

Finding a Job

By Roger W. Babson

Published by Fleming H. Revell Publishing Company, New York, 1933

<http://babsc.iii.com/record=b1088694~S0>

Babson writes this book for both children and parents, advising them on the best way to secure a job that fits their individual abilities and needs. He applies business knowledge to raising children and teaches young people to market themselves to potential employers. In addition, Babson stresses the importance of both men and women serving as equal parts of the workforce, and he addresses the dangers of unemployment and debt.

Babson College Archives copy: Purchased by the Babson College Library in 1936, accession number 3474

Signed by Roger W. Babson

5 x 7 1/2", red cloth cover, 192 pp.

Archives

HF

5381

.B33

1933