PRESIDENT HINKLEY WELCOMES NEWSPEPER

Mr. Hinkley welcomed the Babson Globe News today in the presence of Mr. Frank Rodenberg, Editor of the Babson Globe News, who was happy by the paper's progress and in turn gave his full support to the paper. It is planned that Babson Globe News will be published in each issue of Babson Institute's. The full text of his letter follows:

I am happy to welcome the students in the first student newspaper of Babson Institute. I believe it will be a real need among faculty and students.

In the first place, such a newspaper can make the students, the faculty, and the administration mutually better acquainted. From such an instrument will grow that understanding essential to the solving of our common problems.
Last week the Beaver quintet were the victors in two of their scheduled three games. In the first game of the week the Warriors from Merrimack had a little too much height as they edged the Babson five to a thrill-packed 66-60 defeat.

MERRIMACK'S HEIGHT Merrimack's height plus their fast downcourt play proved to be too menacing for a fighting Babson squad. Halftime found the Warriors out in front by a wide margin, but as the second half progressed the Beavers came within three points of victory. The clincher came when Babson missed two free attempts due to a technical foul. Polhemus put in two free throws in the final seconds of play but it was not enough to close the gap.

POLHEMUS AND BENNETT EXCEL

Standout for Babson were Polhemus with 22 points and the rough-housing of Ben Bennett.

BABBON 73, LOWELL TECH 58

The Beavers evened up their play for the week by defeating a game squad from the tertiary town of Lowell, Mass., 75-58.

Babson's last play was too opposed for the court as they not only outscored the Enemies from the free throw line, The Beavers then converted on 25 of these attempts for an impressive 85.2% of the free throw line.

BRIGGS SCORES 58

Stan Briggs put in a sensational performance as he doubled his season average by scoring an impressive 58 points. Ken Polhemus also put in many solid points over his half season average as he snapped up 19 points.

The game was too weak to stop the taller, hard-driving offense of the Babson's; Top gun soon shifted the boys to a non-man to non-man defense which Nickels was not able to stop enough for the remainder of the game.

Offensively, there was no stopping the Beavers; time after time Bill Lennie put on a man on a man defense which drew out the Nickels defense away from the foul lines and out to mid-court, leaving the center open for the hard-driving layups of Mike DeMakia and Ken Polhemus.

WAHINDAM 73, BABBON 64

Whole the Babson Beaver, Dave Lerner, wasn't impressing the fans with his fancy shooting, Stan Briggs was once again the man in charge. Briggs and Polhemus were the two stars that managed to force 15 points out of the Wahindam defense to score the high scoring honors.

BILL LUNNIE

Bill Lunnie put on a one man show of ball-handling which drew out the Nickels defense away from the foul lines and out to mid-court, leaving the center open for the hard-driving layups of Mike DeMakia and Ken Polhemus.

PETE BUCZMANN

The evening meal before the basketball game started in much the same manner as it usually does. The meal line gave no hint of the activity to follow a few hours later. At the hour hand approached six, the basketball manager entered the dining hall with five girls in tow.

This began the series of unusual events for this night. Perhaps it was the Babson Invitational Tournament, and in a game at Nicholas, Babson went down to defeat. keyed up to the maximum commitment, Babson would accept nothing short of victory. The first half of the game was too weak to stop the taller, hard-driving offense of the Babson's; Top gun soon shifted the boys to a non-man to non-man defense which Nickels was not able to stop enough for the remainder of the game.

In the men's singles Bill Good­man defeated Dave Lumsden 6-2, 6-1, in the other single matches Don Lommel and Harvey Winchester of Maugus defeated Eliot Conn­or and Dick Kates respectively.

In the doubles we faced no bet­ter opponent.

THE TELPIX is indeed proud to give you a glimpse of the film "Grand Illusion," made in 1937, which is playing to capacity audiences on two continents today. Starring the late Eino Von Stromberg, and Jean Gabin, the great anti-war picture has defied all the changes which have occurred in the more than two decades which have passed since its premiere engagement. Made on the eve of World War II, the picture was banned in Germany and Italy, and was subsequently cut and edited by the Germans during their occupation of France. However, a second complete negative was discovered years later, and this complete version was chosen as one of the six best films of all time at 1958 Brussels Film Festival.

劾ville Shute's bestseller, On the Beach, premiered last Wednesday at the RKO Keith Memorial, and has been made into a re-markably absorbing film, which depicts the aftermath of a nuclear war, and the passionate convictions among the few sole survivors left on earth. Leading roles are brilliantly played by a fine cast: Gregory Peck, Ava Gardner, Anthony Perkins and Fred Astaire (in his first serious role.)

COKE AND BRASSY
The Chordettes, who rose to stardom on Godfrey's Talent Show, will appear this week at Wilbur's. Pearl Bailey, who needs no introduction, will be at the same club the following week.

SPORTS
In basketball, the Boston Celtics vs. Philadelphia, on Saturday at 7:30 P.M. In hockey, the Boston Bruins will play against the Canadians on Saturday at 2:00 P.M. and on Sunday their opponents will be the New York Rangers. Pine Manor Junior College will have a dance this Saturday, Feb. 13th.
