He was followed by Bob Bennett with 16. Stan Briggs with 20 points. Basketball team 72-56 at Peavey.

a classification of who may study and where applications may be for graduate study in Economics.

Applications for the scholarship may be obtained at the office of the Dean of Students.

Previous winners have been Richard F. Uhlmann, president of the Uhlmann Grain Company, and is administered cooperatively by the Chicago Board of Trade and its Educational Advisory Committee.

For Economists

The Chicago City Board of Trade has announced the opening of competition for the 1,500 dollar Uhlmann Fellowship for graduate study in Economics leading to a Master’s degree. The award is offered by Richard F. Uhlmann, president of the Uhlmann Grain Company, and is administered cooperatively by the Chicago Board of Trade and its Educational Advisory Committee.

Applications for the scholarship will be obtained at the office of the Dean of Students.

Previous winners have been Richard F. Uhlmann, president of the Uhlmann Grain Company, and is administered cooperatively by the Chicago Board of Trade and its Educational Advisory Committee.

For Economists

The United Nations Scientific Educational and Cultural Organization has announced the completion of the 1960 issue of "Study Ahead". This annual volume lists 10,000 opportunities for fellowships and scholarships offered by governments, universities, foundations, and other institutions, for study in foreign countries.

Also included in this volume is a special section on the United States, which identifies what subjects and where, the amount of each award, and how and where applications may be made.

Interested students may contact the Office of Student Services, 801 Third Avenue, New York 22, New York.

BEAVERS BEAT BEDFORD 72-56

The Battling Beavers beat an experienced Red Lion Air Bear basketball team 72-56 at Peavy Gymnasium Monday night.

Leading scorer for the Beavers was Stan Briggs with 20 points. He was followed by Bob Bennett with 16.

GILLETTE EXEC TO SPEAK AT KNIGHT

Ronald G. Johnson, Merchandising Manager in charge of packaging and display for the Gillette Safety Razor Company, will address some 200 marketing students on February 8 at 1:10 P.M. in the Knight Audition Room.

Johnson will speak on the methods used for introducing a new product to the public.

After graduating from the Vesper George School of Art in Boston, Johnson worked for several years as an art director and copy writer for Boston newspapers and the Red Seal Drug Company.

In 1948 he joined the Flower-Stone Company as Assistant Advertising Manager and then moved up to the post of Merchandising Manager until 1954 when he joined the Gillette Safety Razor Co.

Johnson started with Gillette as Wholesale Sales Promotion Manager and was promoted to his present position of Merchandising Manager in 1955.

MARCH OF DUMES

SHOW AT MILLEA

Robert C. Finer, Framingham M.D. ’s own show chairman, has arranged for an exciting and colorful ice skating, swimming and water ballet exhibition to be held at Mills Pool, Wellesley, on January 31.

All proceeds will benefit the Framingham March of Dimes as part of the National Foundation’s drive for funds to fight the crippling effects of birth defects, arthritis and polio.

Mr. Finer states that prominent sports figures will be featured as part of the program, including a possible astronomical meet. The program will begin promptly at 9:00 P.M. at the Pool. Tickets are available at Martin’s Paint & Wallpaper Store, Howard St., Framingham, or from Robert C. Finer, 18 Bunney Road, Framingham.

Those wishing to use the pool facilities may do so before taking in the show. Because of pool regulations, only adults will be admitted.

LEADS CAST

Male leads in the production are Sky Masterman, played by Frank Wintch; and Nadia Detroit portrayed by Ed Hall. Playing opposite these men are Margie McFay, a Wellesley College Bumper, as Sarah; and Donnie Work, another second year Wellesley student, as Addie.

This year, as last, the play is under the direction of Dr. French Mrs. French has often directed amateur productions and has set in several plays presented throughout the Boston area by various well known groups.

REVIEW STORY

For the benefit of those who might not be too familiar with "Guys and Dolls", perhaps a little background information is in order. It is a musical comedy based on story and characters by the late Damon Runyon; the music is by Frank Loesser and the book by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows.

We believe the uppehrenmen that attended last year will support us on the fact that the play last year was one of the outstanding features of the entire Winter Carnival.

SHOW OF THE MONTH SPECIAL

The Shaw of the Month Club has made available to Babson students special discount rates for tickets to the club's production of "Macy Stuart". The drama opens at the Colonial Theatre in Boston on February 22 and will run through March 12.

Friedrich Schiller's depiction of the war between Queen Elizabeth of England and Mary, Queen of Scots, has Eva LeGallienne as Queen Bass and Signe Hasso as Mary.

A 20% discount from box office prices for second balcony seats will be given to student groups of twenty five or more. There will be six matinees during the engagement: Feb. 25, March 3, 10, (Thursdays) and Feb. 27, March 5, 12 (Saturdays).

Winter Carnival Preview

About this time every year everyone around campus is wondering how Winter Carnival will compare with the great successes of past years. It is the purpose of this column to bring you a series of reports on the progress of the various events.

This week, we have wandered over to Knight Auditorium to see the hustle and bustle of what is soon to be a smooth performance of "Guys and Dolls"; performed by the Babson Institute Theatre Guild. This year’s Theatre Guild presentation is a combined effort of the guys here at Babson and the dolls from Wellesley, Pins Manor and Lasell.

LEADS CAST

Male leads in the production are Guy Masterman, played by Frank Wintch; and Nadia Detroit portrayed by Ed Hall. Playing opposite these men are Margie McFay, a Wellesley College Bumper, as Sarah; and Donnie Work, another second year Wellesley student, as Addie.

This year, as last, the play is under the direction of Dr. French Mrs. French has often directed amateur productions and has set in several plays presented throughout the Boston area by various well known groups.

REVIEW STORY

For the benefit of those who might not be too familiar with "Guys and Dolls", perhaps a little background information is in order. It is a musical comedy based on story and characters by the late Damon Runyon; the music is by Frank Loesser and the book by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows. It made an excellent showing on Broadway for over three and a half years.

To those of you who could not make last year’s performance of the "Boyfriend", let us suggest that this year you make a definite attempt to see "Guys and Dolls". The members of the "Theatre Guild" are to be commended on the long hours of practice they have already spent and the even longer hours that will be spent in making the show perfect.

We believe the upperhrenmen that attended last year will support us on the fact that the play last year was one of the outstanding features of the entire Winter Carnival.
in most fields of human activity, to make its appearance. The "Young Turks" referred to in the message are those young men who were so instrumental in changing the ways of the Turkish nation and in bringing modern western ideas and practices to Turkey. They also foresaw the future and stirred their homeland to such depths that the effects of this great movement have reason to worry."

Where are the "Young Turks"?

Where is that traditional young American who takes the Boy Wanted sign out of the window and says to the boss, "You're too late"? You know the kind I mean. The bell-ringer, Up with the sun, Last to leave, Hungry from the start, Late to rise. Get to know the territory, Up of the creek, Hunt for the move, Watch-my-duty. We've had our电信 fellow of the trade-build boys. Where is that enterprising youth who's willing to stick his destiny in the hands of fate and make decisions? "He only has to be right 51% of the time to be a success," says Frank Batten. America needs more Young Turks. (And more Old Turks who know how to recognize the Young Ones.) The kind of man who parachutes into darkest Africa, and opens a chain of supermarkets in every city?

WEEKEND SOCIAL CALENDAR

The Jona Logan production, "There Was a Little Girl", adapted from Christopher Isherwood's novel, opened last Monday at the Colonial Theater. From the London Playhouse pre­

Whereas the "Young Turks" accepted the challenge of the future and stirred their homeland to such depths that the effects of that great movement have reason to worry.

Where is that traditional young American who takes the Boy Wanted sign out of the window and says to the boss, "You're too late"? You know the kind I mean. The bell-ringer, Up with the sun, Last to leave, Hungry from the start, Late to rise. Get to know the territory, Up of the creek, Hunt for the move, Watch-my-duty. We've had our电信 fellow of the trade-build boys. Where is that enterprising youth who's willing to stick his destiny in the hands of fate and make decisions? "He only has to be right 51% of the time to be a success," says Frank Batten. America needs more Young Turks. (And more Old Turks who know how to recognize the Young Ones.) The kind of man who parachutes into darkest Africa, and opens a chain of supermarkets in every city?

WEEKEND SOCIAL CALENDAR

The Jona Logan production, "There Was a Little Girl", adapted from Christopher Isherwood's novel, opened last Monday at the Colonial Theater. From the London Playhouse pre­

Whereas the "Young Turks" accepted the challenge of the future and stirred their homeland to such depths that the effects of that great movement have reason to worry.

Where is that traditional young American who takes the Boy Wanted sign out of the window and says to the boss, "You're too late"? You know the kind I mean. The bell-ringer, Up with the sun, Last to leave, Hungry from the start, Late to rise. Get to know the territory, Up of the creek, Hunt for the move, Watch-my-duty. We've had our电信 fellow of the trade-build boys. Where is that enterprising youth who's willing to stick his destiny in the hands of fate and make decisions? "He only has to be right 51% of the time to be a success," says Frank Batten. America needs more Young Turks. (And more Old Turks who know how to recognize the Young Ones.) The kind of man who parachutes into darkest Africa, and opens a chain of supermarkets in every city?

WEEKEND SOCIAL CALENDAR

The Jona Logan production, "There Was a Little Girl", adapted from Christopher Isherwood's novel, opened last Monday at the Colonial Theater. From the London Playhouse pre­

Whereas the "Young Turks" accepted the challenge of the future and stirred their homeland to such depths that the effects of that great movement have reason to worry.

Where is that traditional young American who takes the Boy Wanted sign out of the window and says to the boss, "You're too late"? You know the kind I mean. The bell-ringer, Up with the sun, Last to leave, Hungry from the start, Late to rise. Get to know the territory, Up of the creek, Hunt for the move, Watch-my-duty. We've had our电信 fellow of the trade-build boys. Where is that enterprising youth who's willing to stick his destiny in the hands of fate and make decisions? "He only has to be right 51% of the time to be a success," says Frank Batten. America needs more Young Turks. (And more Old Turks who know how to recognize the Young Ones.) The kind of man who parachutes into darkest Africa, and opens a chain of supermarkets in every city?

WEEKEND SOCIAL CALENDAR

The Jona Logan production, "There Was a Little Girl", adapted from Christopher Isherwood's novel, opened last Monday at the Colonial Theater. From the London Playhouse pre­

Whereas the "Young Turks" accepted the challenge of the future and stirred their homeland to such depths that the effects of that great movement have reason to worry.

Where is that traditional young American who takes the Boy Wanted sign out of the window and says to the boss, "You're too late"? You know the kind I mean. The bell-ringer, Up with the sun, Last to leave, Hungry from the start, Late to rise. Get to know the territory, Up of the creek, Hunt for the move, Watch-my-duty. We've had our电信 fellow of the trade-build boys. Where is that enterprising youth who's willing to stick his destiny in the hands of fate and make decisions? "He only has to be right 51% of the time to be a success," says Frank Batten. America needs more Young Turks. (And more Old Turks who know how to recognize the Young Ones.) The kind of man who parachutes into darkest Africa, and opens a chain of supermarkets in every city?

WEEKEND SOCIAL CALENDAR

The Jona Logan production, "There Was a Little Girl", adapted from Christopher Isherwood's novel, opened last Monday at the Colonial Theater. From the London Playhouse pre­

Whereas the "Young Turks" accepted the challenge of the future and stirred their homeland to such depths that the effects of that great movement have reason to worry.

Where is that traditional young American who takes the Boy Wanted sign out of the window and says to the boss, "You're too late"? You know the kind I mean. The bell-ringer, Up with the sun, Last to leave, Hungry from the start, Late to rise. Get to know the territory, Up of the creek, Hunt for the move, Watch-my-duty. We've had our电信 fellow of the trade-build boys. Where is that enterprising youth who's willing to stick his destiny in the hands of fate and make decisions? "He only has to be right 51% of the time to be a success," says Frank Batten. America needs more Young Turks. (And more Old Turks who know how to recognize the Young Ones.) The kind of man who parachutes into darkest Africa, and opens a chain of supermarkets in every city?

WEEKEND SOCIAL CALENDAR

The Jona Logan production, "There Was a Little Girl", adapted from Christopher Isherwood's novel, opened last Monday at the Colonial Theater. From the London Playhouse pre­

Whereas the "Young Turks" accepted the challenge of the future and stirred their homeland to such depths that the effects of that great movement have reason to worry.

Where is that traditional young American who takes the Boy Wanted sign out of the window and says to the boss, "You're too late"? You know the kind I mean. The bell-ringer, Up with the sun, Last to leave, Hungry from the start, Late to rise. Get to know the territory, Up of the creek, Hunt for the move, Watch-my-duty. We've had our电信 fellow of the trade-build boys. Where is that enterprising youth who's willing to stick his destiny in the hands of fate and make decisions? "He only has to be right 51% of the time to be a success," says Frank Batten. America needs more Young Turks. (And more Old Turks who know how to recognize the Young Ones.) The kind of man who parachutes into darkest Africa, and opens a chain of supermarkets in every city?

WEEKEND SOCIAL CALENDAR

The Jona Logan production, "There Was a Little Girl", adapted from Christopher Isherwood's novel, opened last Monday at the Colonial Theater. From the London Playhouse pre­

Whereas the "Young Turks" accepted the challenge of the future and stirred their homeland to such depths that the effects of that great movement have reason to worry.

Where is that traditional young American who takes the Boy Wanted sign out of the window and says to the boss, "You're too late"? You know the kind I mean. The bell-ringer, Up with the sun, Last to leave, Hungry from the start, Late to rise. Get to know the territory, Up of the creek, Hunt for the move, Watch-my-duty. We've had our电信 fellow of the trade-build boys. Where is that enterprising youth who's willing to stick his destiny in the hands of fate and make decisions? "He only has to be right 51% of the time to be a success," says Frank Batten. America needs more Young Turks. (And more Old Turks who know how to recognize the Young Ones.) The kind of man who parachutes into darkest Africa, and opens a chain of supermarkets in every city?
BEAVERS DAMMED

Last Saturday, a spirited but outclassed Babson quintet met defeat at the hands of Bates, one of the top New England basketball clubs. Bates took the lead in the first quarter and never relinquished it.

F 1ST CONTROLS BOARD
The Beavers were outshone by a much taller and smoother-workin’ five. “Spook” Sutherland dominated both boards, enabling Bates to score on the fast break. When the fast break wasn’t used a baby of jump-shots kept the Babson squad in tow.

Babson’s high spots were Bennett’s battle with Sutherland unproduced. Babson’s poor team vitalization of Babson’s poor team play and numerous fouls which spelled final defeat for the Babson five.

POLHEMUS SCORES 19
High scorer for the night was Polhemus of St. Francis with 20 points. Close behind was Babson’s Ken Polhemus with 10 points.

LAKEBRIDGE
The game was hard fought, but the final whistle found the Babson men ahead by a score of 81-60. The high scorer in the game was Francis to one point, 31-32. During the second half Babson’s defense was not as effective as its first half performance due to a lack of team play. The final minutes of play saw a further capitalization of Babson’s poor team play and numerous fouls which spelled final defeat for the Babson five.

LACROSSE CLUB
At the first lacrosse meeting, January 20, several points were scored for Off-Campus on their belt. Babson will have to wait until they have a 6ft. 7 in. player before they move into this class of ball. It must be reminded that there was a team to meet Bates and that there will be a team for the rest of the season. A good team and certainly one which fights.

BIRDIES TRY OUT WINGS

Babson’s first badminton team made its premier performance on January 30th at the University Club of Sargent College. Of the 174 entrants participating in the men’s singles, Babson’s Dave Sime was the man to beat. Yod-Jin Uahwatanasakul, and Babson Rainers, earned the respect of the spectators.

THE FOUl FouL
The game previous to the Bates one was against St. Francis, and was blown away on the foul line. Eighteen foul shots were missed, many in the one and one situation. The five points which St. Francis won by could easily have been made up on the foul line. The sideouts with Baby marks definitely improved in scoring from the heretofore foul foul line. This was the brightest spot in the loss.

Babson went back to Maine with another victory tuckered under their belt. Babson will have to wait until they have a bonanza. 7 in. player before they move into this class of ball. It must be reminded that there was a team to meet Bates and that there will be a team for the rest of the season. A good team and certainly one which fights.

COACH SIME ENTERS CONNECT. OPEN
At the close of the match grad student-coach Dave Sime stated that though “most of the players new to the game this season, the Bachelor team did an outstanding job against top competition. They should be a strong contender in the New England intercollegiates to be held at Babson the last weekend in February.” Coach Sime will be representing the Connecticut Open Badminton Tournament to be held in New Haven this weekend. Babson’s trophies come from Canada, USA, and several foreign nations will comprise the competition for this international tournament. Last year Dave was seeded 6th in the 1st round competition.
SAVE!

JIM GOOKIN'S MOBIL

Great Plain Ave.
South Entrance

FOOD THAT'S DELICIOUS SERVICE THAT'S PLEASANT On Campus At THE SNACK BAR
Ticket books may be charged to your Bookstore account

Get your Winklite free (value $17.95) with the purchase of a Model 80A Polaroid camera

Bubert's Photo Supply
543 Washington St.
Wellesley

COMMUNITY PLAYHOUSE
Mats Wed & Sat at 2
Even. at 7:45
Now Showing Enda Sat., Jan 30 GREGORY PECK and DEBORAH KERR in
"LOVED INFIDEL" "Rhapsody of Steel"
Sun., Mon., Tues., Jan 31, Feb 1-2 PETER PALMER and LESLIE PARRISH in
"LIL ANNIE" "MIRACLE OF THE HILLS"
Wed., Thurs., Fri. Sat.
February 5-6-7
JAMES MacARTHUR and MICHAEL RENNIE in
"THIRD MAN ON THE MOUNTAIN"
Clad Walker, Edward Byrnes in
"YELLOWSTONE KELLEY"

ROBERT'S SHELL SERVICE
987 Worcester St.
Wellesley
Route 9
Tires — Batteries —
Motor Tune-up Repairs
CEDAR 7-9200

WELLESLEY FLORIST
Flowers for all occasions
40 Central Street
Wellesley

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

BODY BUILDERS

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from four to five o'clock Peavey gymnasium becomes a bustling and bustling place for the muscular men of the school. The cause of this activity is the newly formed weight lifting class. The group is made up of twelve to twenty five students. An average workout lasts from one half hour to one and a half hours depending on the individual's advancement.

WARM-UP PERIOD

The workout is usually preceded by a warmup period enblying five minutes of pushups, sit-ups, running on the treadmill, and use of the puller weights.

The actual weightlifting follows the warmup period. The exercises practiced are: military presses, bench presses, curls, bent arm laterals, lateral pullups (often called rowing), squats, toe raising, and strups on an inclined plane. When doing the exercises the approved and recommended method is performing sets of eight. A set of eight consists of doing all the exercises eight times. During the first month of lifting, one set is attempted. Another set is added to the workout in each of the next two months. After the third month it is suggested that new exercises be developed that are more difficult and take more time. This method prevents any one part of the body from becoming over-developed.

ADVANTAGES

Some of the results and advantages to weightlifting are increased energy, a larger appetite, better sleep, better physical appearance, and an improved state of mind.

One of the many false rumors connected with weight lifting is that the lifter becomes muscle bound if he does too much or becomes very "flabby" if he stops lifting. This is not true if a prescribed program is followed. Once a desired state of fitness is reached a person may stop lifting weights with very little worry becoming "flabby" as long as normal exercise is maintained. There is an instructor at the gym every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday to render with anyone interested in joining the group.

Any student wishing to build up all, or part, of his body will be given a prescribed program.

SUNSHINE DAIRY
For Everything Good

SANDWICHES COFFEE FRAPPEs ICE-CREaM
"Where You Meet Your Friends"
OPEN 9 A.M. — 11:30 P.M.

COMPLETE-SERVICE BANK
Students and Faculty of Babson Institute have the advantage of quick service, convenient access to four convenient offices

Wellesley Square Wellesley Hills
Wellesley Hills Lower Falls

When you stop at the Wellesley National Bank we are not limited to any one service. We have all BANKING services.

WELLESLEY NATIONAL BANK
CE 5-3000
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

BRING IT IN THE MORNING WEAR IT IN THE EVENING
(No Extra Charge)

COOLIDGE CLEANSERS

Shirt Launderers — Dry Cleaners

Wellesley Hills
Wellesley Square
308 Washington St. 549 Washington St.

"We do have them narrower if you'd like your buttons showing on either side of the tie."

It's the season for

BABSON JACKETS
BABSON SCARFS
MITTENS AND BEANIES

The BABSON BOOKSTORE
Hollister Building

JOE & SON BARBER SHOP
545 WASHINGTON ST.
WELLESLEY, MASS.
Tel. CEDAR 5-9738
If We Please You — Tell Others
If We Don't — Tell Us