IT Couldn’T BE DONE

By Edgar A. Guest

Somebody said that it couldn’t be done,
   But he with a chuckle replied
That “maybe it couldn’t,” but he would be one
   Who wouldn’t say so till he’d tried;
So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
   On his face, if he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
   That couldn’t be done, and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: “Oh, you’ll never do that;
   At least no one ever had done it”;
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,
   And the first thing we knew he’d begun it.
With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,
   Without any doubting or quiddit,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
   That couldn’t be done, and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,
   There are thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you, one by one,
   The dangers that wait to assail you.
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
   Just take off your coat and go to it;
Just start to sing as you tackle the thing
   That “cannot be done,” and you’ll do it.

REACHING FOR THE TOP
1992 proved to be another successful season for Babson's volleyball team as they posted an impressive 19-6 record. Establishing themselves as serious contenders in New England Division III play, Coach Paula DiSalvo and company anticipate another successful campaign in 1993.

With the success of last season as their motivation (beating M.I.T. and advancing to the second round of the NEW 8 Tournament — each a first in the history of the sport!), Babson will continue working toward their goal of winning the coveted NEW 8 trophy.
Posting a 2-6 record in last year’s campaign, Coach Brett Lown and the men’s tennis team anticipate a successful season for 1994. Losing only one player to graduation, the team is confident they can continue their success in the upcoming season.

First-year Coach Marybeth Crabtree is eager to establish Babson College as a competitive Division III women’s tennis program. Posting a disappointing 4-12 record last year, the team will look to the 1993 season for renewed enthusiasm and strength as they face the challenges of the year ahead.

1992-93 HONORS AND AWARDS

INDIVIDUAL:
Jordana Schneiderman '94, Honorable Mention All-American (Diving)

1992-93 proved to be successful for both the men's and women's swimming and diving programs at Babson College. Continuing to establish themselves as serious contenders in the region, Coach Rick Echlov and company look forward to the challenges of the year ahead.

Last year the men's team finished at 8-3 overall and 15th place in the New England.

Ending last season with a 7-7 record, the women's team finished the New England Championships in 12th place — the best in the history of the sport at Babson College!
Using last year's 3-12 season as their motivation, Coach Andrew Dutton and company are hoping 1994 will bring a renewed sense of enthusiasm and desire for Babson softball.

(CAC GAME)

1992 HONORS AND AWARDS

TEAM: Constitution Athletic Conference Champions
NCAA Tournament
Sampson Trophy Winners (Best Division III
Soccer Team in N.E.)

INDIVIDUAL: Jon Anderson, Coach, New England Division III Coach of the Year
Chris Connors '93, Second Team All-American, First Team All-New-England, CAC Team
Craig Porter '95, First Team All New-England, CAC Team
Kevin Sampson '94, Second Team All New-England, CAC Team
Mike Loudermilk '94, Second Team All New-England, CAC Team
Dan Deresh '94, Third Team All New-England, CAC Team

The 1992 men's soccer team ended its season as one of the top teams in the country, with an impressive 15-1-2 record. Despite a disappointing 1-1 quadruple overtime loss to Western Connecticut State University (3-2 loss in penalty kicks) in the NCAA Division III New England Championships, Babson was awarded the Sampson Trophy as the best Division III team in New England.
On the heels of an impressive 1991 season, Babson College's women's soccer team used the 1992 season to solidify their reputation as one of the strongest teams in New England. Sporting not only the New England Women's Eight Conference title, but also the top coach, player, and rookie in the conference, the team ended the season at 18-1-1 and competed in the ECAC Division III Tournament — a first for Babson in this sport!

Losing only one game last season (their final game against Bowdoin 3-0 in the quarterfinals of the ECAC Division III Tournament), the team recorded the best record in the history of the sport at Babson College.
Babson College men’s lacrosse team continued to make their mark in New England Division III play, as they finished the season ranked 7th in the region, missing an ECAC berth by one spot.

Returning a more seasoned and confident team (19 of 26 players were underclassmen in 1993), plus a solid group of freshmen, Coach John Stephans and company are extremely optimistic about the team’s chances in 1994.
Posting a disappointing 4-7 record last season, the Babson women's lacrosse team will look to 1994 to begin building a stronger program.

Hard work will be the key to Babson's success in the upcoming year. Playing in the demanding NEW 8 conference, the team will continue to focus its energies toward its goal of winning the coveted conference trophy.

1992-93 proved to be another impressive season for the Babson Beavers as they continued the school’s long tradition of excellence in Division III hockey. Appearing in their sixteenth ECAC Tournament and twelfth consecutive NCAA Tournament, Babson finished the year with a respectable 17-8-1 record.
The 1992 women's field hockey team ended its season with a respectable 8-8-1 record. Despite a disappointing first round loss to MIT in the New 8 tournament, a number of players received New 8 Conference individual honors.
Since Coach Scott Hutchinson arrived in 1987, Babson College's men's cross-country program has become one of the most competitive in New England. With an impressive 52-22 record last season, the harriers are anticipating a continued surge of success in 1993.

Improving upon a 9-35 season in 1991, last year's women's cross-country team posted a 15-30 record. Determined to bring credibility to the program, Coach Hutchinson and company will use the frustrations of past years as a motivational tool for the 1993 season.
Over the last few years, the women’s basketball program has continued to find success as one of the top teams in New England. Last year was no exception as Babson won their second NEW 8 Championship title, posted a 23-5 record, and competed in the NCAA Division III Tournament.

After advancing to the second round of last year’s NCAA Tournament, Coach Blinstrub and company have proved that they are the team to beat in 1993-94.

1992-93 HONORS AND AWARDS

- TEAM: Constitution Athletic Conference Champions
  - ECAC Tournament

- INDIVIDUAL: Matt Miller '93, All New England, ECAC All-Star, CAC Player of the Year
  - Erik Dellasanta '93, CAC Team
  - Steve Lahiff ’93, CAC Team
  - Scott Leip ’93, CAC Team

The 1992-93 men’s basketball team continued their successful run as they registered their third 20-win season in succession and participated in their fourth consecutive post-season tournament. The Beavers went undefeated for the third year in a row in the Constitution Athletic Conference and now own a lifetime 25-0 mark during regular season play.
Continuing to make their mark on Division III baseball, the 1993 Beavers posted a respectable 19-15 record last season and competed in their straight ECAC New England Championships. Establishing themselves as one of the top teams in the region, Babson will look to extend its success into 1994.

REACHING FOR THE Top
What a year for the Babson Players . . .

The Fall proved to be one of the most successful season that the Players have seen in a long time. With three very full showings of Neil Simon’s “Rumors”, the Players broke the previous Fall Show attendance records. Congratulations Guys, and Good Show.

And onto the Spring . . .
The Babson Player’s Rendition of the musical “Oklahoma” provided many people with hours of entertainment. After many long hours of tireless rehearsing, the show went up successfully to a full Parent Weekend crowd. Often, during the stresses of preparing and finally performing a show, many people ask why? Why do you all do it? In one word, Because . . .

It’s not for that brief moment in the spotlight,
or the rewarding sound of a laugh in the crowd.
It’s not for the make up and the hair do’s,
or the relief of thunderous applause.
It’s not for 3 AM rehearsing,
or the tears following the twentieth run.
It’s not for that extra pivot turn,
or the Second Soprano’s song.
It’s not for that extra Scorpion Bowl,
or the cherry stem in knots.
It’s for the friends that form from strangers,
and the promises made and kept.
It’s for that fleeting feeling of happiness,
and the pleasure from pleasing others.
It’s for the sorrow that it’s finally over,
but the fond memories that will last forever.
