EDITOR’S NOTE

The school year is finally over. Many events that we would like to commit to memory have occurred in the past nine months—events that have given us moments of pleasure and happiness. This gives the Babsonian an opportunity to share in these fleeting moments of joy and satisfaction that have taken place throughout the year. We have tried to make the 1971 Babsonian as meaningful as possible to the whole Babson community. We are “telling it like it is;” in other words, this is our school, this is what happened, and this is the way we would like to remember it.

Special thanks are due to the Babsonian staff and those outside of the staff who have given us a lot of assistance. Only the close cooperation of all concerned has made this annual possible.

And last but not least, on behalf of everyone associated with the Babsonian, I would like to wish this year’s graduating class the very best of luck. Hopefully, in the future, this book will bring back the pleasant memories of your student days at Babson.

Editor-in-Chief
DEDICATION

RICHARD J. NUGENT, JR.
COLLEGE PHOTOGRAPHER OF THE YEAR
"He looks down into his soul, then out at the world and twists what he sees through the lenses of a camera so that you and I will see it better."

from "Bluegrass and Bourbon"

by Jack Falla
This Prism of a Place

Here it was, then,
This prism called
Higher learning.

The whole thing a kind of
Alternate curriculum—
Reality all refracted,

Evasive, or evaded
In a frenzy
Of highs and lows . . .

(Where are the lows of yesteryear . . . ?)

See, there, how the light
From this prism
Curls out

And embraces the universe.
Inexorable,
It dances back to the eye of the beholder,

Who must not hope to see
The world as though
This prism of a place had never been.

We're still making collector's items.

We listen better. And because we do, we've come up with one classic after another. And we've been "first" time and time again.

With cars like the Model T. America's first mass-produced car. So good, it went virtually unchanged for 19 years.

Like the '39 Lincoln Continental. A whole new concept in luxury cars that inspired today's Continental Mark III. Like the '55 Thunderbird. America's first luxury 2-seater.

Like Mustang. The first low-price sporty car.
Like Maverick. America's first modern compact. Now in 2- and 4-door body styles.

And now, Pinto. The small car—with an import price. Once again, the American public expressed a need, we listened, and we did something about it.

And that's what better cars are made of.
Come to think of it, that's what collector's items are made of, too.

EDITORIAL POINTS

We can no longer afford to be just blacks and whites. We must all be Americans first, last, and always.

The American Dream is disappearing as rapidly as clean air and water.

Democrats and Republicans are not really different—donkeys and elephants both have their respective asses.

When your luck is down, keep your courage up. The tide always turns. (But watch out for floods!)

Truth lies somewhere between the Pentagon and CBS.

A sudden frost can turn a May grad into a December grad.
