ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The editors of FRONTIERS OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP RESEARCH wish to extend a very special thank you with deepest appreciation to our co-sponsor, IE Business School in Madrid, Spain, for their contribution, support and entrepreneurial spirit to the 2007 Babson College Entrepreneurship Research Conference.

We wish to express a special thank you and gratitude to Julio O. De Castro, Associate Dean of Research at IE Business School, for his invaluable support, guidance, and his inspiration and energy as the Co-Director of the 2007 BCERC.

A special thank you to Santiago Iñiguez de Ozoño, Dean, IE Business School for his dedicated support of the 2007 BCERC.

We gratefully acknowledge the support received from IMADE (The Madrid Development Organization), the Consejería de Economía de la Comunidad de Madrid (The Economics Council for the Madrid Region), the Ministry of Education and Science of Spain (through project SEJ2006-27601-E/ECON), and the Entrepreneurship Department at IE Business School, for both the 2007 Babson conference and the proceedings. All these institutions have long been at the forefront of support for research and assistance for entrepreneurs in the Madrid region and in Spain, and have been active supporters of entrepreneurship and research activities at IE Business School.

The Arthur M. Blank Center for Entrepreneurship is extremely grateful to the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation in Kansas City, Missouri, and Robert J. Strom, Director, Research & Policy at the Kauffman Foundation, for their continued support and generous contribution in sponsoring the BCERC Doctoral Consortium Program.

We wish to acknowledge the tremendous work of The Ohio State University’s Sharon Alvarez, and The University of Nottingham’s Michael Wright, for their leadership on the 2007 Doctoral Consortium Program.

We would like to extend a very special thank you to the following 2007 Best Paper Award Sponsors for their generosity and continued support of the BCERC; the Irene M. McCarthy Award of $1,000, for excellence in research on the topic of high technology; the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) Award of $2,500, for the best paper on the general topic of entrepreneurship; the Office of Advocacy, U.S. Small Business Administration Award of $2,500, for the best paper exploring the importance of small businesses to the U.S. economy, or a public policy issue of importance to the entrepreneurial community; the Stevens Institute of Technology, Wesley J. Howe Award of $2,500, for excellence in research on the topic of corporate entrepreneurship. The best papers are published in their entirety in this edition of FRONTIERS OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP RESEARCH and listed at the beginning of the Detailed Table of Contents.

A sincere and grateful thank you to the 2007 Board of Reviewers for their support and dedication to the field of entrepreneurship research: Sharon Alvarez, The Ohio State University; Melissa S. Cardon, Pace University; Julio O. De Castro, IE Business School; Gerard George, London Business School; Donald F. Kuratko, Indiana University; Markku Maula, Helsinki University of Technology; Maria Minniti, Babson College; Saras D. Sarasvathy, University of Virginia; Dean
A. Shepherd, Indiana University; Paul Westhead, The University of Warwick; Johan Wiklund, Jönköping International Business School; Michael Wright, The University of Nottingham; and Shaker A. Zahra, University of Minnesota.

It is a privilege to thank the conference participants, our colleagues and friends, for their contribution and passion to the field of entrepreneurship research, making this issue of FER possible. The 2007 BCERC had two hundred and sixteen papers presented during the three days of conference sessions, representing the most recent advances in entrepreneurial research influenced by the world’s leading researchers and visionaries.

We extend our appreciation and thank you to the Ad-Hoc Reviewers and the Session Chairs for their contribution, time, and entrepreneurial enthusiasm in helping with the conference.

A very special thank you and the greatest appreciation to Beatriz Serena, Events Coordinator for IE Business School, for her outreach of friendship and support, and for her creativity and inspiration in producing an outstanding conference.

A grateful and heartfelt thank you to the staff of the Arthur M. Blank Center for Entrepreneurship, Marianne Abrams, Antonette Ho, Jennifer MacDonald, and Keenan Thomson, for their incredible support and encouragement. A special thank you to everyone at Babson College who helped with the production of this issue of FER.

A sincere thank you to P. J. Patterson of Coe-Truman Technologies, Inc. for his help with the publication of FER. Typesetting was done by Estrela Design.

A special thank you to Jon Rebuck, P&R Publications, Inc. for his guidance in the printing of the 2007 issue of FER.

The design and organization of the conference was carried out at Babson College under the supervision of Conference Manager, Georgia Papavasiliou.

We will hold dear our fond memories of IE Business School’s beautiful campus, our colleagues, our new friends and the camaraderie we shared at the conference.
WE THANK YOU ALL!
