

Religion and Business

By Roger W. Babson

Published by the Macmillan Publishing Company, New York, 1920

<http://babsc.iii.com/record=b1018886~S0>

This book proclaims religion to be the primary, most fundamental part of life, which should be of far greater importance in the lives of people worldwide. Further, Babson feels the need for a closer relationship between religion and business, citing the church as capable of creating greater unity through increased activity. Therefore, the primary focus of this book is on ways to strengthen the churches.

Babson College Archives copy: Purchased by the Babson College Library

Given to "Sir Issac Newton Library" 10/10/68

5 x 7 1/2", green cloth cover, 221 pp.

Archives

BR

115

E3

B3

1920