Dedication

The Babson Players would like to dedicate their fall production of "Rumors" to two individuals who never get the credit they deserve. They have helped with our successes, (and counseled us in our failures) over the years, and have never received much more than a "thank you." They advise us with the same desire and enthusiasm with which they approach their jobs. We would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank Jodi Raybuck and George Covino, and to dedicate our performances to them. Thanks, guys, for everything, and we hope to see you in the spring production!!

Our Message

No curtain. A small budget. A great lecture hall but not a great theatrical stage. No wings for prop storage. The list goes on... These are but a few of the obstacles that the Babson Players face performance after performance, semester after semester, year after year. Why, you then ask, should we bother with the hours of rehearsal, the bruises from missing the nail and hitting the thumb while constructing the sets, the unrecognized work that goes on behind the scenes?

Each member of the cast and crew has their own reason; a laugh from the crowd, applause, seeing their name in the program; and yes, the cast party. However, interwoven in all these reasons is one common bond - belonging to a hard-working, extremely dedicated group that strives to achieve a single purpose. A sense of unity is created, and from this unity excellence is bred.

Who's who in the Cast

Jon G. Michelson “Tex” (Lenny) : Jon is performing in his second production with the Babson Players. Last year he played Chandler Marlowe in “The Butler Did It”. He is a Senior majoring in finance and investments hailing from the state of Texas. He also hopes to continue with the Players next semester in the musical.

Kelli Tarantino (Claire) : This is the second performance for Kelli. Last spring she was involved with the “Bye Bye Birdie” production. Kelli is in her final year at Babson and hopes to pursue a career in finance/investments. A special good luck to Jon and Geri, I love you guys!

Teresa E. Kiritsy (Cookie/Producer) : This is Teresa’s fifth performance with the Players. You might remember her as Mama in “Bye Bye Birdie”. Teresa has finally declared a major of Entrepreneurial Studies, Marketing, and Communications but plans to pursue her singing career after she graduates in 1994. Teresa would like to thank her family and all of her friends for their love and support. Smile everyone - I hope you have fun!!

Kevin K. Imm (Glenn) : This is Kevin’s first performance with the Babson Players. He is a Freshman from Westchester County, New York. He attended Canterbury Prep. School for the past two years where he was involved with five theater productions including “Robin Hood” and “You Can’t Take it with You”. North 3rd floor, thanks for showing up.

John R. Hoadley (Ken Gorman) : John is a Senior from Chelsea, Mass. This is his fourth year with the Players and he is serving as President this year. Last year, he directed Tim Kelly’s “The Butler Did It” and his last stage role was Randolph, the 8 year old brother in “Bye Bye Birdie”.

Kate S. Korzendorfer (Assistant Director): Kate has been with the Players for three years now, and is known for Friday night's skirt performance of "The Butler Did It" last year. Being the Assistant Director to Ed has been a blast for her, but she admits how much she misses the stage. Kate would like to say "Thanks" to the cast for giving her a wonderful experience that she will never forget. Let's do it again in the spring for the last time!

Ed Monahan (Director): For my first directing experience I had a lot of help and support. Everyone in the cast was great. Thanks to my savior K.A.T.E., Grand Ma Ma for being a great housemate, Mom, Dad, and Kelly. And thanks to everyone in the program too numerous to mention.

John Hutchinson (Ernie): This is John's first performance with the Babson Players. Yes ladies and gentlemen I am a virgin to the strange and mystical ways of this group. So be gentle. I have been in a number of productions in high school, and really enjoy acting. Thanks for giving the Freshman a chance.

Dana Gouveia (Cassie): Dana is a Junior at Babson and is majoring in management and marketing. This is her third year with the Players. Her previous roles include defense attorney Stevens in "The Night of January 16th" and Charity Haze in "The Butler Did It".

David Pelletier (Officer Welch): This is Dave's first performance at Babson. As a matter of fact, this is his first time on stage EVER!! Dave is in his Junior year and hopes to graduate with a degree in Entrepreneurial Studies. Dave would like to thank his parents, Pietz 25, Carrie, and all his friends for their support.

Geri Biagi (Chris Gorman): Geri is a Senior and this is her second performance with the Players. You may have seen her last spring as Alice in "Bye Bye Birdie". She especially enjoyed her brief marriage to John Hoadley as Ken.
