The Babson Players would like to dedicate our production to Mark Carver. Mark has embodied the spirit of the Babson Players since his arrival at Babson in 1980. Throughout his undergraduate years, Mark participated in many productions such as "Once Upon a Mattress", "Hello Dolly", and "Mash". As an alumnus, Mark has continued to offer the Babson Players support. Mark has recently left his job in Alumni Hall. We will miss you Mark, but hope that you will retain a small piece of the Player spirit wherever you go.
NO CURTAIN. A small budget. A great lecture hall but not a great theatrical stage. No wings for prop storage. The list goes on.... These are but few of the obstacles that the Babson Players face performance after performance, semester after semester, year after year. Why, you then ask, should we bother with the hours of rehearsal, the bruises from missing the nail and hitting the thumb while constructing sets, the unrecognized work that goes on behind the scenes?

Each member of the cast and crew has their own reason; a laugh from the crowd, audience applause, seeing their name in the program; and yes, the cast party. However, interwoven in all these reasons is one common bond--belonging to a hard-working, extremely dedicated group that strives to achieve a single purpose. A sense of unity is created, and from this unity excellence is bred.
