2-1-2010

Research at Babson - 02/2010

Babson Faculty Research Fund

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalknowledge.babson.edu/bfrfnews

Recommended Citation
http://digitalknowledge.babson.edu/bfrfnews/6

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Babson Faculty Research Fund at Digital Knowledge at Babson. It has been accepted for inclusion in BFRF and BoR Newsletters by an authorized administrator of Digital Knowledge at Babson. For more information, please contact digitalknowledge@babson.edu.
Upcoming Research Chats
Noon to 1:15 PM – Needham Room, Olin Hall

Tuesday, March 23
Marjorie Feld, History and Society, “American Jews and the Struggle Over Apartheid: Global Justice and the Activist Tradition in American Jewish Life”

Wednesday, March 31
Danna Greenberg, Management, “What to expect when she’s expecting: Work-life and identity integration challenges and opportunities of “soon-to-be” working professional mothers”

Faculty News
Yunwei Gai, Economics, presented a paper at this year’s American Economic Association meeting in Atlanta. “Survival and Financing of Black Owned Start-ups in the U.S.” was supported by the BFRF.
Mary Gentile, Lewis Initiative, has two new publications to her credit. Harvard Business Review will publish her article "Keeping Your Colleagues Honest" in March, 2010. In August, Yale University Press will publish her book, "Giving Voice To Values: Preparing Business Leaders Not Only To Know What is Right...But How To Make It Happen."
Finance professor, Gang Hu’s paper “Costly Arbitrage and Idiosyncratic Risk: Evidence from Short Sellers,” has been accepted for publication in the Journal of Financial Intermediation.
CRC Press has published Enterprise Sustainability: Enhancing the Military’s Ability to Perform its Mission written by Dennis Mathaisel, Mathematics and Science, and co-authors Joel Manary and Clare Comm. “Military supply chains are unique because what is supplied to the end user is routinely returned to the supply chain for maintenance, repair, and overhaul (MRO). Offering a blueprint for transforming military depot workload and processes into those of high-performance commercial facilities, Enterprise Sustainability: Enhancing the Military’s Ability to Perform its Mission provides a powerful system of concepts and tools for enhancing the ability of the military to perform MRO on its weapon systems.”

More faculty news on page 2
More Faculty News

“Investing in Troubled Times – Entrepreneurs are Your Safest Bet,” by Joel Shulman, Entrepreneurship, was published in the fall 2009 issue of The Investment Professional.

Bulletin of the French Society of Egyptology has published an article by Janice Yellin, Arts and Humanities. “The Transition between the Late Napatan and the Meroitic Periods based on research in the Southern Royal Cemetery at Meroe” is based on a paper she gave, as one of the two Egyptologists invited to present at the plenary session of the Annual Meeting of the French Society of Egyptology in Paris, 2008. The paper presents some of the results that will be published in Necropolises of Kush I. Meroe. The Southern Royal Cemetery, the first of the volumes to be produced by the Royal Pyramids of Kush project, has benefited from the support of the BFRF.

Funds Still Available

BFRF has funds for mini-grants.
CWL has funds for stipends and mini-grants.
The Center for Women’s Leadership is eager to support projects that help all of us better understand women in the workplace, women in society, globally and the myriad challenges and opportunities for women as students and at all stages of their career development. These awards are available to our male and female colleagues and across all disciplines.

GGP had funds for stipends and mini-grants.
The Glavin Center is interested in supporting research that fits its mission to raise Babson’s reputation for international and global management. Research should be aimed at the international management community.

Details on application forms and proposal guidelines may be found on the BFRF website.
If you have any questions, contact Susan Chern (x5339).

Library E-Resources

Boston Business Journal & Other City Business Papers
Right from the Library’s home page you can now access the image version of the Boston Business Journal as well as other city business papers from across the nation, such as the Atlanta Business Chronicle, Baltimore Business Journal, San Francisco Business Times, and many others.

Explore the Higher Education Marketplace via Eduventures
The President’s Office has negotiated a one-year trial membership for this new e-resource now available to the Babson community. Eduventures is the industry leader in research and consulting for higher education institutions. They facilitate the exchange of best practices among members and conduct actionable research and analysis on shared challenges. For more information about Eduventures, see the Library’s database guide.

A New Look for Lexis-Nexis Academic Makes Searching and Finding Easy
Search the News, Get Company Info, Research Countries, Research People, Look up a Legal Case, and Combined Search are menu-driven search boxes that make it easy to pinpoint what you’re looking for. Give it a try – here’s a link to our database guide.

Socrates Gets a Face Lift
KLD Global Socrates monitors corporate social responsibility for 3000 publicly-traded US and international companies. With a new look, this resource is easy to search and comparing companies is made easy. Socrates examines companies’ performance in the areas of human rights, ethics, employee safety, climate change, community involvement, governance, diversity, etc. Check it out! Not Just Periodicals….
EBSCO’s Business Source Complete and ProQuest’s ABI/Inform and Entrepreneurship databases have a lot more than article content. Find company profiles, industry studies, country analyses, case studies, working papers, dissertations, business videos, and more. For help with finding this content, please reach out to the research librarians by emailing research@babson.edu.

RGE Monitor relaunched as Roubini Global Economics
This source provides relevant insights on a broad range of global economic and political developments, including global macroeconomics, emerging and developed markets, geostrategic and long-term issues, finance, banking, and world markets. Access Roubini via the Library’s database guide.

Back to Top