ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The editors of FRONTIERS OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP RESEARCH wish to extend a very special thank you with deepest appreciation to our cosponsor, the Kelley School of Business, at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana, and the Johnson Center for Entrepreneurship & Innovation, for their contribution, support and entrepreneurial spirit to the 2006 Babson College Entrepreneurship Research Conference.

We wish to express a special thank you and gratitude to Donald F. Kuratko, The Jack M. Gill Chair of Entrepreneurship & Executive Director of Indiana University's Johnson Center for Entrepreneurship & Innovation, for his invaluable support, guidance, and his inspiration and energy as the Co-Director of the 2006 BCERC.

The Arthur M. Blank Center for Entrepreneurship is extremely grateful to Robert J. Strom, Director, Research & Policy at the Kauffman Foundation, and the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation in Kansas City, Missouri, for their continued support and generous contribution in sponsoring the BCERC Doctoral Consortium Program.

We wish to acknowledge the tremendous work of Indiana University's Jeffrey G. Covin, The Glaubinger Professor of Entrepreneurship, and Dean A. Shepherd, The Dean's Faculty Fellow, at the Kelley School of Business for their leadership on the 2006 Doctoral Consortium Program.

We would like to extend a very special thank you to the following 2006 Best Paper Award Sponsors for their generosity and continued support of the BCERC; the Babson College Family Business Award of $2,500, sponsored by George and Robin Raymond for the best paper on the topic of family business; the Irene M. McCarthy Award of $1,000, for excellence in research on the topic of high technology; the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) Award of $2,500, for the best paper on the general topic of entrepreneurship; the Office of Advocacy, U.S. Small Business Administration Award of $2,500, for the best paper exploring the importance of small businesses to the U.S. economy, or a public policy issue of importance to the entrepreneurial community; the Stevens Institute of Technology, Wesley J. Howe Award of $2,500, for excellence in research on the topic of corporate entrepreneurship. The best papers are published in their entirety in this edition of FRONTIERS OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP RESEARCH and listed at the beginning of the Detailed Table of Contents.

A sincere and grateful thank you to the 2006 Board of Reviewers for their support and dedication to the field of entrepreneurship research: Sharon Alvarez, The Ohio State University; Per Davidsson, Queensland University of Technology, James Fiet, University of Louisville; Gerard George, London Business School; Donald F. Kuratko, Indiana University; Colin Mason, University of Strathclyde; Markku Maula, Helsinki University of Technology; Maria Minniti, Babson College; Saras Sarasvathy, University of Virginia; Dean A. Shepherd, Indiana University; Paul Westhead, University of Nottingham, Johan Wiklund, Jönköping International Business School; Michael Wright, University of Nottingham; and Shaker A. Zahra, University of Minnesota.

It is a privilege to thank the conference participants, our colleagues and friends, for their contribution and passion to the field of entrepreneurship research, making this issue of FER possible. The 2006 BCERC had two hundred and two papers presented during the three days of conference sessions, representing the most recent advances in entrepreneurial research influenced by the world's leading researchers and visionaries.

We extend our appreciation and thank you to the Ad-Hoc Reviewers and the Session Chairs for their contribution, time, and entrepreneurial enthusiasm in helping with the conference.

A special thank you to Daniel C. Smith, Dean, and Patricia P. McDougall, Associate Dean, of Indiana University's Kelley School of Business for their dedicated support of the 2006 BCERC.

A very special thank you and the greatest appreciation to Sue Artmeier, Conference Coordinator for Indiana University's Johnson Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation, for her outreach of friendship and support, and for her creativity and inspiration in producing an outstanding conference.

A sincere and heartfelt thank you to the staff of Indiana University's Johnson Center for Entrepreneurship & Innovation including Kelli Conder, Samantha Uslan, Amy Denekamp, and Sue Artmeier for their incredible efforts to make the conference a huge success.

A grateful and heartfelt thank you to the staff of the Arthur M. Blank Center for Entrepreneurship, Jennifer MacDonald, Rodrigo Jaramillo, Marianne Abrams, and Antonette Ho, for their incredible support and encouragement. A special thank you to everyone at Babson College who helped with the production of this issue of FER.

A sincere thank you to Danielle Sell of Coe-Truman Technologies, Inc. for her help with the publication of FER. Typesetting was done by Estrela Design.

A special thank you to Jon Rebeck, P&R Publications, Inc. for his guidance in the printing of the 2006 issue of FER.

The design and organization of the conference was carried out at Babson College under the supervision of Conference Coordinator, Georgia Papavasiliou.

We will hold dear our fond memories of the Kelley School of Business, Indiana University's beautiful campus, our colleagues, our new friends and the camaraderie we shared at the conference.

WE THANK YOU ALL!
