, accelerated language instruction in the first weeks in Scandinavia. Language learning continues in two family stays of three or four weeks each, which are alternated with "short courses" of one week each. The student gains a good command of the language which enables him, after three months in the country, to study side by side with his Scandinavian classmates in one of the famous folkehøjskole.

At the folkehøjskole, the Seminar student takes courses in the humanities and social sciences, lives with a Scandinavian roommate, and participates in the life of the school. He also carries out an independent study project in his field of special interest. Scandinavian history, physical education, the co-operative movement, art and design, religious movements, Scandinavian literature, and folklore, are among the fields which have been explored in this way in the past.

The cost of this year of foreign study is comparable to that of a year in an American college. A limited number of scholarship loans is awarded each year to qualified students.

At the recent Conference on Educational Travel, Dean Harlan Cleveland of the Maxwell Graduate School of Citizenship and Public Affairs of Syracuse University, New York, endorsed programs abroad when he said, "It should be a live option for every student at a reputable American college to study abroad for at least one semester under competent supervision and conditions that immerse him in an alien culture."

Information on the seminar is available at the Globe-News office.
