ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Babson College and the editors of FRONTIERS OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP RESEARCH wish to express a very special thank you with deepest appreciation to our co-sponsors, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, USA, Kenan Institute of Private Enterprise; Kenan-Flagler Business School; College of Arts and Sciences; and the Vice Chancellor of Research and Development for their contribution, support and entrepreneurial spirit to the 2008 Babson College Entrepreneurship Research Conference.

We wish to extend a special thank with gratitude to Ted Zoller, Executive Director of UNC's Center for Entrepreneurial Studies, for his support, inspiration and guidance to the 2008 BCERC. To Howard Aldrich and Barry Bayus, UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School, for their invaluable contribution, creativity and energy as the Co-Directors of the 2008 BCERC.

We gratefully acknowledge the Research Triangle Foundation, RTI International, NC IDEA and the Hamner Institutes for Health Sciences, for their generous contribution, support and commitment to the field of entrepreneurship research.

The Arthur M. Blank Center for Entrepreneurship is extremely grateful to the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation in Kansas City, Missouri, and Robert J. Strom, Director, Research & Policy at the Kauffman Foundation, for their continued support and generous contribution in sponsoring the BCERC Doctoral Consortium Program.

We wish to acknowledge the tremendous work of Atul Nerkar, The University of North Carolina, Kenan-Flagler Business School, for his outstanding leadership, and enthusiasm as Director of the 2008 Doctoral Consortium Program.

We would like to extend a very special thank you to the following 2008 Best Paper Award Sponsors for their generosity and continued support of the BCERC; the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) Award of $3,000, for the best paper on the general topic of entrepreneurship; the Office of Advocacy, U.S. Small Business Administration Award of $2,500, for the best paper exploring the importance of small businesses to the U.S. economy, or a public policy issue of importance to the entrepreneurial community; the Irene M. McCarthy Award of $1,000, for excellence in research on the topic of high technology; the Lewis Institute Award at Babson College for the best paper exploring the significance of social entrepreneurship; and the Stevens Institute of Technology, Wesley J. Howe Award of $2,500, for excellence in research on the topic of corporate entrepreneurship. The best papers are published in their entirety in this edition of FRONTIERS OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP RESEARCH and listed at the beginning of the Detailed Table of Contents.

A sincere and grateful thank you to the 2008 Board of Reviewers for their support and dedication to the field of entrepreneurship research: Sharon Alvarez, The Ohio State University; Melissa S. Cardon, Pace University; Julio O. De Castro, Babson College; Evan Douglas, University of the Sunshine Coast; Gerard George, Imperial College; Donald F. Kuratko, Indiana University; Hans Landström, Lund University; Markku Maula, Helsinki University of Technology; Maria Minniti, Southern Methodist University; Saras D. Sarasvathy, University of Virginia; Albert H. Segars, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Paul Westhead, Durham University; and Shaker A. Zahra, University of Minnesota.

It is an honor and a privilege to thank the conference participants, our colleagues and friends, for their contribution and passion to the field of entrepreneurship research, making this issue of FER possible. The 2008 BCERC had two hundred and sixteen papers presented during the three days of conference sessions, representing the most recent advances in entrepreneurial research influenced by the world's leading researchers and visionaries.

We extend our appreciation and thank you to the Ad-Hoc Reviewers and the Session Chairs for their contribution, time, and entrepreneurial enthusiasm in helping with the conference.

A very special thank you and the greatest appreciation to Zelda Stanfield, UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School, for her outreach of friendship, her creativity, inspiration and zest, in producing an outstanding conference.

A grateful and heartfelt thank you to the staff of the Arthur M. Blank Center for Entrepreneurship, Marianne Abrams, Alex Bondar, Carolyn Cesario, Antonette Ho, Jennifer MacDonald and Keenan Thomson, for their incredible support and encouragement. A special thank you to everyone at Babson College who helped with the production of this issue of FER.

A sincere thank you to Tim Mejudhon, of Coe-Truman Technologies, Inc. for his help and guidance with the publication of FER. Typesetting was done by Estrela Design.

A special thank you to Jon Rebeck, P&R Publications, Inc. for his guidance in the printing of the 2008 issue of FER.

The design and organization of the conference was carried out at Babson College under the supervision of Conference Manager, Georgia Papavasiliou.

We will hold dear the fond memories of The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, UNC's beautiful campus and most gracious hospitality, our colleagues, our new friends and the camaraderie we shared at the conference.

WE THANK YOU ALL!
